Eisenhower Says New Tax Cuts to Be Made; Says Defense Geared to Atomic Weapons

Minority to Introduce Resolutions to Probe Various State Units; Program Approved

Albany, Jan. 7 (AP)—Democratic legislative leaders today challenged the sincerity of Gov. Dewey's program to prevent public and party officials from unethically cashing in on their positions.

Sen. Francis J. Mahoney and Assemblyman Eugene F. Bannigan said "the most glaring omission in the governor's message" to the Legislature at the opening of the 1954 session yesterday was "his failure to come to grips with the pressing need for a housecleaning within his administration and the Republican Party in New York state."

To Offer Resolutions

The minority leaders, in a joint statement, said they would "shortly put the Dewey Administration to the acid test," by introducing resolutions for investigations of the State Correction and Insurance Departments, Parole Board, Liquor Authority, Thruway Authority, Harness Racing Commission and attorney general's office.

"We will know by the Dewey Administration's votes on these measures whether it wants to put its house in order or whether, by rejecting these resolutions, it only intends to pay lip service to clean government," they declared.

The Democratic chiefs applauded the social progress recommendations made by Dewey in his annual message, but said they had been borrowed in part or in whole from their party's program. And they added:

The Democratic spokesmen made no direct reference to Dewey's program for forcing public officials and leaders of parties to walk the straight and narrow, which highlighted his annual message.

In fact, the key measure in the program was approved without a single dissenting vote in either House late yesterday. The Democrats abstained from voting, but only, they said, because they had been given no chance to read the proposal.

Committee of 12

It was a resolution setting up a special committee of 12 to:

1. Define by legislation business and professional activities deemed improper for government and party officers, "with particular attention to the areas of legislative and administrative control over the licensing or regulation of business and sale of goods and services to the government or its agencies."

2. Draft legislation dealing with the issue of private practice before state agencies by public officers.

3. Establish a code of ethics to govern the conduct of public of-

Perrone Expected To Surrender in Reuther Shooting

'Prominent Detroit Names' Would Figure in Case, Officials Predict

Detroit, Jan. 7 (AP)—Santo (Sam) Perrone, union-busting Detroit racketeer, was expected to surrender today to face charges in the 1948 shooting case of CIO President Walter P. Reuther which threatened to involve "prominent Detroit names" in management and union circles.

Perrone and his son-in-law, Carl Renda, who both built scrap metal fortunes, were charged yesterday with two others in the attempted assassination of the union chieftain.

Some police officials predicted that "prominent Detroit names" would figure in the case and might even replace the four "John Does" now listed on the warrant. Police, who "broke" the long investigated case wide open yesterday, have not given any hint to the identities of the other four.

Charged in 1951

In 1951, Perrone and four associates were charged with conspiracy to smash union organizing at the Detroit-Michigan Stove Co. Perrone pleaded guilty in May 1952 and was placed on probation.

Renda, who has no police record, figured in the Kefauver crime committee hearings with his father-in-law. The hearings partially ripped the mask off labor racketeering in Detroit.

The committee heard how Perrone, nearly illiterate as a witness, had a $100,000 a year contract with Briggs Manufacturing Co. to haul scrap metal away from the company. The contract was terminated by Briggs shortly after the committee hearings.

The Detroit Times said today the prosecution will attempt to prove that the conspiracy to kill Reuther, then president of the CIO United Auto Workers, had two motives.

One motive involved an attempt by gamblers to control numbers and horse betting in all automobile plants, and the other involving labor disputes.

Contentions to Come

The Times said it will be contended that some of the alleged conspirators were in the plot for one motive and some for the other.

Perrone vanished from his fashionable home in suburban Grosse Pointe shores eight hours before police began their search to arrest him.

Accused with him were his college-educated son-in-law, Carl Renda, 35, also a fortune hunter in scrap metal; Peter Lombardo, 51, inmate of Leavenworth Penitentiary as a carrier of counterfeit money, and Clarence Jacobs, 48, Tecumseh, Ont., television shop owner once involved in alleged alien smuggling.

The formal charge said the four men—and four "John Does"—did "feloniously, wickedly and with malice aforethought" try to kill Reuther at his home the night of April 20, 1948. A shotgun charge

Arrested

Carl Renda is shown at police headquarters in Detroit, Jan. 6, after he was arrested on criminal charges in connection with the unsolved assassination attempt against CIO president Walter Reuther in 1948. Three other men were named on the same charges.

Atoms - for - Peace Parley Awaits Timing for Opening

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—The United States and Russia were agreed today on starting preliminary atoms-for-peace talks in Washington, but the important question of timing was still up in the air.

The Soviets announced the agreement last night in Moscow and the State Department quickly confirmed it.

Russia said its ambassador in Washington, Georgi M. Zarubin, would represent it at the talks to set a time, place and subject matter for full scale negotiations. No date was mentioned.

The State Department, within an hour, announced Secretary Dulles would "proceed at an early date to have the procedural conversations." That was another goad to the Soviets to get the talks going.

Time is short for Dulles, who is expected to leave two weeks from today for Berlin and the Foreign Ministers Conference there Jan. 25 among the United States, Russia, Britian and France.

Asks Early Start

Dulles has been pressing for early negotiations ever since President Eisenhower proposed, in his Dec. 8 address to the United Nations, that the world unite to strip the atom of "its military casing and adapt it to the arts of peace."

Under the Eisenhower plan, atomic materials and know-how would be pooled for peaceful purposes by the United States, Russia and other nations with a contribution to make. An international agency, under United Nations auspices, would control the pool. The hope is that such international effort might ultimately lead to control of atomic weapons also.

To Discuss Idea

Dulles has said he planned to discuss the idea with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov at the Berlin conference, originally proposed for Jan. 4. But when the meeting was postponed to Jan. 25, he instructed Charles E. Bohlen, U. S. ambassador at Moscow, to take it up with Molotov.

With two weeks left before Dulles' expected departure, there were no official guesses as to whether there was time enough to make arrangements for formal atomic pool negotiations.

Officials who were asked recalled that Special Ambassador Arthur H. Dean traveled light to Panmunjom, apparently expecting to arrange a Korean peace conference with the Chinese Communists in short order. He negotiated fruitlessly for seven weeks, then walked out in protest against Communist insults.

Security Is Hinged to Economy

Predicts 66-Billion U. S. Budget for Year, or 12 Billions Less Than Truman's

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today new tax cuts "can and will be made" as spending is cut and he told Congress America's defense plans are geared to use of atomic weapons "if they are needed to preserve our freedom."

The President in his State of the Union Message, outlined a program he said would build the military might of the United States, bolster other free nations against communism and maintain a healthy economy at home.

Proclaiming encouraging developments in the struggle for global peace Eisenhower said in a 7000-word address prepared for a joint session of the House and Senate:

"Slowly but surely, the free world gathers strength. Meanwhile from behind the Iron Curtain, there are signs that tyranny is in trouble and reminders that its structure is as brittle as its surface is hard."

Other Statements

In his address to an election year Congress almost evenly divided politically, the President also:

—Predicted a federal spending budget of about $66,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1—about 12 billion dollars less than the original Truman administration budget for the current year.

—Called for legislation to strip U. S. citizenship from Communists convicted of conspiring against the government in the future.

—Disclosed that more than 2,200 employes now have been separated from federal jobs under the Eisenhower administration's new security program. The previous total, announced last Oct. 23, was 1,456.

—Sketched plans to combat any business recession or depression, but again declared the nation's economy is basically sound, and said his administration is determined "to keep it growing."

Recommends Amendment

—Recommended a constitutional amendment to give American youths the right to vote at 18 years of age instead of 21.

—Declared foreign military aid must be continued, but that economic aid can be cut except in Korea "and a few other critical places."

—Confirmed that the special farm message he will send to Congress Monday will call for a new government price support program "with enough flexibility to attract the production of needed supplies of essential commodities and to stimulate the consumption of those commodities that are flooding American markets." His support of a flexible price support program was certain to divide farmers as well as Congress members.

Renews His Appeal

—Renewed his appeal for an increase in the federal debt ceiling, now 275 billion dollars. The House approved his request for a 15-billion-dollar hike last August, but the Senate Finance Committee rejected it.

—Urged amendment of the Atomic Energy Act to permit sharing with "our allies certain knowledge of the tactical use of our nuclear weapons."

—Announced that during the next fiscal year the U. S. will spend nearly a billion dollars more for continental defense than during the current year.

—Called again for expansion of the social security program to cover 10 million more Americans, and for a substantial increase in benefits.

—Urged extension of unemployment compensation to 6½ million workers not now covered.

Calls Law 'Basically Sound'

—Described the controversial Taft-Hartley labor law as "basically sound" but in need of improvements he will recommend in a special message Monday.

—Advocated a system of "limited government reinsurance service" to permit private and nonprofit hospital and medical insurance companies now operating to offer "broader protection to more of the many families which want and should have it." He promised to elaborate in a special message Jan. 18.

—Appealed again for congres-

Tillson Pupils Are Using New Section Of Grade School

Move Out of Fire House Quarters; $140,000 Project Will Soon Be Completed

The new section of the Tillson schoolhouse was opened this week for the students. The upper grades, six, seven and eight, which had been housed for many months in the Tillson fire hall, were moved to their new quarters over the weekend. It is expected that the entire new additional section will be entirely completed within a few weeks. The cost of the building was approximately $140,000.

Two new modern classrooms were added, with the upper grades moving into one, under the supervision of Miss Charlotte Kolb of Kingston, while the third, fourth

Three Arrests Made On Policy Charges

Action Expected to Point Way to Bigger Catch; Information to Grand Jury

District Attorney Howard C. St. John's first move yesterday in a drive to rid the county of gambling netted three arrests in Kingston on charges dealing with the possession of policy slips, and is expected to open the way to a bigger catch.

The trio, allegedly only small operators in a ring of greater scope, were picked up through combined efforts of the sheriff's office, state and Kingston police.

Arrested late yesterday afternoon were James Kiernan, 42, of 37 Broadway; George Weeks, 42, of 5 Sterling street, and Albert Ashdown, 30, of 117 Fair street.

One Case Adjourned

They appeared this morning before City Judge Raymond J. Mino where the charges against Kiernan and Weeks were moved for presentation to the next grand Jury and Ashdown was allowed an adjournment until tomorrow to obtain counsel.

Attorney S. James Matthews appeared for the district attorney's office and John Larkin for Kiernan and Weeks. Matthews' motion for adjournment of the proceedings for the purpose of presenting the charges to the next grand jury, was granted.

District Attorney St. John indicated that others are expected to be picked up on the basis of information obtained through the questioning of at least 10 persons. They will probably go before a grand jury.

Taken by Detectives

Authorities said Weeks was picked up by Detectives Clarence Brophy and Frank Sammons at 741 Broadway and was booked at police headquarters by Lt. William J. Leonard.

Ashdown was picked up by Sgt. Arthur Reilly of the state police and Deputy Sheriff Chester Wolven in a car on Broadway, and Kiernan was picked up at 37 Broadway, a barber shop, by Under Sheriff Clayton Vredenburgh and County Investigator Arthur Brown.

The Kingston police blotter shows the arrest of Kiernan and Ashdown at 4:30 p. m., and that of Weeks at 5:23 p. m.

Violations Charged

Each information charges a violation of Section 974 of the Penal Law (possession of policy slips.) The three were released in $200 bail each pending appearance in court this morning and bail was continued today.

Authorities worked many hours yesterday obtaining information. Assisting in the drive are Sheriff Cluett Schantz, Assistant District Attorney John Schick, Police Chief Raymond VanBuren, along with the state and local police and the sheriff's men.

Writer, Bankers

Weeks, authorities allege, is a policy writer and the others are

Ousted Unionist Can Visit Joe Fay At Clinton Prison

Underwood Allowed to See Convict, Judge Foley Says; Declares Law Is Clear

Albany, Jan. 7 (AP)—An ousted union leader has won permission of a federal judge to visit labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay at Clinton State Prison and ask some questions.

Roy J. Underwood, who was removed as head of Philadelphia Local 542 of the AFL International Union of Operating Engineers, wants to take a deposition from Fay. The subject would be what part, if any, Fay played in the union squabble that resulted in Underwood's ouster by William E. Maloney, president of the international. Underwood is seeking reinstatement.

Foley Gives Decision

Judge James T. Foley decided yesterday in Albany to permit Underwood to visit Fay at the prison in Dannemora to which the convict was transferred after disclosure last fall of visits by political and labor leaders to his Sing Sing cell.

The law, Foley wrote in an opinion, is clear in stating that depositions may be taken from prisoners by leave of a court, but fails to specify which courts have jurisdiction. A previous application in Federal Court at Phila-

Shandaken Area Hayfever Haven

Health Department Says Sufferers Find Little Discomfort There

The town of Shandaken area, generally, continued to be a haven for the hayfever sufferer during 1953, according to pollen counts taken throughout the season.

Information compiled by Morris Nussbaum, sanitary chemist at the Kingston laboratory, showed that there was only one "hayfever day" at Pine Hill last year, and three hayfever days at the Big Indian-Oliverea station.

A hayfever day is a day on which a person allergic to ragweed pollen could expect some discomfort, according to the Ulster County Health Department.

Five pollen counting stations are maintained in the county. These stations consist of covered

Boy, 8, Is Hurt At Union Center

Paul Tirc, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tirc, Sr., of Ulster Park was seriously injured about 6 p. m. Wednesday when he was struck by an automobile on the Union Center road about one mile west of Route 9W at Esopus, state police reported.

The boy, who troopers said apparently suffered a skull fracture and other injuries, was taken to the Benedictine Hospital. His condition was reported this morning as "serious," hospital authorities said.

Man Not Held

Behrend H. Bunje, 52, of Ulster Park, listed by troopers as driver of the automobile, was not held.

State police said young Tirc and a group of other children were walking along the south shoulder of the road, returning from sleighriding, when the westbound vehicle skidded on the icy pavement while negotiating a right curve, downgrade. The left front of the vehicle struck the boy, troopers said. The other children in the group, whose names were not available, were unhurt.

Laniel and Ministers Get New Hold on Their Posts

Paris, Jan. 7 (AP) — Premier Joseph Laniel and his cabinet ministers had a new lease on their shaky offices today. They are due to hang on to them at least until after the Berlin Big Four Conference of Foreign Ministers.

France's badly split national Assembly got together last night to give Laniel a 319-249 endorsement so Foreign Minister Georges Bidault could go to Berlin Jan. 25 as spokesman for a real government.

Laniel, who said he would resign if the vote went against him or wasn't big enough for him, had been expected to get the Assembly approval. But the size of the endorsement—five more than a majority of the chamber's 627 seats—surprised most observers. The Assembly had sent the premier to meet President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill at Bermuda with only a 275-244 endorsement.

Laniel reviewed his domestic policies at length and his foreign policies briefly before the Assembly yesterday, then called for the decisive vote on a procedural motion to postpone debate on his speech.

Most of the ballots against the premier came from Communists, who oppose his whole program, and the Socialists, who are aganst his conservative domestic policies.

Laniel normally would have resigned in accordance with French custom after President-elect Rene Coty takes office Jan. 17. With the Big Four Conference due to open only eight days later, he feared a prolonged government crisis then, which would have left France with only a caretaker foreign minister to send to Berlin.

In his policy review, the premier gave no indication of what position Bidault would take in Berlin on the No. 1 item of discussion, the future of Germany.

At the talks, he said, France would remain faithful to "Atlantic solidarity" but would also maintain" a firm determination not to permit the loss of any serious chance to improve the international climate through our relations with Russia."

Nor did he pledge Bidault to uphold the controversial European Army plan, toward which he is lukewarm and the foreign minister is strongly favorable. Laniel said only that the army treaty would come before the Assembly for ratification after the conference and "any procrastination then would be inadmissible."

Americans, South Koreans Settle Rift Temporarily

Seoul, Jan. 7 (AP)—American and South Korean leaders meeting separately today apparently settled—at least temporarily—a rift on the tense problem of disposing of prisoners of war.

South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai dropped his threat of violence to free more than 22,000 unrepatriated prisoners of war while "new (allied) arrangements" are tested.

Meanwhile, the Communists failed to answer a Repatriation Commission request for their views on what to do with the prisoners after Jan. 22, the date set by the armistice for freeing them as civilians.

The UN replied earlier that they should be released according to truce terms. There was no indication that the Communists would change their all-out opposition to release before a Korean political conference meets.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 8th Army commander, flew to Tokyo for conferences with Gen. John E. Hull, UN commander.

An official spokesman said the two generals were "smoothing out a number of prisoner details and tying up some loose ends."

The spokesman added:

"When you are dealing with different countries and peoples there are always loose ends to be tied up."

Pyun threatened Tuesday to in-

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 7 (AP)—The hand to mouth existence Mrs. Barbara Paul (Bobo) Rockefeller says she's living is said to amount to about $4,000 a month plus rent-free Park avenue penthouse. Winthrop Rockefeller's Little Rock attorney announced yesterday that the multi-millionaire had given his estranged wife $21,500 since June 1 and that the couple's 5-year-old son, Winthrop Paul, has received $750 a month from a trust fund set up for him.

Col. Anderson Dies

Richmond, Va., Jan. 7 (AP)—Col. Henry W. Anderson, former board chairman of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Co. and one-time aspirant for the Republican vice presidential nomination, died at his home here today. Anderson, 83, had been ill several months. At the time of his death, Anderson was a member of the Richmond law firm of Hunton, Williams, Anderson, Gay & Moore.

—Declared foreign military aid must be continued, but that economic aid can be cut except in Korea "and a few other critical places."

—Confirmed that the special farm message he will send to Congress Monday will call for a new government price support program "with enough flexibility to attract the production of needed supplies of essential commodities and to stimulate the consumption of those commodities that are flooding American markets." His support of a flexible price support program was certain to divide farmers as well as Congress members.

Renews His Appeal

—Renewed his appeal for an increase in the federal debt ceiling, now 275 billion dollars. The House approved his request for a 15-billion-dollar hike last August, but the Senate Finance Committee rejected it.

Three Arrests Made On Policy Charges

Action Expected to Point Way to Bigger Catch; Information to Grand Jury

District Attorney Howard C. St. John's first move yesterday in a drive to rid the county of gambling netted three arrests in Kingston on charges dealing with the possession of policy slips, and is expected to open the way to a bigger catch.

The trio, allegedly only small operators in a ring of greater scope, were picked up through combined efforts of the sheriff's office, state and Kingston police.

Arrested late yesterday afternoon were James Kiernan, 42, of 37 Broadway; George Weeks, 42, of 5 Sterling street, and Albert Ashdown, 30, of 117 Fair street.

One Case Adjourned

They appeared this morning before City Judge Raymond J. Mino where the charges against Kiernan and Weeks were moved for presentation to the next grand Jury and Ashdown was allowed an adjournment until tomorrow to obtain counsel.

Attorney S. James Matthews appeared for the district attorney's office and John Larkin for Kiernan and Weeks. Matthews' motion for adjournment of the proceedings for the purpose of presenting the charges to the next grand jury, was granted.

District Attorney St. John indicated that others are expected to be picked up on the basis of information obtained through the questioning of at least 10 persons. They will probably go before a grand jury.

Taken by Detectives

Authorities said Weeks was picked up by Detectives Clarence Brophy and Frank Sammons at 741 Broadway and was booked at police headquarters by Lt. William J. Leonard.

Ashdown was picked up by Sgt. Arthur Reilly of the state police and Deputy Sheriff Chester Wolven in a car on Broadway, and Kiernan was picked up at 37 Broadway, a barber shop, by Under Sheriff Clayton Vredenburgh and County Investigator Arthur Brown.

The Kingston police blotter shows the arrest of Kiernan and Ashdown at 4:30 p. m., and that of Weeks at 5:23 p. m.

Violations Charged

Each information charges a violation of Section 974 of the Penal Law (possession of policy slips.) The three were released in $200 bail each pending appearance in court this morning and bail was continued today.

Authorities worked many hours yesterday obtaining information. Assisting in the drive are Sheriff Cluett Schantz, Assistant District Attorney John Schick, Police Chief Raymond VanBuren, along with the state and local police and the sheriff's men.

Writer, Bankers

Weeks, authorities allege, is a policy writer and the others are

Ousted Unionist Can Visit Joe Fay At Clinton Prison

Underwood Allowed to See Convict, Judge Foley Says; Declares Law Is Clear

Albany, Jan. 7 (AP)—An ousted union leader has won permission of a federal judge to visit labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay at Clinton State Prison and ask some questions.

Roy J. Underwood, who was removed as head of Philadelphia Local 542 of the AFL International Union of Operating Engineers, wants to take a deposition from Fay. The subject would be what part, if any, Fay played in the union squabble that resulted in Underwood's ouster by William E. Maloney, president of the international. Underwood is seeking reinstatement.

Foley Gives Decision

Judge James T. Foley decided yesterday in Albany to permit Underwood to visit Fay at the prison in Dannemora to which the convict was transferred after disclosure last fall of visits by political and labor leaders to his Sing Sing cell.

The law, Foley wrote in an opinion, is clear in stating that depositions may be taken from prisoners by leave of a court, but fails to specify which courts have jurisdiction. A previous application in Federal Court at Phila-

Shandaken Area Hayfever Haven

Health Department Says Sufferers Find Little Discomfort There

The town of Shandaken area, generally, continued to be a haven for the hayfever sufferer during 1953, according to pollen counts taken throughout the season.

Information compiled by Morris Nussbaum, sanitary chemist at the Kingston laboratory, showed that there was only one "hayfever day" at Pine Hill last year, and three hayfever days at the Big Indian-Oliverea station.

A hayfever day is a day on which a person allergic to ragweed pollen could expect some discomfort, according to the Ulster County Health Department.

Five Counting Stations

Boy, 8, Is Hurt At Union Center

Paul Tirc, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tirc, Sr., of Ulster Park was seriously injured about 6 p. m. Wednesday when he was struck by an automobile on the Union Center road about one mile west of Route 9W at Esopus, state police reported.

The boy, who troopers said apparently suffered a skull fracture and other injuries, was taken to the Benedictine Hospital. His condition was reported this morning as "serious," hospital authorities said.

Man Not Held

Behrend H. Bunje, 52, of Ulster Park, listed by troopers as driver of the automobile, was not held.

State police said young Tirc and a group of other children were walking along the south shoulder of the road, returning from sleighriding, when the westbound vehicle skidded on the icy pavement while negotiating a right curve, downgrade. The left front of the vehicle struck the boy, troopers said. The other children in the group, whose names were not available, were unhurt.

Laniel and Ministers Get New Hold on Their Posts

Paris, Jan. 7 (AP) — Premier Joseph Laniel and his cabinet ministers had a new lease on their shaky offices today. They are due to hang on to them at least until after the Berlin Big Four Conference of Foreign Ministers.

France's badly split national Assembly got together last night to give Laniel a 319-249 endorsement so Foreign Minister Georges Bidault could go to Berlin Jan. 25 as spokesman for a real government.

Laniel, who said he would resign if the vote went against him or wasn't big enough for him, had been expected to get the Assembly approval. But the size of the endorsement—five more than a majority of the chamber's 627 seats—surprised most observers. The Assembly had sent the premier to meet President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill at Bermuda with only a 275-244 endorsement.

Laniel reviewed his domestic policies at length and his foreign policies briefly before the Assembly yesterday, then called for the decisive vote on a procedural motion to postpone debate on his speech.

Most of the ballots against the premier came from Communists, who oppose his whole program, and the Socialists, who are aganst his conservative domestic policies.

Laniel normally would have resigned in accordance with French custom after President-elect Rene Coty takes office Jan. 17. With the Big Four Conference due to open only eight days later, he feared a prolonged government crisis then, which would have left France with only a caretaker foreign minister to send to Berlin.

In his policy review, the premier gave no indication of what position Bidault would take in Berlin on the No. 1 item of discussion, the future of Germany.

At the talks, he said, France would remain faithful to "Atlantic solidarity" but would also maintain" a firm determination not to permit the loss of any serious chance to improve the international climate through our relations with Russia."

Nor did he pledge Bidault to uphold the controversial European Army plan, toward which he is lukewarm and the foreign minister is strongly favorable. Laniel said only that the army treaty would come before the Assembly for ratification after the conference and "any procrastination then would be inadmissible."

Americans, South Koreans Settle Rift Temporarily

Seoul, Jan. 7 (AP)—American and South Korean leaders meeting separately today apparently settled—at least temporarily—a rift on the tense problem of disposing of prisoners of war.

South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai dropped his threat of violence to free more than 22,000 unrepatriated prisoners of war while "new (allied) arrangements" are tested.

Meanwhile, the Communists failed to answer a Repatriation Commission request for their views on what to do with the prisoners after Jan. 22, the date set by the armistice for freeing them as civilians.

The UN replied earlier that they should be released according to truce terms. There was no indication that the Communists would change their all-out opposition to release before a Korean political conference meets.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 8th Army commander, flew to Tokyo for conferences with Gen. John E. Hull, UN commander.

An official spokesman said the two generals were "smoothing out a number of prisoner details and tying up some loose ends."

The spokesman added:

"When you are dealing with different countries and peoples there are always loose ends to be tied up."

Pyun threatened Tuesday to in-

American Airlines Personnel Take Vote About Strike

New York Jan. 7 (AP)—A strike vote is being taken among some 6,300 ground personnel employes of American Airlines as a result of stalemated contract negotiations.

The action was announced yesterday by the workers' union, the CIO Transport Workers, which accused the airline of refusal to arbitrate.

Efforts of the National Mediation Board broke down in Washington last Sunday.

A company spokesman said it had accepted a board offer to arbitrate, but with the specification that the talks be confined to the wage issue.

The union seeks a 29-cent across the board hourly increase plus other benefits such as improved severance, a union shop, and three weeks vacation after 10 years.

Company Offer

An American spokesman said the company had offered a 12-cent hourly boost, in addition to incorporating a 16-cent hourly cost of living increase in the basic pay.

The company spokesman said the union's last proposal was 16 cents an hour in addition to the cost of living raise, which left the disputing parties only four cents apart on the wage issue.

Affected in any work stoppage would be mechanics, plant maintenance workers, fleet service and ground service crews and stock clerks.

A company spokesman said present wages run from $1.26 to $2.42 an hour.

Byrd Asks Debate Be Held in Check

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D.-Va.) contended today that the Senate should not even debate until summer any renewed Eisenhower administration request to raise the national debt limit.

Byrd told a reporter the treasury's own figures show that the government can get along under the 275-billion-dollar legal ceiling for the next six months.

The Virginian said he believed fervently that President Eisenhower should submit to Congress a balanced budget for fiscal 1955, which begins July 1. Even if the President does not, he continued, Congress will have a chance to trim appropriations and need not act on the debt limit until May or June.

Byrd led a successful fight in the Senate Finance Committee last summer to sidetrack Eisenhower's request for a 15-billion-dollar debt limit boost after the House had passed it.

Byrd pointed out that Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey forecast last August that the debt would be 277 billion dollars in January whereas actually it is about 274½ billions now.

"I want to congratulate the administration on their diligence in saving this 2½ billion dollars," the Virginian said. "It shows what can be done and I hope they will keep it up."

Now Antonio, 18, located in Bologna, is due in New York January 16. Mrs. Megliola says her other son, iuseppe, 23, is believed to be in Naples.

Telephone Rate Boost Hampered By Various Issues

Albany, Jan. 7 (AP)—Standing between the New York Telephone Co. and a $68,850,000-a-year rate increase are—among other factors—the protests of a number of cities, some business organizations, and Joseph A. Petnal.

Petnal, an inventor from Troy, divides his time between fashioning new gadgets and suing those who allegedly pirate them.

Gray-haired and about 60, Petnal holds a $150,000 out-of-court settlement from the General Electric Co. The matter involved a three-way lamp. Now he's after the New York Telephone Co. and its parent company, American Telephone & Telegraph.

Armed with a bulging briefcase, Petnal was one of the first witnesses at the Public Service Commission's hearing this week on the proposed rate boost.

'Paid Too Much'

Consulting a sheaf of papers, Petnal contended that telephone company executives were paid too much. An impassive listener was Ralph W. Brown, phone company vice president and general counsel.

Then Petnal suggested that the PSC enlarge its staff and bring in experts to dig out facts on phone company expenditures. PSC Commissioner Spencer B. Eddy, whose agency handles cases that require some experting, didn't bat an eye.

From there, Petnal described his sanitary dial phone finger wheel, which the inventor says works faster, better than the one now in use. There is a gap in the wheel just past the "O" and this makes it easier to clean, the inventor says.

Since AT&T turned down the wheel, Petnal says, there's no market left for it. His anti-trust suit is pending in the Federal Court, Southern District.

Petnal plans to attend every session of the PSC hearing.

"I have to watch my competition," he said.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Byrd Asks Debate Be Held in Check

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D.-Va.) contended today that the Senate should not even debate until summer any renewed Eisenhower administration request to raise the national debt limit.

Byrd told a reporter the treasury's own figures show that the government can get along under the 275-billion-dollar legal ceiling for the next six months.

The Virginian said he believed fervently that President Eisenhower should submit to Congress a balanced budget for fiscal 1955, which begins July 1. Even if the President does not, he continued, Congress will have a chance to trim appropriations and need not act on the debt limit until May or June.

Byrd led a successful fight in the Senate Finance Committee last summer to sidetrack Eisenhower's request for a 15-billion-dollar debt limit boost after the House had passed it.

Byrd pointed out that Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey forecast last August that the debt would be 277 billion dollars in January whereas actually it is about 274½ billions now.

"I want to congratulate the administration on their diligence in saving this 2½ billion dollars," the Virginian said. "It shows what can be done and I hope they will keep it up."

Three Cases Settled In Supreme Court

Three actions were settled in Supreme court Wednesday prior to adjourning until Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Settled was an action in negligence brought by Carlisle and Mary DuBois against Julius Giarraputo and others. John J. McCourt for plaintiff and Stanley B. Johnson for defendant. Also settled was an action brought by Samuel Petruno and another against Emmitt Wood and others. Rusk & Rusk for plaintiff and Cashin & Ewig for defendants. There were consolidated actions.

An action for personal injuries brought by Clara Ulrich against Stuyvesant Hotel Corporation, was also settled. Howard C. St. John for plaintiff and Cook & Cook for defendants.

The first practical mechanical carpet sweepers seem to have appeared about 1865.

Hears of Sons

Mrs. Maria Megliola tearfully tells reporters in Fitchburg, Mass., how she has heard of two sons she believed were lost in Italy during the war. Born in Maine, she went to Italy with her husband in 1924. He was killed in war and her two sons were separated from her during Allied landings. Now Antonio, 18, located in Bologna, is due in New York January 16. Mrs. Megliola says her other son, iuseppe, 23, is believed to be in Naples.

Mild Weather Is Hard on Profits For Some Firms

By SAM DAWSON

New York, Jan. 7 (AP) — The mildness of the winter in many sections has cut profits and undermined prices in a number of industries—like fuel and apparel. It has helped others — like utilities and ice cream makers. It has caused men to be laid off work. It has kept others at work longer than they had expected.

And the long streak of mild winters has led many to wonder if the climate is changing.

If it is, industry, agriculture and transportation will all be affected. Some industries and crops will move farther north. Some ports will boom. Other regions may get too hot and too dry to support their present industries and crops.

And the way Americans live will change—their food habits, clothing purchases, housing and heating needs.

Too Early to Decide

It's too soon to do more than speculate about a general warming up of the climate. But recently the winters have been warmer in the northeastern and southern parts of the United States and a little colder in the northwest and along the Pacific coast.

This winter's mild temperatures in the northeast have been a bolw to the oil industry which had counted a bigger demand for fuel oil. Warm weather has added to the troubles of the coal industry. It has enabled the fast-spreading natural gas pipelines to supply all customers so far without any of the spot shortages that cropped up in former cold spells.

Ore boats plied the Great Lakes longer than usual and supplied the steel mills with all the iron ore they'll need until spring. Northern ports were free of ice much later than usual.

Utility and railroad repair crews have had less to do this winter, thereby saving their companies money. Businessmen got their orders delivered without storm delays.

Makers of soft drinks and ice cream and beer reported fall sales booming. Owners of drive-in movies profited.

But the mild weather has some resort owners worried. There's nothing like a really nasty November and December up north to send folk south in January.

A mild winter can also ruin the plans of winter resort owners up north. They need plenty of snow for their ski runs.

Merchants complained that the warm fall kept customers out of their stores. The hoped-for big selling of clothing fizzed. The ads announcing big after-Christmas clearance sales on overcoats tell the story.

Not only did some people refrain from buying new overcoats this year but others may be racking up an extra year's wear out of the old one by not using it much this year. If so, merchants fear next year's overcoat sales could be hurt, too.

Poor Year for Furs

Fur coats have had a poor year, too. Merchants blame warm weather for keeping some customers out of their fur departments, but there were other reasons also. One is the uncertainty over excise taxes. Some women may be waiting to see if Congress cuts the tax on fur coats.

Some husbands may have grown hard to handle, too. Expectations of a business downturn causes a man to think twice before putting up the dough for big-ticket items like furs.

When customers grow balky, bad business works its way back from the store to the factory to the raw materials.

Big Lay-Off

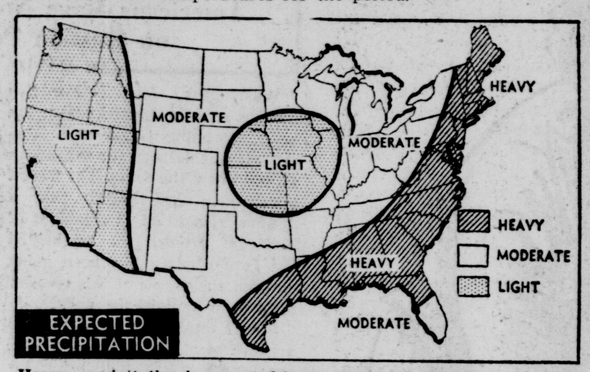

Poor sales of outerwear and heavy winter clothing have affected factory output. A company that makes leather liners for heavy clothing laid off most of its employes this week, blaming poor demand because of the mild winter. A maker of galoshes and rubbers has laid off a large part of its work force, because people don't buy these products until the weather gets nasty.

In time this could work back to the primary producers—the wool growers, the hide industry, the rubber industry.

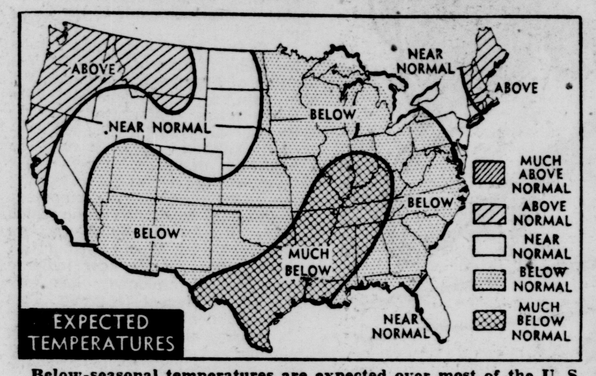

The mild winter might even affect the sale of sweaters.

Cold Weather on the Way

The weather maps below give you the U. S. Weather Bureau's long-range forecast for January. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense but is an ESTIMATE of the average rain or snowfall and temperatures for the period.

Heavy precipitation is expected in the Gulf states and in areas east of the Appalachians, much of it in snow north of Virginia. Subnormal amounts are indicated west of the Continental Divide and the central plains. Normal amounts elsewhere.

Below-seasonal temperatures are expected over most of the U. S. except for above-normal temperatures over the Northwest and New England. Most unseasonable coldness is expected in the west Gulf states and central Mississippi Valley.

Driver Likes Mud

Knoxville, Tenn. (AP)—A Knoxville driver, who had .38 per cent alcohol in his blood by "drunkometer" test, was freed on a drunk driving charge because he was stuck in the mud. Judge Charles Kelly said law requires a car to be in operation on a public street for a drunk-driving charge to stick.

Quizz Is No Gamble

Roselle Park, N. J. (AP)—Some Union county theatres, with giveaway programs resort to quizz sessions to get around New Jersey's anti-gambling laws. Raffles, considered games of chance, are illegal. Games involving skill are okay. Hence the quizz.

SAWKILL NEWS

Sawkill, Jan. 6 — The upper Sawkill School held its annual Christmas party at the schoolhouse Dec. 22. The room was decorated with motifs of the holiday season and a large tree decorated by the pupils stood in one corner. The program presented by the pupils of the school began with a play entitled A Gift From Heaven, and its theme was a party given to a group of orphanage children by a couple who had lost their child. Taking part were Doris Stevens, Harry Sleight, Marguerite Joy and Margaret Winne. Games were part of the play, and individual recitations were given. The welcome exercises were by Michael Walker, Patrick Duffy, Gregory Granquist, Richard Malone, Richard Sleight, Philip Roeber and Charles Winne. Santa Likes the Girls was by Cheryl Roeber, Lynn Duffy, Laura Joy, and Jeanne Walker. John Duffy recited Santa Likes Us Too. A dialogue entitled A Christmas Call was given by Linda Ritzhaupt and Linda Stewart. A Christmas comedy, entitled Uncle Peter's Present, was the third act presented. Taking part were William Ferguson, Leta and Lois Blackwell, William Anderson and William Karbow. Christmas carols were sung by the entire group of pupils. A piano solo was given by Irene Hugger which was followed by a piano duet by Irene Hugger and Mrs. Luther. Santa Claus later arrived and distributed gifts to the pupils and pre-schoolers at the party. All enjoyed refreshments served by the Mother's Club.

The Sawkill Fire Company was called out about 1 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 29, for a fire which destroyed a car owned by Charles Stevens, Jr. The car caught fire as Stevens was driving to his home on Jockey Hil, and although the fire company responded immediately, it was impossible to save it.

The Sawkill Fire Company Auxiliary sponsored a New Year's Eve party and dance at the firehouse. Music was by Roland Drolet and Max Wunderlich of Binnewater. Both modern dancing and square sets were on the program. Refreshments were served. The firehouse was decorated with streamers and balloons, and shortly before midnight hats and noisemakers were given to everyone. The party was a great success.

Mrs. Raymond Hartney, Raymond Hartney, Jr., of Yonkers, Miss Joan Kennedy, and Jack Kennedy of New York, spent the New Years' weekend in the village as guests of the Misses Goldpaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Boice Jr., celebrated their wedding anniversary Jan. 4.

The Sawkill Fire Company will hold its regular monthly meeting at the firehouse on the second Monday of the month, Jan. 11 and the Auxiliary will hold its regular monthly meeting at the firehouse on the second Wednesday, Jan. 13. All members of these organizations and any other interested persons, are cordially invited to attend. Fire drills are being held regularly every Sunday at 2 p. m. All members of the fire company are requested to attend drills whenever possible.

IBM AND THE COMMUNITY

Now that land in the Town of Ulster is being acquired by the International Business Machines Corporation and plans are progressing for the proposed erection of a huge plant here by this world famous industry, people of this community should not merely sit back and ask themselves: "What Happens Now?" What happens in the years ahead undoubtedly will be influenced by what the citizens of Kingston and Ulster county do now and over a period of years.

We do not know what plans IBM may have. But we will venture the guess that there are many decisions which the officers and directors of this organization have not made at this time. These decisions will be influenced by what they find here.

We expect that a large modern industrial building will be constructed on the chosen site, but the steel, the brick and the mortar are not likely to be of greatest importance to them. These could be put together in many other communities throughout the country. Perhaps even more important to IBM is the type and number of workers that are available or become available and the community atmosphere in which they live.

What is important to industry therefore are the people in the community where the organization will operate. We may feel certain that a corporation as large as IBM knows a great deal about a number of places which are seeking industrial plants and we would do well here to approach the entire matter as one of the communities which really wants to be included in the corporation's plans for expansion. We have a big lead by reason of the fact that IBM has announced its intentions to build a plant here, but we had better assume that their investment in buildings may not be the most important consideration in future plans.

What, then, should we do?

Well, here are a few things that come to mind. The Chamber of Commerce, the Common Council, the Board of Supervisors, town boards and school boards should make it known to the management of the IBM that all persons and organizations are interested in knowing what can be done here in the way of cooperation and in making our community a desirable place for a large industrial operation.

Kingston and Ulster county may be standing at the crossroads. It would not surprise us to be told that other communities which have heard of the IBM announcement are regarding our good fortune with some degree of envy. We believe that now is the time for all Kingston and Ulster County residents to show IBM that we want to make this community unusually desirable for their continued progress here.

MASCULINE HAIR STYLES

"Sorry, but I can't give you a crew cut. You're not the type."

Remarks like this may often be heard in barber shops if Great Britain's Hairdressers Association finds imitators in the United States. This body is supplying its members with albums showing the right haircut styles for various facial types.

Thus goes on the process of beautifying the male, whether he wants it or not. Probably shops will not be satisfied with cutting the customer's hair the way the barber thinks it should be, but will also besprinkle him willy nilly with some fetching brand of perfume.

DON'T FLOOD IT OUT

So many experts are busy telling us not to talk ourselves into a recession that they're beginning to have something of the same effect which might be achieved if we all howled dismally from the rooftops.

There's a very good possibility that we Americans talk too much about everything, and that doesn't exempt the experts. To keep a little prosperity in our lives, why don't we stop talking about it? The way the words are flowing these days, we may flood it out.

'These Days'

MOVIES AND MATURITY

The Motion Picture Code was devised in 1929 by Martin Quigley, adopted by the industry in 1930, and has since then served a very difficult consumer goods industry under the management of Joseph I. Breen. The Code is designed to eliminate indecency from motion pictures. Its stamp of approval has usually been required for the exhibition of a picture in a regular theatre.

Howard Hughes, who manages RKO, has twice challenged the authority of the Breen office. In both instances, his actress was Jane Russell. In the instance of "The Outlaw," he was brought to boot. In the matter of his current production, "French Line," he is fighting it out. "The Moon Is Blue" is another picture shown without the Code's authority.

Sam Goldwyn, wise in the ways of his industry, has proposed that the Code be "modernized." The assumption is that the American people are more mature and therefore can accept more sophistication than was true 25 years ago. As the principal attendants at movies are children and teen-agers, it is doubtful whether maturity and sophistication are very different today from 25 years ago.

This matter becomes increasingly important as more television pictures are manufactured by motion picture studios. That means that the performance comes right into the homes. It means a wrangle between parents and children over what the child may look at. Belly-dancers, who make sex ludicrous, are not particularly elevating to the young. This nation cannot afford the debasement of its children by any industry.

The big men in the motion picture industry realize what the problem is. They do not want the Code to fail. It has been too valuable an asset to the motion picture industry. The difficulty is that they are beset by a rapidly rising number of so-called independents who must earn money swiftly if they are to survive.

Some of these companies import pictures from France and Italy that are disgraceful. It is no secret in the industry that a large number of Americans, writers, directors, producers, actors, driven out of Hollywood by the anti-Communist movement, have settled in Italy and France, where they are producing pictures for the American market. Some of these pictures ought not to be shown in this country for any reason whatsoever.

The Supreme Court decision separating the producing end of the industry from theatre ownership was bad not only for the motion picture industry but for the United States. Now theatre-owners are bound by no code except common sense, threats of police intervention for indecency, and fear of boycott. Before the separation, theatres could not show pictures which lacked the approval of the Breen office. Today anything goes. Decent companies face destructive competition by indecent companies. The danger is not only that immoral pictures will be shown but that Communists and fellow-travelers will return to Hollywood. This means real trouble.

Motion pictures and television are generally for children and teen-agers. Those who object to all forms of censorship are unrealistic. They themselves would not subject their children to the moral risks of indecent exposure and conduct. They themselves would not like to see their children teen-age delinquents, overwrought by stimuli which might result in permanent character damage.

The motion picture industry would prefer to police itself, but it is powerless under the new type of competition particularly from abroad. It is powerless without public support. As long as indecent pictures can make plenty of money, the industry is going to be disturbed and just as bad money drives out good, so vile pictures can drive out good.

Driven by stockholders, by bankers who hold mortgages on pictures, by the danger of going under, even the established companies will go in for so-called "mature" pictures. Then will come protests from parents, teachers, clergymen, public associations and the policing of this industry will come from outside.

Were only the principal companies involved, this problem could easily be solved. They would stand by the Code. Nobody has yet improved on the Ten Commandments, even though that code is some 4,000 years old. The age of the Code does not make it inadequate for today. What places the Code in danger is that new, young, energetic companies want to make a fast dollar and pictures from Italy and France can flood this market with the moral equivalent of marijuana.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

MENTAL HEALTH EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

During World War 1 medical officers were careful to watch for any physical defect. As president of a medical board examining enlisted men before they went overseas I was greatly pleased when our board rejected only one man in a whole unit and displeased when the board had to reject as many as a dozen in another unit.

In World War 1 we were not greatly concerned with the mental condition of the patient. We accepted him if he were free from physical defects such as tuberculosis, heart disease, severe hernia, defects of the feet, and was of a certain weight for his height. We gave little thought to his mental status if he answered questions promptly and correctly.

That we — and other boards — were in error in not also testing the mental and emotional condition of the recruit is now evident. The result was that we overlooked some mental and emotional cases that caused considerable loss of man power later. Even before these men went overseas, medical officers found that many who could not stand the stress and strain of Army life because of the strange surroundings. It was, thus, not fear, as there was no combat fatigue that caused nervousness and emotional disturbances. Naturally, with the majority of these cases, actual warfare increased their abnormal behavior.

Fortunately, in World War 2, the mental and emotional make-up of the recruit was carefully investigated and medical officers had the help of psychiatrists during the examination. This psychiatric examination prevented the nervous breakdown of men when in combat.

In her booklet, "Mental Health—Everybody's Business," Katherine Glover states, "When the nation took an inventory of American youth at the time of the draft for World War 2, it found that 12 per cent of all the men examined — more than one-third of those rejected—were men barred for neuropsychiatric reasons (abnormal condition of nerves and behavior)"

What about men and women who are not in the Army? A certain precentage of all of us is in need of mental and emotional supervision and care.

It has been found that when an individual overworks himself mentally and physically and, even after a compete rest, still acts strangely, the first thought is a short stay in a mental clinic under observation. There the nature of his illness and its cause is explained so he can understand it and he may become his real self and need not have to enter a mental institution.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA) — There's another grand, Pentagon snafu in the making over President Eisenhower's new order which abolishes the "Restricted" classification on government paperwork. This leaves only "Top Secret," "Secret," and "Confidential" classifications.

Everything "Restricted" under the old security orders was supposed to be declassified or reclassified by Dec. 15. But there was so much material in this classification that Defense Secretary C. E. Wilson put out a supplementary order saying that security officers would have until March 15, 1954, to change classifications on "Restricted" material.

Pentagon reporters who thought they might get a flood of formerly "Restricted" material to write about are getting little or nothing.

Requests for the release of "Restricted" material in general are met with demands for specific items they want declassified. Not having the original material from which news dispatches could be written, reporters are, of course, stymied.

Army Ordnance officers estimate that about 90 per cent of their "Restricted" material will be up-graded to "Confidential" or "Secret" and not made public.

Still Going Strong

Henry Fountain Ashhurst, perhaps the last of the old-school orators, who spouted as Arizona's senator for nearly 30 years, is still gushing at 79. Copies of his recent speech before the Arizona Bankers' Association are being circulated in Washington to give the young fry a sample of what debate was like in Congress when men wore high stiff collars and the loud speaker had not been invented. Here is a sample sentence:

"At that time (when the first Arizona bank was opened 76 years ago) we did not know and could not know that our nation was upon the threshold of a marvelous age of such incredible achievement in art, science, literature, luxury, growth, transportation, national power, chemical discoveries and mechanical inventions that it may not be described—even by a sapphire pen dipped for ink into rainbow dew, nor by an orator of silver tongue and golden larynx."

Problem of "Care"

Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE—the Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe — is trying to find some formula for moving U. S. food surpluses for foreign relief. The value of these surpluses is now estimated at $5 billion. It is expected to reach $6 billion before June 30. Storage charges alone on these surpluses are over $450,000 a day—nearly $165 million a year—at least that much could be saved if the surpluses could be got rid of.

Mr. French points out, however, that the transportation charges for moving say $4 billion worth of these surpluses from the midwest to seaboard would be $200 million. The question is: Where and how to raise that much? The foreign governments who need the food simply don't have that kind of money.

A hundred objections are said to be raised against all plans so far put forward to move the surpluses into relief channels. It would interfere with U. S. trade. There is too much opposition to any more aid programs. It's too big a burden for the U. S. taxpayer to carry. And so on.

New Out for Jury Duty

Television viewers may soon find that they can claim an excuse for escaping jury duty by watching on-the-spot news happenings which later prove to have legal implications.

A Washington court recently declared that four prospective jurors were ineligible to serve on an arson case trial because they had seen the fire on TV. The law states that eye-witnesses to such events cannot serve on juries hearing cases which arise from what they saw.

Bootleg Lighters

Communist police search for bootlegged, homemade cigarette lighters is now being conducted in Hungary. According to the story told to the Committee for a Free Europe by a refugee from Budapest, plainclothes government inspectors are on the lookout for people using untaxed lighters, which are made by metal workers and sold to avoid an oppressive excise tax.

The routine is for the agent to stop "suspicious" persons and ask them for a light. If the victim produces a lighter, the agent looks to see if it has the stamp indicating that the tax has been paid.

Americans Have Not Been Given Facts on Russian Policy of U. S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Jan. 7—For five months now the United States has been appeasing Communist Russia without letting the American people know the facts. The Soviet government has known that a gradual relaxation in shipment of strategic articles for us behind the Iron Curtain has been going on—but the people of this country have been kept in the dark.

Secret diplomacy usually arises because of a fear that to tell the people the truth will bring restraints on the policy adopted. In this case, there is no evidence that the United States ever got anything in return for the valuable concessions made to the Communists.

For the last few months America publicly has been in the position of begging the Communists, in vain, to set a time and date for a peace conference to settle the Korean problem. Several hundred American boys have been held as prisoners, despite the terms of the armistice providing for their return. Yet important concessions have been made which allow Russia to build up her armament for World War III.

The official facts now indicate that British diplomacy has won one of its biggest triumphs. This correspondent wrote on December 25 calling attention to a British government public statement that the embargo on trade with the Communists on strategic articles was being relaxed. In that dispatch, the British were accused of defying the United States Congress. But apologies are due, for it turns out that the London government had the secret approval of the United States government, permitting her to engage in the enlarged trade in strategic items with Red China and Communist Russia.

The new policy, it now is officially conceded by the Foreign Operations Administration here, began to go into effect by degrees five months ago. It is disclosed also that there have been continuous conferences with congressional staff members on it and that there were varying reactions from certain members of Congress. Whoever these members were, they did not see fit to enlighten the American people, though, of course, Moscow and Peiping knew all the time the items of trade that were being sanctioned.

Under the new policy, for instance, rubber has been taken off the "strategic" list. In both World War I and World War II rubber was so considered. Evidently it doesn't matter to the Eisenhower Administration if rubber is exported for the trucks that carry ammunition to kill American boys in Korea or in countries where the Communists may resume their aggression. Evidently rubber for the tires of the MIGs and the bombers that constitute the Communist air force is not to be considered "strategic" any more, just because there's money to be made in it among the British colonial possessions. It would be safer for the American government to buy and stockpile such rubber to keep it out of the hands of the Communists.

The other "strategic" items now being allowed have not been made public, but it is admitted that the list has been contracted, while the list of so-called "non-strategic" items has been expanded.

The argument is made here that a stricter control is being exercised now over the items that remain on the "strategic" list and that other nations have agreed to these controls. It is also contended by the foreign operations administration that the Russians lately have been compelled to ship out gold to get foreign exchange with which to buy needed articles. It is pointed out that this shows how the embargo has been pinching.

But there is no explanation as to why, when an embargo is becoming effective, it is suddenly decided to relax it. What did the United States and the western countries get by way of concessions from the Communists, if anything?

The four-power conference is about to start in Berlin, but the Allies have been throwing away their economic leverage. Today the Communists know the west will not use military power to gain its ends, and, since the west is forfeiting its economic trump cards, there seems no logical reason why the Communists should not continue to act arrogantly and to prosecute their "cold war" tactics throughout the world.

The official information is given out here that all this relaxation is due to a decision by the National Security Council and that the action was taken last summer. This group, headed by the President, conducts its sessions in great secrecy — supposedly to keep the enemy from knowing what is going on. Evidently the purpose here also was to keep the American people and the entire Congress from knowing that the spirit, if not the letter, of its laws forbidding trade in strategic commodities with aggressors was being flagrantly violated. It is a distressing chapter in American history, and it is not likely that all members of Congress will accept without vigorous protest the announcement of what appears to be a new surrender to the Communists on the eve of the four-power conference.

Hottest Election in 20 Years Now Shaping Up for Honduras

(Editor's Note—At 77, former President Tiburcio Carias Andino of Honduras, still holds tight rein on his country. But his former protege, President Juan Manuel Galvez, has pushed a reform program in the least developed of all the Central American republics too fast for the old strong man's liking. Here's the story of the subsequent split and what it portends for the future).

By PAUL SANDERS

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Jan. 7 (AP) — Honduras, the least-developed of the Central American republics, is working up to its hottest election fight in 20 years—if a coup doesn't prevent the balloting set for next October.

Charges of "dictatorship" and "communism" bounce back and forth dozens of times each day.

The big issue is whether the country is to continue in the grip of its strong man, 77-year-old former President Tiburcio Carias Andino, or whether it is to have "new deal" reforms pushed by moderates, the Liberal party, and left-wingers.

The conservative followers of Carias in his Nacional party see the Liberals as heavily infiltrated with Communists. These charges bring angry denials from Liberal leaders, who say they want only the same type of social welfare and labor legislation in effect in the United States. The Liberals also want revision of the concession held by the United Fruit Co., the country's biggest concern.

The fruit company pays the country's highest wages for farm labor, but the Liberals contend that Honduras isn't getting enough financial return from the firm's operations.

In this situation the charge inevitably arose that the liberals were influenced by Guatemala, whose Red-dominated government expropriated thousands of acres of fruit company land, and by Costa Rica, whose government has asked revision of the company concession in that country.

In answer to this, the Liberals reply, "our program is 100 per cent Honduran."

Split with Carias on the reform issue is President Juan Manuel Galvez, a Nacional who was the strong man's hand-picked candidate in the 1948 elections. Galvez has given the country its most progressive administration in 20 years. A high degree of press freedom has been established. The first labor legislation — covering compensation for accidents while at work and working conditions for women and children—has been enacted.

Roads Opened New Sections

Galvez also began a road-building program to open up new sections of the country, and carried on public health, education and agricultural improvement projects with U. S. aid.

When the Galvez backers—the reform wing of the Nacional Party—came out for further and sweeping advances, Carias split with them. The old strong man, robust and looking 20 years younger than his age, thought the Reformists were moving too fast, and had allowed Communists to infiltrate the country.

Kept Grip on Party

Without relinquishing his grip on the Nacional party, he left the presidency in 1948 and has directed the campaign against constitutional reforms sponsored by both Galvez' Reformistas and the Liberals.

The Liberals went out of power in 1932, and haven't made much of a showing against the Carias machine since then. But this year they are well organized, ably led by young leaders, and hope to win the 1954 elections, either for themselves or teamed up with the Reformistas.

Poverty and backwardness not only background the political situation here, but make the country the target for underground Communist activity. Much of this activity centers on the fruit company workers, because they make up Honduras' only large labor force.

Living Standards Low

The country is slightly smaller than Pennsylvania, has a population of a little more than 1½ million, about 60 per cent of it illiterate. Living standards are low and wages for farm workers run around a dollar a day in most of the country, and somewhat higher in the fruit company operations.

THURSDAY— ... ...

The way things stand now Carias or one of his close friends is likely to be the national candidate for president next year. Carias seems to have a strong grip on the One-House Congress, which would make a new constitution before the 1954 elections unlikely.

That would rule out Galvez as a candidate for re-election since the present constitution forbids re-election.

Two Possibilities

Two possibilities have been mentioned for the Reformista nomination. They are Abraham Williams, a prominent cattle-raiser, and Marcos A. Batres, the present minister of finance. Williams was vice president for a time under Carias.

Either Williams or Batres might get Liberal party support. And the Reformistas combined with the Liberals claim to outnumber the Carias forces. That was indicated in municipal elections Nov. 30 in the country's rural districts. The Nacional party got a total of 44,334 votes, the Reformistas 37,022 and the Liberals 35,218. Tegucigalpa and the other cities did not vote in that election.

If the Liberals decide to go their own way, they have a long list of aspirants for the nomination. The two strongest possibilities at present include Dr. Ramon Ville Da Morales, a surgeon, and Rafael Medina Raudales, president of the party executive council.

IBM AND THE COMMUNITY

Now that land in the Town of Ulster is being acquired by the International Business Machines Corporation and plans are progressing for the proposed erection of a huge plant here by this world famous industry, people of this community should not merely sit back and ask themselves: "What Happens Now?" What happens in the years ahead undoubtedly will be influenced by what the citizens of Kingston and Ulster county do now and over a period of years.

We do not know what plans IBM may have. But we will venture the guess that there are many decisions which the officers and directors of this organization have not made at this time. These decisions will be influenced by what they find here.

We expect that a large modern industrial building will be constructed on the chosen site, but the steel, the brick and the mortar are not likely to be of greatest importance to them. These could be put together in many other communities throughout the country. Perhaps even more important to IBM is the type and number of workers that are available or become available and the community atmosphere in which they live.

What is important to industry therefore are the people in the community where the organization will operate. We may feel certain that a corporation as large as IBM knows a great deal about a number of places which are seeking industrial plants and we would do well here to approach the entire matter as one of the communities which really wants to be included in the corporation's plans for expansion. We have a big lead by reason of the fact that IBM has announced its intentions to build a plant here, but we had better assume that their investment in buildings may not be the most important consideration in future plans.

What, then, should we do?

Well, here are a few things that come to mind. The Chamber of Commerce, the Common Council, the Board of Supervisors, town boards and school boards should make it known to the management of the IBM that all persons and organizations are interested in knowing what can be done here in the way of cooperation and in making our community a desirable place for a large industrial operation.

Kingston and Ulster county may be standing at the crossroads. It would not surprise us to be told that other communities which have heard of the IBM announcement are regarding our good fortune with some degree of envy. We believe that now is the time for all Kingston and Ulster County residents to show IBM that we want to make this community unusually desirable for their continued progress here.

MASCULINE HAIR STYLES

"Sorry, but I can't give you a crew cut. You're not the type."

Remarks like this may often be heard in barber shops if Great Britain's Hairdressers Association finds imitators in the United States. This body is supplying its members with albums showing the right haircut styles for various facial types.

Thus goes on the process of beautifying the male, whether he wants it or not. Probably shops will not be satisfied with cutting the customer's hair the way the barber thinks it should be, but will also besprinkle him willy nilly with some fetching brand of perfume.

DON'T FLOOD IT OUT

So many experts are busy telling us not to talk ourselves into a recession that they're beginning to have something of the same effect which might be achieved if we all howled dismally from the rooftops.

There's a very good possibility that we Americans talk too much about everything, and that doesn't exempt the experts. To keep a little prosperity in our lives, why don't we stop talking about it? The way the words are flowing these days, we may flood it out.

MOVIES AND MATURITY

The Motion Picture Code was devised in 1929 by Martin Quigley, adopted by the industry in 1930, and has since then served a very difficult consumer goods industry under the management of Joseph I. Breen. The Code is designed to eliminate indecency from motion pictures. Its stamp of approval has usually been required for the exhibition of a picture in a regular theatre.

Howard Hughes, who manages RKO, has twice challenged the authority of the Breen office. In both instances, his actress was Jane Russell. In the instance of "The Outlaw," he was brought to boot. In the matter of his current production, "French Line," he is fighting it out. "The Moon Is Blue" is another picture shown without the Code's authority.

Sam Goldwyn, wise in the ways of his industry, has proposed that the Code be "modernized." The assumption is that the American people are more mature and therefore can accept more sophistication than was true 25 years ago. As the principal attendants at movies are children and teen-agers, it is doubtful whether maturity and sophistication are very different today from 25 years ago.

This matter becomes increasingly important as more television pictures are manufactured by motion picture studios. That means that the performance comes right into the homes. It means a wrangle between parents and children over what the child may look at. Belly-dancers, who make sex ludicrous, are not particularly elevating to the young. This nation cannot afford the debasement of its children by any industry.

The big men in the motion picture industry realize what the problem is. They do not want the Code to fail. It has been too valuable an asset to the motion picture industry. The difficulty is that they are beset by a rapidly rising number of so-called independents who must earn money swiftly if they are to survive.

Some of these companies import pictures from France and Italy that are disgraceful. It is no secret in the industry that a large number of Americans, writers, directors, producers, actors, driven out of Hollywood by the anti-Communist movement, have settled in Italy and France, where they are producing pictures for the American market. Some of these pictures ought not to be shown in this country for any reason whatsoever.

The Supreme Court decision separating the producing end of the industry from theatre ownership was bad not only for the motion picture industry but for the United States. Now theatre-owners are bound by no code except common sense, threats of police intervention for indecency, and fear of boycott. Before the separation, theatres could not show pictures which lacked the approval of the Breen office. Today anything goes. Decent companies face destructive competition by indecent companies. The danger is not only that immoral pictures will be shown but that Communists and fellow-travelers will return to Hollywood. This means real trouble.

Motion pictures and television are generally for children and teen-agers. Those who object to all forms of censorship are unrealistic. They themselves would not subject their children to the moral risks of indecent exposure and conduct. They themselves would not like to see their children teen-age delinquents, overwrought by stimuli which might result in permanent character damage.

The motion picture industry would prefer to police itself, but it is powerless under the new type of competition particularly from abroad. It is powerless without public support. As long as indecent pictures can make plenty of money, the industry is going to be disturbed and just as bad money drives out good, so vile pictures can drive out good.

Driven by stockholders, by bankers who hold mortgages on pictures, by the danger of going under, even the established companies will go in for so-called "mature" pictures. Then will come protests from parents, teachers, clergymen, public associations and the policing of this industry will come from outside.

Were only the principal companies involved, this problem could easily be solved. They would stand by the Code. Nobody has yet improved on the Ten Commandments, even though that code is some 4,000 years old. The age of the Code does not make it inadequate for today. What places the Code in danger is that new, young, energetic companies want to make a fast dollar and pictures from Italy and France can flood this market with the moral equivalent of marijuana.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

MENTAL HEALTH EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

During World War 1 medical officers were careful to watch for any physical defect. As president of a medical board examining enlisted men before they went overseas I was greatly pleased when our board rejected only one man in a whole unit and displeased when the board had to reject as many as a dozen in another unit.

In World War 1 we were not greatly concerned with the mental condition of the patient. We accepted him if he were free from physical defects such as tuberculosis, heart disease, severe hernia, defects of the feet, and was of a certain weight for his height. We gave little thought to his mental status if he answered questions promptly and correctly.

That we — and other boards — were in error in not also testing the mental and emotional condition of the recruit is now evident. The result was that we overlooked some mental and emotional cases that caused considerable loss of man power later. Even before these men went overseas, medical officers found that many who could not stand the stress and strain of Army life because of the strange surroundings. It was, thus, not fear, as there was no combat fatigue that caused nervousness and emotional disturbances. Naturally, with the majority of these cases, actual warfare increased their abnormal behavior.

Fortunately, in World War 2, the mental and emotional make-up of the recruit was carefully investigated and medical officers had the help of psychiatrists during the examination. This psychiatric examination prevented the nervous breakdown of men when in combat.

In her booklet, "Mental Health—Everybody's Business," Katherine Glover states, "When the nation took an inventory of American youth at the time of the draft for World War 2, it found that 12 per cent of all the men examined — more than one-third of those rejected—were men barred for neuropsychiatric reasons (abnormal condition of nerves and behavior)"

What about men and women who are not in the Army? A certain precentage of all of us is in need of mental and emotional supervision and care.

It has been found that when an individual overworks himself mentally and physically and, even after a compete rest, still acts strangely, the first thought is a short stay in a mental clinic under observation. There the nature of his illness and its cause is explained so he can understand it and he may become his real self and need not have to enter a mental institution.

The pamphlet, "Mental Health — Everybody's Business," may be obtained by sending 25 cents to Public Affairs Committee, 22 East 38th street, New York 16, N. Y.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA) — There's another grand, Pentagon snafu in the making over President Eisenhower's new order which abolishes the "Restricted" classification on government paperwork. This leaves only "Top Secret," "Secret," and "Confidential" classifications.

Everything "Restricted" under the old security orders was supposed to be declassified or reclassified by Dec. 15. But there was so much material in this classification that Defense Secretary C. E. Wilson put out a supplementary order saying that security officers would have until March 15, 1954, to change classifications on "Restricted" material.

Pentagon reporters who thought they might get a flood of formerly "Restricted" material to write about are getting little or nothing.

Requests for the release of "Restricted" material in general are met with demands for specific items they want declassified. Not having the original material from which news dispatches could be written, reporters are, of course, stymied.

Army Ordnance officers estimate that about 90 per cent of their "Restricted" material will be up-graded to "Confidential" or "Secret" and not made public.

Still Going Strong

Henry Fountain Ashhurst, perhaps the last of the old-school orators, who spouted as Arizona's senator for nearly 30 years, is still gushing at 79. Copies of his recent speech before the Arizona Bankers' Association are being circulated in Washington to give the young fry a sample of what debate was like in Congress when men wore high stiff collars and the loud speaker had not been invented. Here is a sample sentence:

"At that time (when the first Arizona bank was opened 76 years ago) we did not know and could not know that our nation was upon the threshold of a marvelous age of such incredible achievement in art, science, literature, luxury, growth, transportation, national power, chemical discoveries and mechanical inventions that it may not be described—even by a sapphire pen dipped for ink into rainbow dew, nor by an orator of silver tongue and golden larynx."

Problem of "Care"

Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE—the Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe — is trying to find some formula for moving U. S. food surpluses for foreign relief. The value of these surpluses is now estimated at $5 billion. It is expected to reach $6 billion before June 30. Storage charges alone on these surpluses are over $450,000 a day—nearly $165 million a year—at least that much could be saved if the surpluses could be got rid of.

Mr. French points out, however, that the transportation charges for moving say $4 billion worth of these surpluses from the midwest to seaboard would be $200 million. The question is: Where and how to raise that much? The foreign governments who need the food simply don't have that kind of money.

A hundred objections are said to be raised against all plans so far put forward to move the surpluses into relief channels. It would interfere with U. S. trade. There is too much opposition to any more aid programs. It's too big a burden for the U. S. taxpayer to carry. And so on.

New Out for Jury Duty

Television viewers may soon find that they can claim an excuse for escaping jury duty by watching on-the-spot news happenings which later prove to have legal implications.

A Washington court recently declared that four prospective jurors were ineligible to serve on an arson case trial because they had seen the fire on TV. The law states that eye-witnesses to such events cannot serve on juries hearing cases which arise from what they saw.

Bootleg Lighters

Communist police search for bootlegged, homemade cigarette lighters is now being conducted in Hungary. According to the story told to the Committee for a Free Europe by a refugee from Budapest, plainclothes government inspectors are on the lookout for people using untaxed lighters, which are made by metal workers and sold to avoid an oppressive excise tax.

The routine is for the agent to stop "suspicious" persons and ask them for a light. If the victim produces a lighter, the agent looks to see if it has the stamp indicating that the tax has been paid.

Americans Have Not Been Given Facts on Russian Policy of U. S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Jan. 7—For five months now the United States has been appeasing Communist Russia without letting the American people know the facts. The Soviet government has known that a gradual relaxation in shipment of strategic articles for us behind the Iron Curtain has been going on—but the people of this country have been kept in the dark.

Secret diplomacy usually arises because of a fear that to tell the people the truth will bring restraints on the policy adopted. In this case, there is no evidence that the United States ever got anything in return for the valuable concessions made to the Communists.

For the last few months America publicly has been in the position of begging the Communists, in vain, to set a time and date for a peace conference to settle the Korean problem. Several hundred American boys have been held as prisoners, despite the terms of the armistice providing for their return. Yet important concessions have been made which allow Russia to build up her armament for World War III.

The official facts now indicate that British diplomacy has won one of its biggest triumphs. This correspondent wrote on December 25 calling attention to a British government public statement that the embargo on trade with the Communists on strategic articles was being relaxed. In that dispatch, the British were accused of defying the United States Congress. But apologies are due, for it turns out that the London government had the secret approval of the United States government, permitting her to engage in the enlarged trade in strategic items with Red China and Communist Russia.

The new policy, it now is officially conceded by the Foreign Operations Administration here, began to go into effect by degrees five months ago. It is disclosed also that there have been continuous conferences with congressional staff members on it and that there were varying reactions from certain members of Congress. Whoever these members were, they did not see fit to enlighten the American people, though, of course, Moscow and Peiping knew all the time the items of trade that were being sanctioned.

Under the new policy, for instance, rubber has been taken off the "strategic" list. In both World War I and World War II rubber was so considered. Evidently it doesn't matter to the Eisenhower Administration if rubber is exported for the trucks that carry ammunition to kill American boys in Korea or in countries where the Communists may resume their aggression. Evidently rubber for the tires of the MIGs and the bombers that constitute the Communist air force is not to be considered "strategic" any more, just because there's money to be made in it among the British colonial possessions. It would be safer for the American government to buy and stockpile such rubber to keep it out of the hands of the Communists.

The other "strategic" items now being allowed have not been made public, but it is admitted that the list has been contracted, while the list of so-called "non-strategic" items has been expanded.

The argument is made here that a stricter control is being exercised now over the items that remain on the "strategic" list and that other nations have agreed to these controls. It is also contended by the foreign operations administration that the Russians lately have been compelled to ship out gold to get foreign exchange with which to buy needed articles. It is pointed out that this shows how the embargo has been pinching.

But there is no explanation as to why, when an embargo is becoming effective, it is suddenly decided to relax it. What did the United States and the western countries get by way of concessions from the Communists, if anything?

The four-power conference is about to start in Berlin, but the Allies have been throwing away their economic leverage. Today the Communists know the west will not use military power to gain its ends, and, since the west is forfeiting its economic trump cards, there seems no logical reason why the Communists should not continue to act arrogantly and to prosecute their "cold war" tactics throughout the world.

The official information is given out here that all this relaxation of trade in strategic articles is due to a decision by the National Security Council and that the action was taken last summer. This group, headed by the President, conducts its sessions in great secrecy — supposedly to keep the enemy from knowing what is going on. Evidently the purpose here also was to keep the American people and the entire Congress from knowing that the spirit, if not the letter, of its laws forbidding trade in strategic commodities with aggressors was being flagrantly violated. It is a distressing chapter in American history, and it is not likely that all members of Congress will accept without vigorous protest the announcement of what appears to be a new surrender to the Communists on the eve of the four-power conference.

Hottest Election in 20 Years Now Shaping Up for Honduras

(Editor's Note—At 77, former President Tiburcio Carias Andino of Honduras, still holds tight rein on his country. But his former protege, President Juan Manuel Galvez, has pushed a reform program in the least developed of all the Central American republics too fast for the old strong man's liking. Here's the story of the subsequent split and what it portends for the future).

By PAUL SANDERS

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Jan. 7 (AP) — Honduras, the least-developed of the Central American republics, is working up to its hottest election fight in 20 years—if a coup doesn't prevent the balloting set for next October.

Charges of "dictatorship" and "communism" bounce back and forth dozens of times each day.

The big issue is whether the country is to continue in the grip of its strong man, 77-year-old former President Tiburcio Carias Andino, or whether it is to have "new deal" reforms pushed by moderates, the Liberal party, and left-wingers.

The conservative followers of Carias in his Nacional party see the Liberals as heavily infiltrated with Communists. These charges bring angry denials from Liberal leaders, who say they want only the same type of social welfare and labor legislation in effect in the United States. The Liberals also want revision of the concession held by the United Fruit Co., the country's biggest concern.

The fruit company pays the country's highest wages for farm labor, but the Liberals contend that Honduras isn't getting enough financial return from the firm's operations.

In this situation the charge inevitably arose that the liberals were influenced by Guatemala, whose Red-dominated government expropriated thousands of acres of fruit company land, and by Costa Rica, whose government has asked revision of the company concession in that country.

In answer to this, the Liberals reply, "our program is 100 per cent Honduran."

Split with Carias on the reform issue is President Juan Manuel Galvez, a Nacional who was the strong man's hand-picked candidate in the 1948 elections. Galvez has given the country its most progressive administration in 20 years. A high degree of press freedom has been established. The first labor legislation — covering compensation for accidents while at work and working conditions for women and children—has been enacted.

Roads Opened New Sections

Galvez also began a road-building program to open up new sections of the country, and carried on public health, education and agricultural improvement projects with U. S. aid.

When the Galvez backers—the reform wing of the Nacional Party—came out for further and sweeping advances, Carias split with them. The old strong man, robust and looking 20 years younger than his age, thought the Reformists were moving too fast, and had allowed Communists to infiltrate the country.

Kept Grip on Party

Without relinquishing his grip on the Nacional party, he left the presidency in 1948 and has directed the campaign against constitutional reforms sponsored by both Galvez' Reformistas and the Liberals.

The Liberals went out of power in 1932, and haven't made much of a showing against the Carias machine since then. But this year they are well organized, ably led by young leaders, and hope to win the 1954 elections, either for themselves or teamed up with the Reformistas.

Poverty and backwardness not only background the political situation here, but make the country the target for underground Communist activity. Much of this activity centers on the fruit company workers, because they make up Honduras' only large labor force.

Living Standards Low

The country is slightly smaller than Pennsylvania, has a population of a little more than 1½ million, about 60 per cent of it illiterate. Living standards are low and wages for farm workers run around a dollar a day in most of the country, and somewhat higher in the fruit company operations.

THURSDAY— ... ...

The way things stand now Carias or one of his close friends is likely to be the national candidate for president next year. Carias seems to have a strong grip on the One-House Congress, which would make a new constitution before the 1954 elections unlikely.

That would rule out Galvez as a candidate for re-election since the present constitution forbids re-election.

Two Possibilities

Two possibilities have been mentioned for the Reformista nomination. They are Abraham Williams, a prominent cattle-raiser, and Marcos A. Batres, the present minister of finance. Williams was vice president for a time under Carias.

Either Williams or Batres might get Liberal party support. And the Reformistas combined with the Liberals claim to outnumber the Carias forces. That was indicated in municipal elections Nov. 30 in the country's rural districts. The Nacional party got a total of 44,334 votes, the Reformistas 37,022 and the Liberals 35,218. Tegucigalpa and the other cities did not vote in that election.

If the Liberals decide to go their own way, they have a long list of aspirants for the nomination. The two strongest possibilities at present include Dr. Ramon Ville Da Morales, a surgeon, and Rafael Medina Raudales, president of the party executive council.

Serve Beef While It's on Plentiful List

TASTY YORKSHIRE PUDDING adds a regal touch to standing rib roast. Beef is plentiful and cheap on market now.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Now that tremendous supplies of top-quality beef are beginning to arrive in our markets, let's splurge and have a tender, succulent rib roast. To complete the regal meal, how about serving Yorkshire pudding with it.

When we think of beef, we should think of "The Complete Meat Cookbook" by Beth Bailey McLean and Thora Hegstad Campbell. This book is the last word on meat cookery. Here are some suggestions taken from the volume:

How to Cook Beef Roasts

Place the roast fat side up in a shallow open pan. The rib bones in a standing-rib roast keep the roast off the bottom of the pan. Place a rolled-rib-roast on a rack in the bottom of the pan. Insert a roast-meat thermometer into the center of the roast.

Do not wash the roast. It may be wiped with a damp cloth or paper towel. Do not add water or cover the roast.

Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) until the roast-meat thermometer indicates the degree of doneness you desire: 140 degrees F. rare, 160 degrees F. medium, or 170 degrees F. well done.

Remove the roast to the platter or a smaller pan. Keep the roast warm. Use the meat drippings in the pan to make gravy.

Yorkshire Pudding
(6 servings)

One cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk.

Combine the flour and salt in a 1-quart bowl. Beat the eggs well with an electric or rotary beater, then beat in the milk. Pour this into the flour and continue beating until the thin batter is smooth. Pour ½ cup of the meat drippings from the roasting pan into an 8x8-inch pan (or into 6 deep muffin pans). Heat the pan in the oven. Add the pudding batter and bake in a hot oven 30 minutes. Cut into squares to serve. This means that the roast and batter bake in the same oven for 15 minutes, then the roast is removed to "set" before carving.

Cable Cars Troublesome

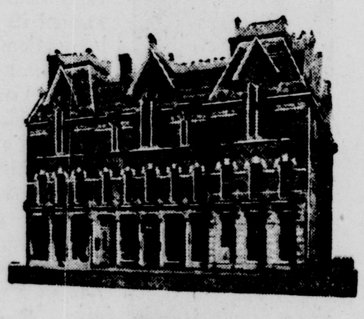

San Francisco (AP)—Mary Alice Ball, 34-year-old war widow, has switched to office work after 11 years as one of San Francisco's two woman cable car conductors. Mrs. Ball, mother of a 16-year-old daughter, said she's through demanding "fares, tickets and transfers, please," on the creaking, swaying, hill-climbing trams because: "It was my ulcer or the line, and the ulcer was gaining."

Honey Casualties Minor

Pine Bush, N. Y. (AP)—To get cash toward repairing the century-old Crawford Methodist Church here, it was decided to confiscate and sell the honey stored up by bees in five hives under the eaves of the church. A night expedition resulted in the following casualties: Burnet Decker, former Brooklyn policeman, was stung several times, and Ira Jones did a jig for five minutes trying to get one insect out of his pants leg. Warren Spadola, a beekeeper, was stung on the tongue as he offered advice to the novices.

Although whales are mammals they have no external hind legs.

Double Duty

The honeybee is funny
Its functions seeming double:
Its one end gives us honey,
The other gives us trouble.
—Richard Wheeler

The man had bought a prefabricated house and put it together himself. With pride, he was showing it to some friends.

Man—What puzzles me, though, is that when I go down into the basement, I come out on the roof.

Friend (snorting)—No wonder. You've got it upside down.

If Thomas Jefferson isn't the patron saint of Washington bureaucrats, he should be—he introduced the swivel chair.

New Iceman—Say, what do you think?' The guy in that house threw me out because I tried to kiss the cook this morning.

Milkman—I think the lady of that house does her own cooking.

There is a rank due the United States among nations that will be withheld by the reputation of weakness.

—George Washington.

A friend is one who walks in when all the others walk out.—Josef S. Chevalier in Satevepost.

Casper—That girl across the hall has a singular voice.

Jasper—Lucky it isn't plural.

Principal—How's Smitty on the high jump? Any good?

Coach—No! He can hardly clear his own throat.

Perhaps the greatest tribute ever paid to a doctor comes from the little girl who asked her mother.

Little Girl—Is God very sick?

Mother (startled)—Why do you ask me that, darling?

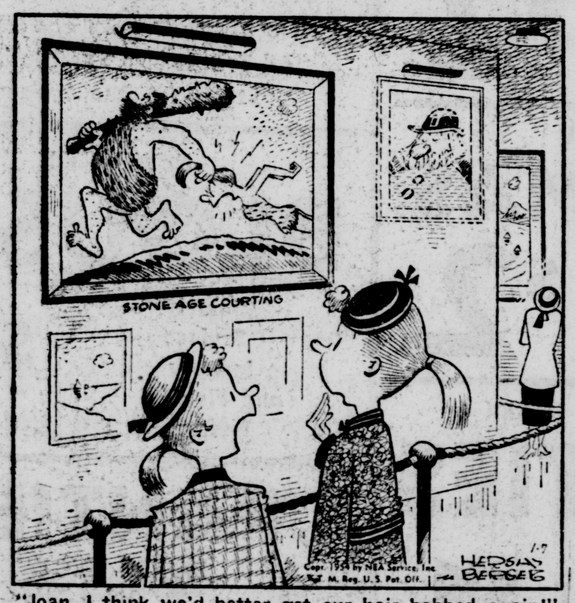

Little Girl—Cause Doctor Morrell died last night and I guess God must have sent for him.

Extravagance—the way other people spend their money.

If he still has his appendix and his tonsils, 10 to 1 he's a doctor.

Alaska is said to have been made from the Aleutian word "Alayeksha," meaning "the great land."

The man had bought a prefabricated house and put it together himself. With pride, he was showing it to some friends.

Friend (snorting)—No wonder. You've got it upside down.

If Thomas Jefferson isn't the patron saint of Washington bureaucrats, he should be—he introduced the swivel chair.

New Iceman—Say, what do you think?' The guy in that house threw me out because I tried to kiss the cook this morning.

Coach—No! He can hardly clear his own throat.

Perhaps the greatest tribute ever paid to a doctor comes from the little girl who asked her mother.

Little Girl—Is God very sick?

Gruenther Says West Can Damage Soviet Potential

Paris, Jan. 7 (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme allied commander in Europe, said today the west has the capability "to do a great deal of damage to Soviet industrial potential and the Russians are unable to meet this development at this time."

The allied commander, reviewing the accomplishments of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on the third anniversary of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's arrival in Paris, said the development of NATO's strategic air power was "one of the consoling features" in the overall situation.

He told an American Club luncheon "we still do not have enough forces in any area, particularly the central area, to meet an all-out Soviet offensive. But neither do the Soviets have the capability to defend themselves against an attack on their industry potential."

Gruenther said the inclusion of German forces in the defense of the west still was NATO's goal and that he felt it would be "a waste of time to seek an alternative solution to the European army and we would lose time and play into the hands of our adversaries."

Gruenther said current planning centered on new atomic weapons and the effect they would have on planning, taxes and the financial burden they would place on the 14 NATO nations.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Jan. 7—A new time schedule for services in the Ashokan Methodist Church is in effect Sunday, Jan. 10. The worship service begins at 9:30 a. m. and the Sunday school hour is 10:45 a. m.

Isabel Hrazanek who with her son, Billy, spent several days last week at their Shandaken summer place on the Wittenberg road, was a caller here Friday. Saturday, Mrs. Hrazanek motored to Albany to see her brother.

Birthdays falling Thursday, Jan. 7, include that of Mrs. Earl North of the Mountain road. The former Hilda Palen, a communicant of the Shokan Reformed Church, was brought up at Ashokan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adsit motored to Athens, Greene county, Sunday and spent the afternoon with their friend, Hewitt Osborn. Both Osborn and Adsit are members of the board of the Olive & Hurley O. S. Baptist Church.

Clayton and Lena Burgher who went to Florida in late October are making their headquarters at Daytona Beach. They have made a number of trips to points along the east coast and inland Florida. Clayton, for many years an official of the Woodstock Fire Insurance Company, is considerably improved in health since going south. Mrs. Burgher, who is active in Eastern Star circles, taught the Shokan school several years.

The January meeting of the Ashokan WSCS took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martin Gulnac on Van-Steenburgh Lane.

Andrew Holm is a bit old fashioned in one respect; he carries a key-winder, hunting case watch, an heirloom, that has been giving faithful service for at least a century. Andrew declares his old ticker never is "a minute off," from one year to another.

Herbert Schweringer of the Krumville road was a weekend caller in the village center. Herb, one of the old timers on the reservoir force, was accompanied here by one of his eight sons.

One of the readers calls attention to the number of dogs running loose along this section of the Onteora Trail. He wonders if their owners realize how many canines have thus met an untimely end, and how many serious accidents have resulted from motorists striking or dodging these foot-loose animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diepher, Jersey couple, who have a summer home at Phoenicia and their two daughters were callers in the hub of the reservoir country Saturday. One of Henry's grandfathers was a Dutch Reformed clergyman in Holland and later in New Jersey.

Beginning Sunday, the Methodist Youth Fellowship units of the three churches of the Ashokan charge will hold regular weekly meetings each Sunday at 7 p. m. in the West Hurley Church. These meetings are designed for the spiritual edification of young people between the ages of 12 and 23.

Walter Cook of Ashokan has invested in a new tractor for snow plowing and mowing.

Cavalry Will Be Brought to U. S.

San Francisco, Jan. 7 (AP)—Unofficial reports in army circles here said the 1st Cavalry Division —veteran of two Korean war tours—will be transferred soon from Japan to the United States, the Chronicle reported today.

It said the outfit will be replaced in Japan by one of two divisions President Eisenhower recently announced would be withdrawn from Korea.

The other division to be withdrawn will be sent to Hawaii to become a ready reserve force for any emergency in the Pacific.

The 24th Division, historically stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, is reported slated for Hawaii, and the 25th, which has served in Korea since July, 1950, may replace the 1st in Japan.

Chamber Will Help On Village Zoning

Saugerties, Jan. 7—At the village board meeting Monday evening a group from the local Chamber of Commerce offered its services on committees to investigate all the facts about zoning in the village. The delegation was headed by Andrew P. Vozdik, president of the local chamber, and included Ben Greenspan and Rudolf Nelson.

Mayor George Holmes thanked the committee for the chamber's offer and promised to utilize its services at any time when action is taken in regards to zoning.

The board on a suggestion by Trustee Roy Helsmortel would name a special zoning committee at the next meeting. As it was suggested that this committee might consist of private citizens plus some members of the board, the lapse of time would be needed to make the proper selections. The names would be presented at the next scheduled meeting on Monday, Jan. 18.

McCarthy Calls Group to Meeting

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) called a meeting of his Senate Investigations Subcommittee today and said moves to curb or surrender part of its Red-hunting powers "may be discussed."

He has described as "a lie" published reports that he has agreed, under urging from Eisenhower administration officials, to switch emphasis in his group's investigations from communism to other fields.

The main objective of today's closed door meeting, he said, is to act on his own requests for contempt of Congress citations against three balky witnesses in his recent investigations of alleged spying at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

He named the three as Corliss Lamont, wealthy New York writer; Albert Shadowitz, who McCarthy said, refused to answer questions with the explanation that Dr. Albert Einstein had advised him not to cooperate with the subcommittee; and Abraham Unger, a New York city lawyer. McCarthy said Lamont refused to answer questions, and refused to cite in justification the constitution's guarantee against self-incrimination. He said Unger "conducted a filibuster."

To Discuss Anything

But McCarthy added he was willing at today's meeting to "discuss anything the other senators have in mind," including a controversial proposal by Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) that the Senate create a powerful new committee to carry the main load of investigating subversion and un-American activities.

Mundt is a member of McCarthy's subcommittee, which has been all Republican since its three Democratic members resigned with McCarthy last July.

McCarthy told reporters he "would not favor" Mundt's proposal.

Mundt had said he thought Communist investigations were too big a job for a subcommittee to handle, and that his plan would avoid duplication of effort.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 7 (AP) — The stock market was a trifle lower today, but signs of improvement were plentiful.

Losses went to around a point while gains were fractional, in some cases extending into the major fractions.

The pace of trading was moderate at a rate perhaps a little less than yesterday's 1,460,000 shares.

Aircrafts were the most depressed of the major divisions of the market, but in late morning they began to show a little betterment.

Motors were ahead on balance. Other sections of the list were steady to narrowly mixed.

There was every evidence of caution in trading before the release of President Eisenhower's State of the Union address.

Lower stocks included Boeing, United Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, and American Can.

Perrone Expected

was fired at Reuther through his kitchen window.

Similar Attempt Made

The next year a similar attempt was made on the life of Victor Reuthers, a co-official in the CIO president's United Auto Workers Union.

Rewards totaling more than $200,000 are outstanding in both incidents.

Renda and Jacobs were arraigned on the charges yesterday —the former in Detroit and the latter in Windsor, Ont. Renda supplied $25,000 bond for his release pending examination Jan. 14. Jacobs was remanded to jail without bond.

Meantime, Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien said flatly, "we definitely have a motive." But he refused to disclose it.

O'Brien also said he did not know whether the Walter and Victor shootings had any connection.

Letter Is Read

In the Essex County Court at Windsor a letter from O'Brien was read which said "Jacobs participated in the actual shooting (of Walter)."

Later O'Brien said, however, that he did not mean that Jacobs was the triggerman. He refused to say exactly what he did mean.

Jacobs pleaded ignorance of anything concerned with the case. His lawyer, Ross S. Ridell, said "we don't even know what he's charged with." Jacobs was arraigned on Canadian extradition warrant. He will be given an international extradition hearing Jan. 14.

Renda grinned and tossed wisecracks at newsmen at his court appearance. He refused to pose for pictures until he had been returned his necktie. It was taken from him at his arrest, a routine police act.

His two lawyers, Sam Travis and Eugene O'Leary, denounced the charge and the arrest. They said it was an attempt to "make a stir before the statute of limitations runs out."

Michigan law provides a six-year limitation on charges of this nature. After next April the charges could not be brought.

Would Have No Objection

Karachi, Pakistan, Jan. 7 (AP)—Foreign Minister Zafrullah Khan said in an interview today Pakistan would have no objection to the United States giving military aid to India. He added: "Why should we have any objection if India is in need of any equipment and can obtain it from a friendly state like the United States?" He said there was no question of the balance of power in Asia being upset by extension of U. S. military aid to Pakistan—a fear expressed by Indian Premier Nehru.

Court Decree Gives Right to Restore Woodstock Sector

One of Woodstock's scenic spots will be restored to its original and familiar condition as a result of a consent decree granted by Justice William Deckelman of the Supreme court and filed Thursday in the Ulster county clerk's office.

Involved is the Sawkill creek, familiar to many for its summer swimming facilities, at a point where the creek flows through the former Riseley property, which is now a portion of the Woodstock Properties, Inc., and the Louis A. Lewis property.

In 1951 following the destruction by high water of the Woodstock Country Club dam across the Sawkill two dams were erected by the Club for the purpose of impounding the water of the stream to creat a swimming pool.

Louis A. Lewis is the owner of the adjoining upstream property on which is located Riseley's Falls, which a generation ago provided power for grist mill operations at the site of what is now the Country Club. For years Riseley's Falls was one of the scenic spots of the area and provided facilities for bathing in the cool deep pools at the base of the falls.

After the construction of the dam by the Club it was claimed by Lewis that the flow of the stream was so affected as to flood his lands and the force lessened as to cause great deposits of sand, gravel and stone to accumulate on the bed of the stream lowering the depth of the water and filling in the pools. Since the construction of the two dams there has been no bathing or swimming.

Action Starts

An action against the Country Club and the Woodstock Properties, Inc., the owners of the land, for an injunction and damages followed. During the trial the upper dam was removed by the club and the lower dam altered to provide greater open area to permit water and stones and other rubble to be washed down stream during high water.

After four days of trial the case was disposed of by stipulation resulting in the consent decree. By the terms of the injunction it is decreed that the plaintiff, Louis Lewis, is entitled to the uninterrupted use of the waters of the Sawkill, and the defendants, Woodstock Country Club and Woodstock Properties, Inc., are enjoined from interfering with such use and enjoyment except to the extent that they are permitted to maintain the one dam in its altered condition as it presently exists. They are required to remove from the dam the splash boards and other contrivances between September 10 and the first of June each year to permit the free flow of water and they are required to remove the stones, gravel and deposits from the Sawkill creek and to restore it to its natural level and condition. Louis Lewis was also awarded damages against the defendant in the sum of $1,400.

Arthur B. Ewig represented the plaintiff and the defendants were represented by N. LeVan Haver.

Gruenther Says West Can Damage Soviet Potential

Paris, Jan. 7 (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme allied commader in Europe, said today the west has the capability "to do a great deal of damage to Soviet industrial potential and the Russians are unable to meet this development at this time."

The allied commander, reviewing the accomplishments of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on the third anniversary of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's arrival in Paris, said the development of NATO's strategic air power was "one of the consoling features" in the overall situation.

He told an American Club luncheon "we still do not have enough forces in any area, particularly the central area, to meet an all-out Soviet offensive. But neither do the Soviets have the capability to defend themselves against an attack on their industry potential."

Gruenther said the inclusion of German forces in the defense of the west still was NATO's goal and that he felt it would be "a waste of time to seek an alternative solution to the European army and we would lose time and play into the hands of our adversaries."

Gruenther said current planning centered on new atomic weapons and the effect they would have on planning, taxes and the financial burden they would place on the 14 NATO nations.

McCarthy Calls Group to Meeting

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) called a meeting of his Senate Investigations Subcommittee today and said moves to curb or surrender part of its Red-hunting powers "may be discussed."

He has described as "a lie" published reports that he has agreed, under urging from Eisenhower administration officials, to switch emphasis in his group's investigations from communism to other fields.

The main objective of today's closed door meeting, he said, is to act on his own requests for contempt of Congress citations against three balky witnesses in his recent investigations of alleged spying at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

He named the three as Corliss Lamont, wealthy New York writer; Albert Shadowitz, who McCarthy said, refused to answer questions with the explanation that Dr. Albert Einstein had advised him not to cooperate with the subcommittee; and Abraham Unger, a New York city lawyer. McCarthy said Lamont refused to answer questions, and refused to cite in justification the constitution's guarantee against self-incrimination. He said Unger "conducted a filibuster."

To Discuss Anything

But McCarthy added he was willing at today's meeting to "discuss anything the other senators have in mind," including a controversial proposal by Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) that the Senate create a powerful new committee to carry the main load of investigating subversion and un-American activities.

Mundt is a member of McCarthy's subcommittee, which has been all Republican since its three Democratic members resigned with McCarthy last July.

McCarthy told reporters he "would not favor" Mundt's proposal.

Mundt had said he thought Communist investigations were too big a job for a subcommittee to handle, and that his plan would avoid duplication of effort.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 7 (AP) — The stock market was a trifle lower today, but signs of improvement were plentiful.

Losses went to around a point while gains were fractional, in some cases extending into the major fractions.

The pace of trading was moderate at a rate perhaps a little less than yesterday's 1,460,000 shares.

Aircrafts were the most depressed of the major divisions of the market, but in late morning they began to show a little betterment.

Motors were ahead on balance. Other sections of the list were steady to narrowly mixed.

There was every evidence of caution in trading before the release of President Eisenhower's State of the Union address.

Lower stocks included Boeing, United Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, and American Can.

Perrone Expected

was fired at Reuther through his kitchen window.

Similar Attempt Made

The next year a similar attempt was made on the life of Victor Reuthers, a co-official in the CIO president's United Auto Workers Union.

Rewards totaling more than $200,000 are outstanding in both incidents.

Renda and Jacobs were arraigned on the charges yesterday —the former in Detroit and the latter in Windsor, Ont. Renda supplied $25,000 bond for his release pending examination Jan. 14. Jacobs was remanded to jail without bond.

Meantime, Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien said flatly, "we definitely have a motive." But he refused to disclose it.

O'Brien also said he did not know whether the Walter and Victor shootings had any connection.

Letter Is Read

In the Essex County Court at Windsor a letter from O'Brien was read which said "Jacobs participated in the actual shooting (of Walter)."

Later O'Brien said, however, that he did not mean that Jacobs was the triggerman. He refused to say exactly what he did mean.

Jacobs pleaded ignorance of anything concerned with the case. His lawyer, Ross S. Ridell, said "we don't even know what he's charged with." Jacobs was arraigned on Canadian extradition warrant. He will be given an international extradition hearing Jan. 14.

Renda grinned and tossed wisecracks at newsmen at his court appearance. He refused to pose for pictures until he had been returned his necktie. It was taken from him at his arrest, a routine police act.

His two lawyers, Sam Travis and Eugene O'Leary, denounced the charge and the arrest. They said it was an attempt to "make a stir before the statute of limitations runs out."

Michigan law provides a six-year limitation on charges of this nature. After next April the charges could not be brought.

Would Have No Objection

Karachi, Pakistan, Jan. 7 (AP)—Foreign Minister Zafrullah Khan said in an interview today Pakistan would have no objection to the United States giving military aid to India. He added: "Why should we have any objection if India is in need of any equipment and can obtain it from a friendly state like the United States?" He said there was no question of the balance of power in Asia being upset by extension of U. S. military aid to Pakistan—a fear expressed by Indian Premier Nehru.

Court Decree Gives Right to Restore Woodstock Sector

One of Woodstock's scenic spots will be restored to its original and familiar condition as a result of a consent decree granted by Justice William Deckelman of the Supreme court and filed Thursday in the Ulster county clerk's office.

Involved is the Sawkill creek, familiar to many for its summer swimming facilities, at a point where the creek flows through the former Riseley property, which is now a portion of the Woodstock Properties, Inc., and the Louis A. Lewis property.

In 1951 following the destruction by high water of the Woodstock Country Club dam across the Sawkill two dams were erected by the Club for the purpose of impounding the water of the stream to creat a swimming pool.

Louis A. Lewis is the owner of the adjoining upstream property on which is located Riseley's Falls, which a generation ago provided power for grist mill operations at the site of what is now the Country Club. For years Riseley's Falls was one of the scenic spots of the area and provided facilities for bathing in the cool deep pools at the base of the falls.

After the construction of the dam by the Club it was claimed by Lewis that the flow of the stream was so affected as to flood his lands and the force lessened as to cause great deposits of sand, gravel and stone to accumulate on the bed of the stream lowering the depth of the water and filling in the pools. Since the construction of the two dams there has been no bathing or swimming.

Action Starts

An action against the Country Club and the Woodstock Properties, Inc., the owners of the land, for an injunction and damages followed. During the trial the upper dam was removed by the club and the lower dam altered to provide greater open area to permit water and stones and other rubble to be washed down stream during high water.

After four days of trial the case was disposed of by stipulation resulting in the consent decree. By the terms of the injunction it is decreed that the plaintiff, Louis Lewis, is entitled to the uninterrupted use of the waters of the Sawkill, and the defendants, Woodstock Country Club and Woodstock Properties, Inc., are enjoined from interfering with such use and enjoyment except to the extent that they are permitted to maintain the one dam in its altered condition as it presently exists. They are required to remove from the dam the splash boards and other contrivances between September 10 and the first of June each year to permit the free flow of water and they are required to remove the stones, gravel and deposits from the Sawkill creek and to restore it to its natural level and condition. Louis Lewis was also awarded damages against the defendant in the sum of $1,400.

Arthur B. Ewig represented the plaintiff and the defendants were represented by N. LeVan Haver.

WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW

Most meat prices will be higher in food stores across the country this weekend. Your best bet, food men agree, will be to buy the meats chosen as special features.

The extent of price increases varies widely with different sections of the country. Sirloin steak, for instance, will be unchanged in some stores, but up four to 12 cents a pound in others. Leg of lamb may cost four to six cents a pound more. The high-flying pork chop will climb as much as 12 cents a pound in some areas. Frying chickens are going to be higher nearly everywhere, with increases ranging from a couple of cents a pound to as much as a dime.

Features in Meat

Meat features mentioned by a number of stores include rib roasts, various cuts of lamb, pot roast, ground beef and smoked beef tongues.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture singled out chickens as the No. 1 buy this month, despite small price increases this week.

"Tender young poultry rates shopper attention, as always, for palate appeal and east of preparation," the U.S.D.A. said. "During January, when the whole family is back on a busy post-holiday schedule, the homemaker can broil a young chicken to a tempting turn in 45 minutes or less."

Bargain Prices

The Poultry and Egg National Board said this week it expects chickens to be available at bargain prices for a good while. There will be a big movement of chickens to market within the next month, it reported.

Coffee is back in the news. Coffee roasters from coast to coast raised wholesale prices by two to three cents a pound because tight world supplies have forced green coffee prices to new record levels. Generally, it's 30 days before the wholesale boosts are reflected at retail. However, one major chain boosted prices on its own brands this week and others are expected to follow.

Lettuce went up on the produce markets this week, but most other vegetables stayed the same or declined in price. The best buys: cabbage, escarole, kale, onions, potatoes, turnips and tomatoes. Fruit men said oranges are the best buy in citrus. Pears and apples also represent good value, they said.

The play that American experts now as the "smother play" is known in Europe as the "Devil's coup." Most experts know the play in theory but seldom if ever get a chance to execute it because the situation is so rare in actual play.

It must therefore have been very disappointing to the experts who took part in a recent "Olympic" in Italy to be robbed of a smother play by fine defense play.

West leads the queen of diamonds, holding the trick. Diamonds are continued, and South ruffs the third round. South naturally takes a trump finesse and is relieved to find that it is successful. He repeats the finesse, but East discards a diamond on the second round of trumps.

The average player would give up at this point. West has more trumps than the dummy and is apparently sure to win a trump trick with his king. South expects to lose a trump, two diamonds, and a club.

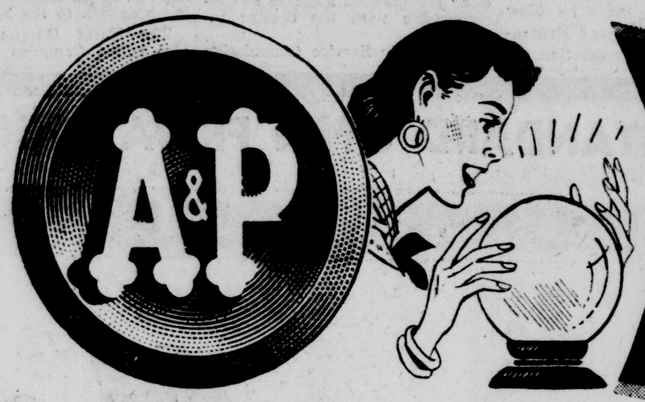

An expert South would not give up. He would cash the ace and king of clubs, followed by the three top hearts. He then leads another club, allowing East to win with the queen.

East must return a red card. South has only two trumps and dummy has the last club and the rest of trumps. If West plays his king of trumps, dummy overruffs with the ace; and then South can win the last trick. If West plays a low trump, dummy discards a club, and dummy wins the last trick wtih the ace of trumps. Either way, West doesn't win a trick with his king of spades.

This astounding play can be thwarted, however, if East defends properly. When South pushes the ace and king of clubs, East must unblock by playing his queen and jack. This allows West to win the eventual third club with the ten. West then leads his low trump to force out dummy's ace. The king of spades is thus rescued from smothering and from the Devil's clutches.

WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW

Most meat prices will be higher n food stores across the country his weekend. Your best bet, food men agree, will be to buy the meats chosen as special features.

The extent of price increases varies widely with different sections of the country. Sirloin steak, for instance, will be unchanged in some stores, but up four to 12 cents a pound in others. Leg of lamb may cost four to six cents a pound more. The high-lying pork chop will climb as much as 12 cents a pound in some areas. Frying chickens are going to be higher nearly everywhere, with increases ranging from a couple of cents a pound to as much as a dime.

Features in Meat

Meat features mentioned by a number of stores include rib roasts, various cuts of lamb, pot roast, ground beef and smoked beef tongues.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture singled out chickens as the No. 1 buy this month, despite small price increases this week.

"Tender young poultry rates shopper attention, as always, for palate appeal and ease of preparation," the U.S.D.A. said. "During January, when the whole family is back on a busy post-holiday schedule, the homemaker can broil a young chicken to a tempting turn in 45 minutes or less."

Bargain Prices

The Poultry and Egg National Board said this week it expects chickens to be available at bargain prices for a good while. There will be a big movement of chickens to market within the next month, it reported.

Coffee is back in the news. Coffee roasters from coast to coast raised wholesale prices by two to three cents a pound because tight world supplies have forced green coffee prices to new record levels. Generally, it's 30 days before the wholesale boosts are reflected at retail. However, one major chain posted prices on its own brands this week and others are expected to follow.

Lettuce went up on the produce markets this week, but most other vegetables stayed the same or declined in price. The best buys: cabbage, escarole, kale, onions, potatoes, turnips and tomatoes. Fruit men said oranges are the best buy in citrus. Pears and apples also represent good value, they said.

The play that American experts now as the "smother play" is known in Europe as the "Devil's pup." Most experts know the ay in theory but seldom if ever t a chance to execute it because e situation is so rare in actual ay.

It must therefore have been ry disappointing to the experts o took part in a recent Olympic" in Italy to be robbed a smother play by fine defense play.

West leads the queen of diaonds, holding the trick. Diaonds are continued, and South ffs the third round. South turally takes a trump finesse d is relieved to find that it is ccessful. He repeats the fisse, but East discards a diaond on the second round of umps.

The average player would give at this point. West has more umps than the dummy and is parently sure to win a trump ick with his king. South exects to lose a trump, two diaonds, and a club.

An expert South would not give . He would cash the ace and ng of clubs, followed by the ree top hearts. He then leads other club, allowing East to win th the queen.

East must return a red card. uth has only two trumps and mmy has the last club and the e of trumps. If West plays his ng of trumps, dummy overruffs th the ace; and then South can n the last trick. If West plays low trump, dummy discards e club, and dummy wins the st trick wtih the ace of trumps. Either way, West doesn't win trick with his king of spades.

This astounding play can be warted, however, if East deds properly. When South shes the ace and king of clubs, st must unblock by playing his een and jack. This allows West win the eventual third club th the ten. West then leads his v trump to force out dummy's e. The king of spades is thus scued from smothering and from e Devil's clutches.

Official Report Would Be Posted, If Bill Adopted

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 7 (AP)—The official transcript of legislative proceedings and debate would be posted for public inspection, under terms of a bill before the Legislature.

Assemblyman Thomas Fitzpatrick, Queens Democrat, introduced the measure yesterday at the opening session.

It was among 196 bills offered —111 in the Assembly and 85 in the Senate.

The measure would require official stenographers of the Legislature to provide at least one copy of each day's session to the legislative library before the end of the second legislative day following.

Although proceedings of the Senate and Assembly are recorded, stenographers' notes are not transcribed for public view.

Similar bills have died in committee in the past, including an identical measure Fitzpatrick offered last year.

Bingo Has Day

Bingo got a big first-day play, with six assorted bills offered to legalize the game for certain groups. Chances of a bill clearing legislative hurdles were considered somewhat brighter than in the past.

The constitution bars gambling, except for parimutuel betting at horse-racing tracks, so the voters would have the final say.

The measures specified that bingo games could be conducted only by fraternal, veterans, religious and patriotic organizations or similar groups.

Deficiency Bill

On the fiscal front, a budget-deficiency bill was submitted to tide over funds and agencies needing money before the fiscal year ends March 31.

Allotted for capital construction is $7,450,000. The major items: 4 million for an arterial highway link with the thruway at Syracuse and a parking lot at the State Fair grounds; $3,200,000 for highway reconstruction, and $250,000 for traffic signals.

Sought for state purposes and local assistance is $2,672,961. The biggest item is $2,227,750 for other road repairs.

The highway funds are needed to give the public works department a head start on summer road work.

Other bills would:

Permit use of voting machines in primary elections (Halpern-R and Rabin-R).

Provide that railroad employes be paid weekly instead of three times a month (T. Fitzpatrick-D).

Revise voting strength on New York city board of estimate to give four votes to mayor, comptroller and council president; three to Brooklyn borough president and two to Bronx and Queens borough presidents (T. Fitzpatrick).

Establish superhighway running from state thruway near Albany north to Canadian border (J. Fitzpatrick-R).

Ives to Leave Hospital

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.), who is in George Washington Hospital for a check-up, is expected to leave the hospital Saturday and return to his duties Monday, his office said yesterday.

Playing cards originated in Asia, many students believe.

Farm Bureau Federation Adopts Phone Resolution

Ithaca, Jan. 7 (AP)—The New York State Farm Bureau Federation has adopted a resolution opposing the New York Telephone Company's proposed rate increase.

A spokesman for the federation said yesterday the resolution cited the planned increase as "incompatible with the decline income."

The Public Service Commission has continued until Jan. 18 a hearing in Albany on the firm's request for higher rates that would raise its annual income by $68,850,000. Seven cities are on record in opposition to the boost.

The Farm Bureau resolution also asked Congress to abandon excise taxes on telephone service.

Castles in Early Fighting Ships

The term "forecastle" is a survival from early fighting ships which often had castles or towers to aid in the fighting on bow and stern.

Official Report Would Be Posted, If Bill Adopted

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 7 (AP)—The official transcript of legislative proceedings and debate would be posted for public inspection, under terms of a bill before the Legislature.

Assemblyman Thomas Fitzpatrick, Queens Democrat, introduced the measure yesterday at the opening session.

It was among 196 bills offered —111 in the Assembly and 85 in the Senate.

The measure would require official stenographers of the Legislature to provide at least one copy of each day's session to the legislative library before the end of the second legislative day following.

Although proceedings of the Senate and Assembly are recorded, stenographers' notes are not transcribed for public view.

Similar bills have died in committee in the past, including an identical measure Fitzpatrick offered last year.

Bingo Has Day

Bingo got a big first-day play, with six assorted bills offered to legalize the game for certain groups. Chances of a bill clearing legislative hurdles were considered somewhat brighter than in the past.

The constitution bars gambling, except for parimutuel betting at horse-racing tracks, so the voters would have the final say.

The measures specified that bingo games could be conducted only by fraternal, veterans, religious and patriotic organizations or similar groups.

Deficiency Bill

On the fiscal front, a budget-deficiency bill was submitted to tide over funds and agencies needing money before the fiscal year ends March 31.

Allotted for capital construction is $7,450,000. The major items: 4 million for an arterial highway link with the thruway at Syracuse and a parking lot at the State Fair grounds; $3,200,000 for highway reconstruction, and $250,000 for traffic signals.

Sought for state purposes and local assistance is $2,672,961. The biggest item is $2,227,750 for other road repairs.

The highway funds are needed to give the public works department a head start on summer road work.

Other bills would:

Permit use of voting machines in primary elections (Halpern-R and Rabin-R).

Provide that railroad employes be paid weekly instead of three times a month (T. Fitzpatrick-D).

Revise voting strength on New York city board of estimate to give four votes to mayor, comptroller and council president; three to Brooklyn borough president and two to Bronx and Queens borough presidents (T. Fitzpatrick).

Establish superhighway running from state thruway near Albany north to Canadian border (J. Fitzpatrick-R).

Ives to Leave Hospital

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.), who is in George Washington Hospital for a check-up, is expected to leave the hospital Saturday and return to his duties Monday, his office said yesterday.

Playing cards originated in Asia, many students believe.

Farm Bureau Federation Adopts Phone Resolution

Ithaca, Jan. 7 (AP)—The New York State Farm Bureau Federation has adopted a resolution opposing the New York Telephone Company's proposed rate increase.

A spokesman for the federation said yesterday the resolution cited the planned increase as "incompatible with the decline income."

The Public Service Commission has continued until Jan. 18 a hearing in Albany on the firm's request for higher rates that would raise its annual income by $68,850,000. Seven cities are on record in opposition to the boost.

The Farm Bureau resolution also asked Congress to abandon excise taxes on telephone service.

Castles in Early Fighting Ships

The term "forecastle" is a survival from early fighting ships which often had castles or towers to aid in the fighting on bow and stern.

Ambassador Luce Meets With President

U. S. Ambassador to Italy Clare Boothe Luce listens to President Eisenhower as they confer at the White House January 6 on the international import of recent Italian government crisis. Mrs. Luce went to luncheon with the Eisenhowers in the White House after the conference.

Baths Are Limited

St. Peter Port, Guernsey, Jan. 7 (AP)—Residents of this drouth-stricken channel island have been ordered to limit themselves to five inches of bath water daily until the rains come.

The Centigrade thermometer has the freezing point of water as zero and the boiling point of water at 100 degrees.

French Are Braced For New Attack

Saigon, Indochina, Jan. 7 (AP)—The French braced themselves today to meet an expected attack in Laos from the Vietminh Division which drove across Indochina to the Mekong river and the Thailand border just before Christmas.

The French said they believed an assault in the Seno area, just south of the rebels' invasion route, was imminent.

After almost two weeks of quiet in the area, numerous patrol clashes have been reported in the past 48 hours around Seno. The French claimed they had killed 169 troops of the Communist-led Vietminh in one ambush.

Just north of the Laotian border, in northwest Indochina, French fighters and bombers kept up their round-the-clock attacks on roads and rebel supply lines northeast of Dien Bein Phu. Another attack is expected there from 12,000 men of Vietminh Division 316 and thousands from two other divisions that have moved up on the big French position.

Will Raze Theatre

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Vanderbilt Theatre, 148 West 48th street, at present the home of the show, "The Dead Pigeon," will become exactly that if a plan to erect a six-floor garage on the site, which came to light yesterday is approved by the City Planning Commission. The commission, in its meeting in city hall, fixed Feb. 3 as the date for a hearing on a proposal filed by Irving Maidman, of 1501 Broadway. He said in his petition that he is the owner of the property and plans to erect a garage there with a capacity of 157 automobiles. The petition gave no indication of the cost or the time when construction would begin if the proposal was approved.

14 Women Take Trip

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—Fourteen women left by plane yesterday or a two-week safari in the jungles of Africa—but they'll do their "hunting" with cameras and not guns. The group—ranging in age from 27 to 60—includes widows, mothers, businesswomen and housewives from several states. Among those Africa-bound were Mrs. Helen Halliwell, of Ardsley-on-Hudson, and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, of Syosset. Mrs. Johnson, wife of U. S. Air Force Capt. Irl E. Johnson, is a graduate of Smith College and a former student of architecture at Tulane University. Mrs. Johnson said her daughter, Joy, 7, wants her to bring back two baby cheetahs.

Re-zoning Is Adopted

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—Rezoning of the Riverdale section, designed to maintain about 1,800 acres in the extreme west portion of the Bronx, as "one of the most scenically attractive and desirable residential communities in the entire country," was adopted by the city planning commission yesterday. The re-zoning had been protested, especially by real estate interests desirous of erecting large apartment houses in the area, but the planning commission said that such structures could be built in certain parts of the choice residential areas.

Decision Is Reserved

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court has reserved decision on an appeal by a group of Yonkers merchants seeking to restrain the state from routing the State Thruway along Central Park avenue in the Westchester county community. The petitioners, headed by Alexander's department store in Yonkers, pleaded yesterday before a five-man court of the Appellate Division's second department, sitting in Brooklyn. Associated Justice Frank F. Adel presided.

Election Is Delayed

Little Rock (AP) — Mansfield, Ark., held an election two weeks late. It developed — on election day—that printing of the ballots had been overlooked.

Congressman Says Agreement Cited

Greensburg, Pa., Jan. 7 (AP)—Rep. Augustine B. Kelley (D.-Pa.) said yesterday the White House has agreed to "look into" his request for safe standards for the physical conditioning of military recruits.

Kelley asked the Defense Department to make a medical study to set the standards. His proposal was made following the deaths last July of two Marine Corps officer candidates during a training hike at Quantico, Va.

The victims were Joseph J. Conwell Jr. of Greensburg and William E. Malone Jr. of Pelham, N. Y.

Kelley said he received a letter from the White House saying that the administration has begun an inquiry of the congressman's proposal.

Kelley quoted the White House letter as saying "the President is always actively interested in any step which is taken to improve the functioning of the military services and to maintain the highest standards of health and morale among military personnel."

Contract Agreed Upon

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—Major recording companies and the AFL American Federation of Musicians have agreed on a five-year contract. James C. Petrillo, AFM president, and Milton R. Rackmil, record manufacturers' representatives jointly announced the agreement yesterday. They said details of the pact, covering wages and working conditions for musicians who make records, would not be disclosed until formal signing. The announcement said terms also include additional contributions by recording companies to a music performance trust fund. The amount was not specified. The new contract replaces one which expired Dec. 31.

The '54 BUICK 's got it—

The BIG CHANGE you've been hoping for!

Exemplar of the 1954 Buick's years-from-now styling is this stunning new SUPER Riviera

THE instant you see these 1954 Buicks, you'll know that something sensational has happened in automobile styling.

Here is vastly more than the usual model changeover. Here is vastly more than could be done just by warming over what Buick had before. Here is something accomplished by going far beyond artful face-lifting.

Here is that rarity of rarities—a completely new line of automobiles.

But Buick didn't stop with the bolder, fresher, swifter-lined beauty you see in raised and lengthened fender sweep—in the huge and back-swept expanse of windshield—in the lowered roofline—in the host more glamor features of exterior modernity.

They upped all horsepowers to the highest in Buick history.

They engineered a new V8 for the SPECIAL—and in the process came up with new Power-Head Pistons that boost gasoline mileage in every engine.

BUICK
the beautiful buy

They brought to market a sparkling newcomer with a famous name, the Buick CENTURY—a car with phenomenal horsepower for its weight and price—a car with more pure thrill per dollar than any Buick ever built.

And they did all this without change of the price structure which, for years, has made Buick the most popular car at its price in the world.

We invite you to come in and inspect these great beauties, these great performers, these great buys. Then you'll see why the Detroit previewers are already saying, "Buick's the beautiful buy!"

WHEELING TOWARD HEALTH — Judy Schutkesting, 6, of Enid, Okla., riding on her way to recovery from a siege of polio, gives her sister, Joyce, a lift. Judy herself got a lift from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis chapter in Enid, after being stricken with polio when she was two years old. Since then, March of Dimes funds have been available for hospitalization, therapy and braces. Judy not only walks now, but she was a winner of a blue ribbon for health at a kiddie carnival.

Alpine Villages Isolated by Snow

London, Jan. 7 (AP) — Europe shivered some more from winter ice and snow today. Northern Italians, the continent's hardest hit, struggled to dig out from under the white blanket before new storms hit.

Dozens of small villages in the Italian Alps and Apennines were isolated after the worst snowstorm in 15 years.

Hugh drifts closed many miles of highways. A textile mill collapsed last night under tons of snow near Pordenone but its 350 employes had left for the day.

In industrial Turin only major highways were cleared in the wake of 40 hours of snow.

Italy's flood damage in the Po river delta could not be estimated. Great areas of rich farmlands were wrecked and fishermen suffered large losses. Six small villages were inundated. Everyone in serious danger had been evacuated.

Most of Britain faced at least another day of snow, rain, ice and freezing winds. But London itself awoke to a friendly sun after a bitter night of slush and snow.

Across the channel in France, the Paris region had an inch of snow. But after dipping yesterday to 21 degrees, the temperature rose to 34 today.

East Belgium had icy roads and temperatures were below freezing. Snow fell throughout Austria and the weather was freezing.

Holland experienced its first snow of the season. In Sweden snow kept falling and workmen estimated that Sunday's blizzard cut wide swathes through Sweden's forests equivalent to three years of normal lumbering.

Battle Is Reported

Nairobi, Kenya, Jan. 7 (AP)—A fierce battle raged today between Kenya's security forces and more than 100 memebrs of the Mau Mau secret anti-white terrorist organization. Twelve terrorists were reported killed and a number wounded. Large quantities of Mau Mau arms were captured.

Malted Milk Drink

It's easy to make a malted milk drink at home. Just beat three tablespoons of malted milk powder with a cup of milk and add any other desired flavoring.

Three Arrests

considered alleged small scale "bankers" in operation of the policy game.

Such numbers games in which the three are charged with participating, one source said, are based on winners at Tropical Park.

Weeks and Kiernan are charged with being guilty of a violation of Section 974 of the Penal Law in that they are persons other than public officers and did "willingly and knowingly" at 791 Broadway and 37 Broadway in Kingston possess policy slips "such as are commonly used in carrying on, promoting and playing the game commonly called policy."

Point Is Mentioned

The charge against Ashdown was similar but made mention of the point that he did "willingly and knowingly" on Broadway, a public street in Kingston, have in his possession several books, "certain papers, instruments and documents in writing," representing and being a "record of bets, wagers, insurance or interest in the selection and drawing of numbers in a lottery commonly known and called a game of policy."

Authorities feel that the arrests and investigation yesterday could lead to bigger operators in the alleged numbers game combine, but it was expected that if more persons were to be brought in they would face grand jury investigation.

Boy Is Found Hanging

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—A boy, about 10 years old, was found dead today, hanging from a strap in an empty subway car on a Bronx siding. The boy, who was not immediately identified, was found by a man changing advertising placards on an IRT train at 239th street and Byron avenue.

Americans, South

vade the Indian custodial troops in the Korean neutral zone.

Taylor issued a cold, brief statement at Seoul Wednesday night that 8th Army troops were pledged to protect Indian troops against an attack.

Pyun had threatened to attack the Indians because of a roster check or head-count of anti-Communist prisoners, during which 135 POWs asked and were granted repatriation to Red China.

Met With Cabinet

President Syngman Rhee met with cabinet officers Thursday to consider the Taylor statement and afterwards Pyun said in an interview:

"We are now making new arrangements as a test and if the arrangements pass the test we do not have to use force against the Indians."

The arrangements, he said, were between Rhee and Taylor.

"They will watch and check on how the Indian guards are handling the prisoners," Pyun said. "If no more anti-Communist prisoners are sent north by the Indian guards as a result of the new arrangements. That is to our satisfaction and we need not use force against the Indians."

The roster check was endorsed several days ago by the UN Command as an expression of free choice.

Shocks Are Reported

Reading, Pa., Jan. 7 (AP)—A series of shocks described by the U. S. Weather Bureau as "possible earth tremors" jolted the Berks county area early today, dumping people out of bed, knocking down chimneys and rattling houses. Matthew I. Peacock, meteorologist, said "in the absence of any evidence of an explosion I would have to assume the shocks were earth tremors. Newspaper offices and state police said they were swamped with telephone calls asking about the "explosions," some of the inquiriers said the first blast at 2:30 a. m. tossed them out of bed, shook plaster from the walls, upset furniture and broke dishes.

Bridge Travel Is Heavy in December

An increase of 8,938 was clocked at the Rip Van Winkle bridge, which clocked 90,315 against 81,377 for a percentage gain of 10.98.

The average percentage gain for the three bridges was 13.78 per cent.

The Great Smoky Mountains take their name from the blue haze resembling smoke that hovers over the peaks.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Officers Elected By Fire District

Saugerties, Jan. 6—The newly-formed Malden-West Camp Fire Company met Monday night at the West Camp Parish Hall and elected a full slate of officers to govern the activities of the company for the initial year of its existence.

Officers included Charles J. Graf, president; Jerry A. Smith, vice-president both of whom were very active on the advisory committees. Warren H. Knaust was elected treasurer. The office of recording secretary and corresponding secretary was delegated to Albert J. Cawein and Robert Herb both of whom were also active in the formation of the new company. Herb had been temporary secretary and Cawein was a member of the important by-laws committee with Graf and Jerry A. Smith. The trustees elected were Calvin C. Cody for three years, Oscar L. Schlenker for two years, and Peter P. Stoly for one year.

Representative to firemanic meetings is Charles Daley and alternate, Roger Ackerman. The sergeant-at-arms elected was Arthur L. Smith and the post of historian was given to Edgar Smith, Sr.

Carpenter Is Chief

The fire chief elected to direct the entire company was Valmore Carpenter and assistant chief elected was Charles Teetsel. A provision of the proposed by-laws of the company reads that the fire chief at the next election succeeds to the position of trustee, the assistant fire chief succeeds to the position of fire chief, and a new assistant is elected by the company.

The line officers for Malden are Richard Peetoom, captain; Jerry A. Smith, lieutenant; and Leon Magee, first driver. The line officers for West Camp are Harry L. Moose, captain; C. J. Myers, lieutenant; and Oscar L. Schlenker, first driver. A proposal to authorize each first driver to select his own second and third drivers was accepted by the assembly.

62 Charter Members

Forty-nine members signed the roster and thereby became charter members of the new company. Those present at the previous meeting held Tuesday in the Malden District School also were added to the roster. Charter membership is now closed and will stand at sixty-two.

Of the 49 members present, 27 signed up for the Fireman's Training Course which will be scheduled in the near future.

M. Lawrence Carroll, temporary chairman presided. A discussion from the floor brought out that as soon as the by-laws are in full operation a resolution would be made that John J. Helfert be elected an associate honorary member in recognition of his generous offer of land for the fire house site in Malden.

Proposals also were made to grant charter memberships to three who could not be present. William L. Van Derbeck, for his initiative at the birth of the idea of forming a fire unit; the Rev. Henry M. Schumann, who was the driving force that brought West Camp into the fire district, and Nelson Burhans who was on the original advisory committee.

Monthly meetings were set to be held on the second Thursday of each month at 8 p. m., to be held alternately in Malden and West Camp. If a holiday should fall on the scheduled meeting night the meeting would be rescheduled for the fourth Thursday of that month.

Official Name Chosen

The annual meeting was approved for the second Thursday of January at 8 p. m. The assembly voted to make the title, Malden-West Camp Fire Company of the Town of Saugerties the official name and style of the association.

Carroll then presented the list of officers which were listed in the proposed by-laws of the new company and read the duties of each office before nominations for that office were accepted.

The original advisory committees were well represented in the slate of officers. Carroll, who had done a magnificent job with the organization of the fire district and the fire company, was proposed many times for office but each time asked to be excused. The original advisory committees should receive special recognition for the excellent job they have done to establish the district and the fire fighting unit. The original committee includes M. Lawrence Carroll, Charles Teetsel, William Campbell, Harold Bennett, Jerry A. Smith, Edward Kolls, Robert Herb and Albert J. Cawein of Malden. The West Camp committee includes the Rev. Henry M. Schumann, Charles Graf, Bernard E. McCutcheon, Henry Moose, Charles Daley, and Nelson Burhans.

Feet Hurt?

If your feet hurt at the end of the day or after a shopping spree examine your shoes to see if soles or heels need repair or perhaps toenails need cutting or callouses on feet need to be removed.

SHARING THE SPOTLIGHT—The 1954 March of Dimes poster boy, Debby Daines, visits with screen star Jimmy Stewart during a recent visit to motion picture studios in Hollywood, Calif. The tiny four-year-old Gooding, Idaho, boy contracted polio on Thanksgiving Eve in 1949. Since then more than $15,000 in March of Dimes funds have been spent on his care.

DIMES WILL CONQUER POLIO—Dimes totaling $7,500,000 are needed to finance the tests of the polio vaccine which Basil O'Connor is holding in his hand. Five hundred thousand children throughout the U. S. will be given trial shots of the vaccine in 1954, according to O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, now conducting its campaign.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Officers Elected By Fire District

Saugerties, Jan. 6—The newly-formed Malden-West Camp Fire Company met Monday night at the West Camp Parish Hall and elected a full slate of officers to govern the activities of the company for the initial year of its existence.

Officers included Charles J. Graf, president; Jerry A. Smith, vice-president both of whom were very active on the advisory committees. Warren H. Knaust was elected treasurer. The office of recording secretary and corresponding secretary was delegated to Albert J. Cawein and Robert Herb both of whom were also active in the formation of the new company. Herb had been temporary secretary and Cawein was a member of the important by-laws committee with Graf and Jerry A. Smith. The trustees elected were Calvin C. Cody for three years, Oscar L. Schlenker for two years, and Peter P. Stoly for one year.

Representative to firemanic meetings is Charles Daley and alternate, Roger Ackerman. The sergeant-at-arms elected was Arthur L. Smith and the post of historian was given to Edgar Smith, Sr.

Carpenter Is Chief

The fire chief elected to direct the entire company was Valmore Carpenter and assistant chief elected was Charles Teetsel. A provision of the proposed by-laws of the company reads that the fire chief at the next election succeeds to the position of trustee, the assistant fire chief succeeds to the position of fire chief, and a new assistant is elected by the company.

The line officers for Malden are Richard Peetoom, captain; Jerry A. Smith, lieutenant; and Leon Magee, first driver. The line officers for West Camp are Harry L. Moose, captain; C. J. Myers, lieutenant; and Oscar L. Schlenker, first driver. A proposal to authorize each first driver to select his own second and third drivers was accepted by the assembly.

62 Charter Members

Forty-nine members signed the roster and thereby became charter members of the new company. Those present at the previous meeting held Tuesday in the Malden District School also were added to the roster. Charter membership is now closed and will stand at sixty-two.

Of the 49 members present, 27 signed up for the Fireman's Training Course which will be scheduled in the near future.

M. Lawrence Carroll, temporary chairman presided. A discussion from the floor brought out that as soon as the by-laws are in full operation a resolution would be made that John J. Helfert be elected an associate honorary member in recognition of his generous offer of land for the fire house site in Malden.

Proposals also were made to grant charter memberships to three who could not be present. William L. Van Derbeck, for his initiative at the birth of the idea of forming a fire unit; the Rev. Henry M. Schumann, who was the driving force that brought West Camp into the fire district, and Nelson Burhans who was on the original advisory committee.

Monthly meetings were set to be held on the second Thursday of each month at 8 p. m., to be held alternately in Malden and West Camp. If a holiday should fall on the scheduled meeting night the meeting would be rescheduled for the fourth Thursday of that month.

Official Name Chosen

The annual meeting was approved for the second Thursday of January at 8 p. m. The assembly voted to make the title, Malden-West Camp Fire Company of the Town of Saugerties the official name and style of the association.

Carroll then presented the list of officers which were listed in the proposed by-laws of the new company and read the duties of each office before nominations for that office were accepted.

The original advisory committees were well represented in the slate of officers. Carroll, who had done a magnificent job with the organization of the fire district and the fire company, was proposed many times for office but each time asked to be excused. The original advisory committees should receive special recognition for the excellent job they have done to establish the district and the fire fighting unit. The original committee includes M. Lawrence Carroll, Charles Teetsel, William Campbell, Harold Bennett, Jerry A. Smith, Edward Kolls, Robert Herb and Albert J. Cawein of Malden. The West Camp committee includes the Rev. Henry M. Schumann, Charles Graf, Bernard E. McCutcheon, Henry Moose, Charles Daley, and Nelson Burhans.

Sign Controls Hats

New York, (AP)—In one movie theatre here your view is seldom obstructed by a hat on the woman in front of you. A sign in the lobby says: "Elderly ladies are permitted to wear hats during the performance."

Feet Hurt?

If your feet hurt at the end of the day or after a shopping spree examine your shoes to see if soles or heels need repair or perhaps toenails need cutting or callouses on feet need to be removed.

Old socks make perfect shoe bags for traveling.

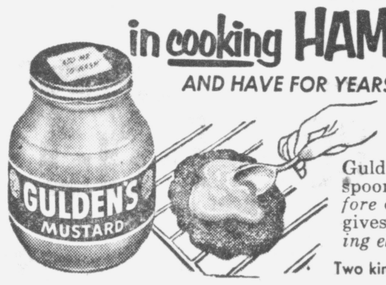

SHARING THE SPOTLIGHT—The 1954 March of Dimes poster boy, Debby Daines, visits with screen star Jimmy Stewart during a recent visit to motion picture studios in Hollywood, Calif. The tiny four-year-old Gooding, Idaho, boy contracted polio on Thanksgiving Eve in 1949. Since then more than $15,000 in March of Dimes funds have been spent on her.

DIMES WILL CONQUER POLIO—Dimes totaling $7,500,000 are needed to finance the tests of the polio vaccine which Basil O'Connor is holding in his hand. Five hundred thousand children throughout the U. S. will be given trial shots of the vaccine in 1954, according to O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, now conducting its campaign.

Wagner Says Agencies Set To Cope With Any Violence

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner says law enforcement agencies in the Port of New York are set to cope with any violence that might develop from a waterfront strike.

He says plans are ready to protect life and property in the event the tense waterfront labor situation erupts into either a walkout or inter-union warfare.

Wagner made the declaration yesterday after a 90-minute city hall conference with key New York and New Jersey officials concerned with the security of the port and the campaign against waterfront crime.

Among those at the meeting were members of the New York-New Jersey Waterfront Commission, an anti-rackets bureau; the district attorneys of New York city's five counties; Joseph E. O'Grady, director of the city division of labor relations, and representatives of the police department, the city department of marine and aviation and the coast guard.

Agree to Return

Wagner, who declined to reveal details of the conference, said all the officials who attended have agreed to return periodically to keep abreast of waterfront developments.

The mayor said the city is not seeking to intervene in the basic waterfront labor dispute, but is concerned only with guarding against any violence or infractions of law as a result of the unrest along the docks.

The International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) and the new ILA-AFL are locked in a struggle for control of waterfront labor.

The ILA—ousted from the AFL because of crime and racketeering in its ranks—has hinted at a strike unless it wins bargaining certification from the National Labor Relations Board. A walkout might tie up all Atlantic, Gulf coast and Puerto Rican ports.

The results of an NLRB election between the ILA and the ILA-AFL are now in the hands of the regional office of the board. The ILA led in the pre-Christmas voting, but there are many challenged ballots which technically could change the result.

Ambassador Luce Cautious of Reds

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce has cautioned top officials here there is a new danger in Italy of slowly rising Communist strength, it was learned today.

Mrs. Luce, who conferred yesterday with President Eisenhower, is reported to be urging continued American economic and military aid to Italy to bolster its pro-western government.

Neither Mrs. Luce nor the President, reliable sources said, believes there is any imminent threat that Italy's already powerful Communist party can seize power.

The Ambassador is confident, it is said, that the current political crisis caused by Italian Premier Giuseppe Pella's resignation can be solved quickly without playing into Communist hands.

However, she is reported concerned about the long range threat posed to Italian democracy by the new, non-violent tactics adopted by Italy's Reds.

Influence Gained

By exploiting Italy's serious unemployment problem and pressuring non-Communist unions to cooperate in strikes, the Red leaders are reported to have gained added influence and prestige in Italy during the past year.

As a demonstration of American support for Italy's present government the state department late yesterday announced it was drafting "a substantial program" of defense orders for Italian factories as well as a plan for limited economic aid.

No specific figures were disclosed. But responsible informants said the combined program would total about 300 million dollars during the next six months. This would be some 40 million dollars less than Italy got during a similar period last year.

Crucifixion was the form of execution used by the Romans for condemned persons who were not Roman citizens.

Twaalfskill Hose Elects Officers

Robert Ennist was elected president of Twaalfskill Hose Company No. 5 during the annual banquet Tuesday night at the Alpine.

Edward J. Ryan, former president, presided.

Reelected to office were Delbert Stipp, foreman; Edward F. Scully, first assistant foreman; Herbert Frost, second assistant foreman; Francis J. McCardle, recording secretary; John A. Among the delegates named were Edward J. Ryan, City Fire Fund Association; William Davis, Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association; Harry Letus and Thomas Schatzel, Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association; Joseph Hesselbach, Kenneth Tyler, Walter Gemmell, John A. Flannery, Raymond J. Conlin and Joseph Whittaker, Veteran's Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Appointed to the sick committee were John A. Flannery, James A. Scully and John Dugan.

Halperin Loses Boston U. Post

Boston, Jan. 7 (AP)—Boston University has fired Prof. Maurice Halperin, who was named last November in an FBI report as a link in a Communist espionage ring in high U. S. government circles.

The university announcement said yesterday that Halperin was dismissed "for the good of Boston University" after he failed several times to appear before a school review board assigned to consider his "fitness to teach."

Reached by telephone in Mexico City, where he went late in November, Halperin told the Boston Herald:

"It is very much to be regretted that Boston University has succumbed to the ways of hysteria, manipulated by unscrupulous politicians. It has done a disservice to its own good name and to the cause of academic freedom."

On Leave of Absence

Halperin said he went to Mexico "because my wife has been ill because of the pressures." His wife, Edith, is on leave of absence from the Brookline school system.

The 47-year-old fired director of Bu's Latin American regional studies has been under suspension since Nov. 18, the day after his name was read from an FBI report by Atty. Gen. Brownell before the Senate (Jenner) Internal Security Subcommittee in Washington.

The FBI report listed Halperin as one of several one-time government officials who were "participants in this (spy) operation or were utilitized by principals in this ring for the purpose of obtaining data in which the Soviet is interested.

Also named in the report were the late Harry Dexter White, Dr. Gregory Silvermaster, Luchlin Currie, Victor Perlo and William Ludwig Ullman. Halperin held government posts in the Office of Strategic Services, the State Department and the United Nations.

Benny Daughter to Wed

Beverly Hills, Calif., Jan. 7 (AP)—The daughter of Jack Benny and Mary Livingstone will be married next March. An announcement by the Columbia Broadcasting system said yesterday that Joan Benny, 19, a junior at Stanford University, and Seth Barker, 26, New York stock broker, will reside in New York after a Hawaii honeymoon. Baker, son of industrialist Harry Baker, and Miss Benny met during the Christmas holidays in New York.

Rose-Holm Agreement Submited to Court

New York, Jan. 6 (AP)—A proposed agreement giving Billy Rose's estranged wife, Eleanor Holm, a reported $600 weekly permanent alimony was submitted to a court today.

And both sides pledged the proposed settlement was not part of any plan for a divorce.

The tangled marital dispute between Broadway showman Rose and Miss Holm, one-time swimming star, has been in and out of court for nearly three years.

She has been getting $700 weekly temporary alimony.

Today, attorneys for both of them submitted the proposed settlement to State Supreme Court Justice B. M. McNally.

It wasn't made public, but it reportedly provides for $600 weekly permanent alimony, plus a $200,000 lump sum for Miss Holm.

Judge McNally said he wouldn't approve it "if I thought there was a contract in existence to obtain a divorce."

"I will not permit anybody to play ducks and drakes with the public policy * * *," he said.

Both attorneys, in response to the judge's questions, said the proposed settlement was not connected with any agreement for a divorce—that no such agreement was in existence.

Los Angeles, Jan. 7 (AP)—Speed flier Joe Debona is poised for another assault on the Los Angeles-to-New York record for propeller-driven planes. Debona, a Beverly Hills real estate man, will fly the same souped-up F-51 Mustang fighter in which he missed the record last April because a blown cylinder head forced him down at Fort Wayne, Ind. The plane is owned by movie actor Jimmy Stewart. The existing mark is 4 hour, 52 minutes, 58 seconds, set in 1950 by Paul Mantz of Hollywood.

Fur Production Speeded

Moscow (AP) — A Tass dispatch from Vladivostok says that killing of mink and silver foxes on the state farms of the Far East has been stepped up by at least a month. The foxes and mink are placed in barns, the windows of which are closed by special shutters. The amount of daylight admitted is gradually reduced, beginning July. The animals begin to take care of their fur, preparing it prematurely for the winter.

Fur Production Speeded

Moscow (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Vladivostok says that killing of mink and silver foxes on the state farms of the Far East has been stepped up by at least a month. The foxes and mink are placed in barns, the windows of which are closed by special shutters. The amount of daylight admitted is gradually reduced, beginning July. The animals begin to take care of their fur, preparing it prematurely for the winter.

Streetcar Sale Canceled

Cairo (AP)—An Egyptian landed in jail for selling a street car to a Nile valley country boy visiting Cairo. The villager paid $233 and promised the rest of $560 later. But he couldn't find the man again to pay up the balance. When the swindler was arrested, police discovered he had once made a habit of wearing police dress and searching villagers coming to Cairo under the guise of looking for narcotics. During the search, he picked their pockets. Now he won't be free till 2055.

Eisenhower Says

sional approval of the St. Lawrence seaway as vital to national security.

—Urged Senate passage of the House-approved bill to grant statehood to Hawaii.

Eisenhower went before the legislators just 24 hours after opening of the second session of the 83rd Congress.

His message, carried to the nation by television and radio, came at the start of a political year which will be climaxed by the November congressional elections.

Only Slim Margin

Republicans now hold only a slim margin of control at the capitol and the Democrats are hopeful they can slip into the saddle. Meanwhile, the administration must win some degree of support from the Democrats for any success in putting through the program Eisenhower said has one objective—"the building of a stronger America."

He told the legislators he believes "both of our great parties" can back it.

As for tax cuts in addition to the income tax reductions and expiration of the excess profits levy which were effective Jan. 1, the President said:

"As additional reductions in expenditures are brought gradually but surely into sight, further reductions in taxes can and will be made."

At another point, he declared:

"Despite the substantial loss of revenue in the coming fiscal year, resulting from (Jan. 1) tax reductions now in effect and tax adjustments which I shall propose, our reduced spending will move the new budget closer to a balance."

Will Give Details

The President said the tax revision program will be set forth in detail in his Jan. 21 budget message. Informed sources have predicted cuts totaling about 1½ billion dollars annually.

Calling today for a thorough revision of the entire tax structure, Eisenhower declared:

"We should now remove the more glaring tax inequities, particularly on small taxpayers; reduce restraints on the growth of small business; and make other changes that will encourage initiative; enterprise and production."

On the other side of the picture, however, the President said again that corporation income taxes should be kept at the current rate of 52 per cent for another year instead of being allowed to drop to 47, and that excise taxes on such items as liquor, tobacco, gasoline, and automobiles — also scheduled for an April 1 cut—should be maintained at prevailing rates.

On the foreign policy and national defense fronts, where Eisenhower already has made an open bid for cooperation from the Democrats, he said America has gained the initiative during the last year in the struggle against communism—and means to keep it.

"American freedom," he declared, "is threatened so long as the world Communist conspiracy exists in its present scope, power and hostility."

Refers to Speech

Referring to his Dec. 8 United Nations speech calling on Russia to join with the U. S. and other atomic powers in creation of an international atomic pool for peaceful use, the President said:

"A truly constructive Soviet reaction will make possible a new start toward an era of peace, and away from the fatal road toward atomic war."

In his prepared text, Eisenhower took no note of Moscow's announcement last night of willingness to join the United States in discussion of the President's proposal in Washington.

Eisenhower's pointed reference to U. S. defense plans being geared to use of atomic weapons if need be came in his discussion of the nation's "now look" military program.

"While determined to use atomic power to serve the usages of peace," the President said, "we take into full account our great and growing number of nuclear weapons and the most effective means of using them against an aggressor if they are needed to preserve our freedom."

Gets Heavy Emphasis

Eisenhower added that the new atomic weapons which America has permit "economies in the use of men as we build forces suited to our situation in the world today." His forthcoming budget, the President said, will show how "the air power of our navy and air force is receiving heavy emphasis."

The Eisenhower message was studded with plans for special messages later to fill in details of programs he sketched only in broad principle today.

In several cases—the Taft-Hartley law amendments and a call for expanded foreign trade, for example—he did not go much beyond the generalities of his first State of the Union message a year ago.

Today's message was in three main sections dealing with protection of "the freedom of our people," maintenance of a strong, growing economy, and "the human problems of the individual citizen."

World Situation

In the first section the President reviewed the world situation and found it encouraging. He said the United States is prepared to meet any renewal of armed aggression in Korea, that American bases in Okinawa will be maintained indefinitely, and that he will ask Congress to authorize "continued military assistance" to Indochina.

"We also shall continue military and economic aid to the Nationalist government of China," he said.

The President again stressed the desirability of bringing the European defense army into being.

Eisenhower's demand that convicted conspirators against the government forfeit their U. S. citizenship was aimed squarely at the Communists.

"The subversive character of the Communist Party in the United States has been clearly demonstrated in many ways, including court proceedings," he said.

'Plain to All'

"We should recognize by law a fact that is plain to all thoughful citizens—that we are dealing here with actions akin to treason—that when a citizen knowingly participates in a Communist conspiracy he no longer holds allegiance to the United States."

The President said Atty. Gen. Brownell soon will go before congressional committees to recommend "needed additional weapons with which to combat subversion. . . ."

In that section of the message dealing with the administration's determination to sustain prosperity, Eisenhower—in what appeared to be an oblique allusion to increased unemployment—declared:

"At this moment, we are in a transition from a wartime to a peacetime economy. I am confident that we can complete this transition without serious interruption in our economic growth.

"But we shall not leave this vital matter to chance. Economic preparedness is fully as important to the nation as military preparedness."

In Other Messages

Measures on the economic front will be outlined in detail in his Jan. 28 economic report and in subsequent special messages. He said those safeguards will include such measures as tax programs to stimulate consumer and business spending, and public works plans laid well in advance.

Eisenhower renewed his call for postal rate increases, and he said the federal government is continuing its "central role" in the highway construction program.

In the section of his speech on the problems of the individual citizen, Eisenhower mentioned plans for Taft-Hartley changes; expanded unemployment compensation and social security coverage, broadening of hospital and medical insurance programs, federal aid to states which can't provide enough school buildings, and a housing program designed to provide, among other things, insurance on long-term mortgage loans with a small down payment for low income families.

The 83rd Congress convened yesterday for its second session.

To Hold Brief Session

A brief session was planned immediately after members return from the joint session in the House chamber. It will be the first chance for senators to introduce new measures. The Senate will then recess until Monday.

No business was scheduled in the House.

Many Republican legislators feel that for the administration, now in office nearly 12 months, this must be a year of decision—a year of action on many problems which have been under study since Eisenhower took over last Jan. 20.

Democrats, close now and hoping to win actual control of Congress in the fall elections, know on the other hand that the Republicans must have some degree of cooperation from them to get far on the Eisenhower program.

Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic House leader, said last night Eisenhower will continue to get bipartisan backing for worthy proposals even if the Democrats' backs "are getting a little sore" under GOP attack on the issue of communism. Rayburn was replying at the Women's National Press Club congressional dinner, too GOP leaders Halleck of Indiana. Halleck had urged Democrats to support what he said would be a constructive program by Eisenhower.

Luxury Licks Icy Morale Problem at Thule

FOR LONG WINTER NIGHTS, where there's 24 hours of darkness. Thule's fine libraries get a big play from base personnel.

BARRACKS AT THULE doesn't mean the same as barracks elsewhere. Nearly every man has his own cozy private room like this.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

Thule Air Force Base, Greenland—(NEA)—The morale problem of America's newest and most strategically important air base, halfway between the North Pole and the Arctic Circle, worried the experts when the super-secret planning for Thule began.

The major fear was whether American GIs would be able to take total darkness of long arctic winters, temperatures between 20 and 40 degrees below zero, and no families or females, without cracking.

It's becoming apparent in this acid test of the first winter's full operation that fears on this score were groundless, for several reasons.

Black, icy, arctic winters aren't so tough when you've got the finest clothing and gear for the purpose ever developed. It includes comfortable long-handled, light, cold-resistant outer garments, down to snug, felt" bunny boots" which keep feet warm no matter what the degree of cold.

Nearly every man has a private, cozy room in a large, well-heated, nicely-furnished barracks and the food is about the finest to be found at any military base in the world.

It's a life of relative luxury never before planted so close to the North Pole.

The Air Force also has gone all-out for recreation. Thule AFB boasts an athletic plant comparable to that of any college in the U. S., with a giant gym, handball courts, bowling alleys, rooms for indoor golf, fencing, boxing, ping pong and almost any indoor sport you can name. The men enjoy these things to the maximum, too.

It's difficult to be in a shouting crowd at a hot basketball game, with the rumble of ten-pins in the background, and realize you're next door to the North Pole.

There's nothing of an "outpost" look or atmopshere about the place. Officers and men must be shaved, have neat haircuts and no long sideburns. Class "A" uniforms of tie, shirt and blouse must be worn the same as at Stateside bases.

The only time you get the "outpost" feeling is during the periodic windstorms when everyone must stay in the building he happens to be in when the wind starts. Winds last from a few hours to a day or two. Each building has a self-contained heating and water system and a supply of C-rations for this emergency. It's the only time the arctic weather really gets dangerous.

There are fine libraries, post exchanges, churches, clubs, theatres and hobby shops. Under the agreement with the Danes, which permits the base to be on their Greenland, there is no hunting, but a little fishing in summer.

So far, doctors report, mental troubles are only slightly above Stateside averages. The climate isn't as germ-free as rumor has it, but there's less disease than at U. S. bases. This winter there have only been four minor cases of frostbite.

Doctors and officers are constantly on the alert for men sleeping too much or day-dreaming for hours—sure signs of arctic mental fatigue.

The Air Force has ceased worrying about the impact of Communist radio propaganda beamed at the base. "Moscow Molly" harangues on the evils of capitalism, monopolists and how U. S. businessmen have their hands in the U. S. till. She plays records while catching her breath.

Some men listen for laughs, but most ignore this stuff completely. "Why pay any attention to that junk with a different movie every night to see or our own station KOLD to listen to?" says one GI, expressing a typical view.

Eisenhower Says

sional approval of the St. Lawrence seaway as vital to national security.

—Urged Senate passage of the House-approved bill to grant statehood to Hawaii.

Eisenhower went before the legislators just 24 hours after opening of the second session of the 83rd Congress.

His message, carried to the nation by television and radio, came at the start of a political year which will be climaxed by the November congressional elections.

Only Slim Margin

Republicans now hold only a slim margin of control at the capitol and the Democrats are hopeful they can slip into the saddle. Meanwhile, the administration must win some degree of support from the Democrats for any success in putting through the program Eisenhower said has one objective—"the building of a stronger America."

He told the legislators he believes "both of our great parties" can back it.

As for tax cuts in addition to the income tax reductions and expiration of the excess profits levy which were effective Jan. 1, the President said:

"As additional reductions in expenditures are brought gradually but surely into sight, further reductions in taxes can and will be made."

At another point, he declared:

"Despite the substantial loss of revenue in the coming fiscal year, resulting from (Jan. 1) tax reductions now in effect and tax adjustments which I shall propose, our reduced spending will move the new budget closer to a balance."

Will Give Details

The President said the tax revision program will be set forth in detail in his Jan. 21 budget message. Informed sources have predicted cuts totaling about 1½ billion dollars annually.

Calling today for a thorough revision of the entire tax structure, Eisenhower declared:

"We should now remove the more glaring tax inequities, particularly on small taxpayers; reduce restraints on the growth of small business; and make other changes that will encourage initiative; enterprise and prpduction."

On the other side of the picture, however, the President said again that corporation income taxes should be kept at the current rate of 52 per cent for another year instead of being allowed to drop to 47, and that excise taxes on such items as liquor, tobacco, gasoline, and automobiles — also scheduled for an April 1 cut—should be maintained at prevailing rates.

On the foreign policy and national defense fronts, where Eisenhower already has made an open bid for cooperation from the Democrats, he said America has gained the initiative during the last year in the struggle against communism—and means to keep it.

"American freedom," he declared, "is threatened so long as the world Communist conspiracy exists in its present scope, power and hostility."

Refers to Speech

Referring to his Dec. 8 United Nations speech calling on Russia to join with the U. S. and other atomic powers in creation of an international atomic pool for peaceful use, the President said:

"A truly constructive Soviet reaction will make possible a new start toward an era of peace, and away from the fatal road toward atomic war."

In his prepared text, Eisenhower took no note of Moscow's announcement last night of willingness to join the United States in discussion of the President's proposal in Washington.

Eisenhower's pointed reference to U. S. defense plans being geared to use of atomic weapons if need be came in his discussion of the nation's "now look" military program.

"While determined to use atomic power to serve the usages of peace," the President said, "we take into full account our great and growing number of nuclear weapons and the most effective means of using them against an aggressor if they are needed to preserve our freedom."

Gets Heavy Emphasis

Eisenhower added that the new atomic weapons which America has permit "economies in the use of men as we build forces suited to our situation in the world today." His forthcoming budget, the President said, will show how "the air power of our navy and air force is receiving heavy emphasis."

The Eisenhower message was studded with plans for special messages later to fill in details of programs he sketched only in broad principle today.

In several cases—the Taft-Hartley law amendments and a call for expanded foreign trade, for example—he did not go much beyond the generalities of his first State of the Union message a year ago.

Today's message was in three main sections dealing with protection of "the freedom of our people," maintenance of a strong, growing economy, and "the human problems of the individual citizen."

World Situation

In the first section the President reviewed the world situation and found it encouraging. He said the United States is prepared to meet any renewal of armed aggression in Korea, that American bases in Okinawa will be maintained indefinitely, and that he will ask Congress to authorize "continued military assistance" to Indochina.

"We also shall continue military and economic aid to the Nationalist government of China," he said.

The President again stressed the desirability of bringing the European defense army into being.

Eisenhower's demand that convicted conspirators against the government forfeit their U. S. citizenship was aimed squarely at the Communists.

"The subversive character of the Communist Party in the United States has been clearly demonstrated in many ways, including court proceedings," he said.

'Plain to All'

"We should recognize by law a fact that is plain to all thoughful citizens—that we are dealing here with actions akin to treason—that when a citizen knowingly participates in a Communist conspiracy he no longer holds allegiance to the United States."

The President said Atty. Gen. Brownell soon will go before congressional committees to recommend "needed additional weapons with which to combat subversion. . . ."

In that section of the message dealing with the administration's determination to sustain prosperity, Eisenhower—in what appeared to be an oblique allusion to increased unemployment—declared:

"At this moment, we are in a transition from a wartime to a peacetime economy. I am confident that we can complete this transition without serious interruption in our economic growth.

"But we shall not leave this vital matter to chance. Economic preparedness is fully as important to the nation as military preparedness."

In Other Messages

Measures on the economic front will be outlined in detail in his Jan. 28 economic report and in subsequent special messages. He said those safeguards will include such measures as tax programs to stimulate consumer and business spending, and public works plans laid well in advance.

Eisenhower renewed his call for postal rate increases, and he said the federal government is continuing its "central role" in the highway construction program.

In the section of his speech on the problems of the individual citizen, Eisenhower mentioned plans for Taft-Hartley changes; expanded unemployment compensation and social security coverage, broadening of hospital and medical insurance programs, federal aid to states which can't provide enough school buildings, and a housing program designed to provide, among other things, insurance on long-term mortgage loans with a small down payment for low income families.

The 83rd Congress convened yesterday for its second session.

To Hold Brief Session

A brief session was planned immediately after members return from the joint session in the House chamber. It will be the first chance for senators to introduce new measures. The Senate will then recess until Monday.

No business was scheduled in the House.

Many Republican legislators feel that for the administration, now in office nearly 12 months, this must be a year of decision—a year of action on many problems which have been under study since Eisenhower took over last Jan. 20.

Democrats, close now and hoping to win actual control of Congress in the fall elections, know on the other hand that the Republicans must have some degree of cooperation from them to get far on the Eisenhower program.

Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the Democratic House leader, said last night Eisenhower will continue to get bipartisan backing for worthy proposals even if the Democrats' backs "are getting a little sore" under GOP attack on the issue of communism. Rayburn was replying at the Women's National Press Club congressional dinner, too GOP leaders Halleck of Indiana. Halleck had urged Democrats to support what he said would be a constructive program by Eisenhower.

Six Men Are Killed In Plane Crash: Eight Injured

Panama, Panama, Jan. 7 (AP)—Six men were killed and eight injured in the flaming crash of a U. S. Navy photographic plane in a jungle area near the trans-Isthmian highway last night. The four-engine plane was bringing a photo reconnaissance platoon to the Canal Zone area from Miramar, Calif.

Capt. William A. Thorn, commanding officer of the Coco Solo Naval Base, said it appeared the plane had undershot by 2½ miles its destination—France Air Force Base near Colon, on the Carribean side of the isthmus.

Names of the casualties were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Luxury Licks Icy Morale Problem at Thule

FOR LONG WINTER NIGHTS, where there's 24 hours of darkness. Thule's fine libraries get a big play from base personnel.

BARRACKS AT THULE doesn't mean the same as barracks elsewhere. Nearly every man has his own cozy private room like this.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

Thule Air Force Base, Greenland—(NEA)—The morale problem of America's newest and most strategically important air base, halfway between the North Pole and the Arctic Circle, worried the experts when the super-secret planning for Thule began.

The major fear was whether American GIs would be able to take total darkness of long arctic winters, temperatures between 20 and 40 degrees below zero, and no families or females, without cracking.

It's becoming apparent in this acid test of the first winter's full operation that fears on this score were groundless, for several reasons.

Black, icy, arctic winters aren't so tough when you've got the finest clothing and gear for the purpose ever developed. It includes comfortable long-handled, light, cold-resistant outer garments, down to snug, felt" bunny boots" which keep feet warm no matter what the degree of cold.

Nearly every man has a private, cozy room in a large, well-heated, nicely-furnished barracks and the food is about the finest to be found at any military base in the world.

It's a life of relative luxury never before planted so close to the North Pole.

The Air Force also has gone all-out for recreation. Thule AFB boasts an athletic plant comparable to that of any college in the U. S., with a giant gym, handball courts, bowling alleys, rooms for indoor golf, fencing, boxing, ping pong and almost any indoor sport you can name. The men enjoy these things to the maximum, too.

It's difficult to be in a shouting crowd at a hot basketball game, with the rumble of ten-pins in the background, and realize you're next door to the North Pole.

There's nothing of an "outpost" look or atmopshere about the place. Officers and men must be shaved, have neat haircuts and no long sideburns. Class "A" uniforms of tie, shirt and blouse must be worn the same as at Stateside bases.

The only time you get the "outpost" feeling is during the periodic windstorms when everyone must stay in the building he happens to be in when the wind starts. Winds last from a few hours to a day or two. Each building has a self-contained heating and water system and a supply of C-rations for this emergency. It's the only time the arctic weather really gets dangerous.

There are fine libraries, post exchanges, churches, clubs, theatres and hobby shops. Under the agreement with the Danes, which permits the base to be on their Greenland, there is no hunting, but a little fishing in summer.

So far, doctors report, mental troubles are only slightly above Stateside averages. The climate isn't as germ-free as rumor has it, but there's less disease than at U. S. bases. This winter there have only been four minor cases of frostbite.

Doctors and officers are constantly on the alert for men sleeping too much or day-dreaming for hours—sure signs of arctic mental fatigue.

The Air Force has ceased worrying about the impact of Communist radio propaganda beamed at the base. "Moscow Molly" harangues on the evils of capitalism, monopolists and how U. S. businessmen have their hands in the U. S. till. She plays records while catching her breath.

Some men listen for laughs, but most ignore this stuff completely. "Why pay any attention to that junk with a different movie every night to see or our own station KOLD to listen to?" says one GI, expressing a typical view.

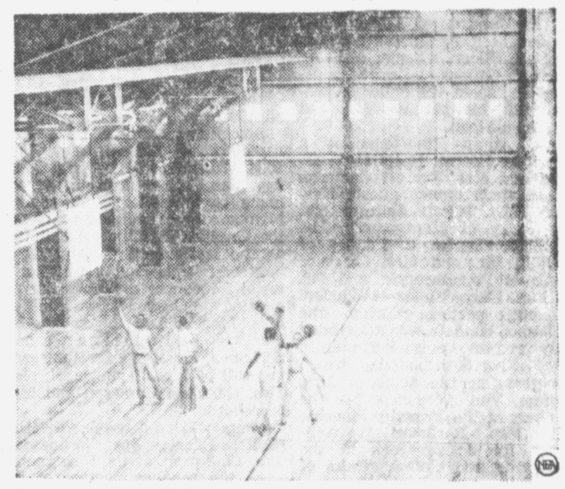

A favorite subject is when and if families will be allowed here. Base Commander, Col. Richard T. Hernlund, says it's still undecided. But the cost would be astronomical, for transportation and arctic homes.

The three most celebrated personages here are the nurses who arrived recently. It may be accidental but they have an unlisted phone and the door to their quarters happens to be of heavy metal with a giant lock.

Capt. Sophia Schadt of Detroit explains the basic tactical defense they've planned:

"We've decided that the best thing to do is be nice to everyone but never really have dates with individuals. We'll go to the club and movies but we'll go on our own each time and become friendly with everyone."

THULE'S ATHLETIC PLANT rivals that of any Stateside college. Basketball being played here is just one of many sports.

The medical staff for soldiers and civilians on the base also includes three doctors and four dentists.

The Northeast Air Command, with headquarters at Pepperrell AFB, St. John's, Newfoundland, has coined the motto: "Only the best go north." Most of the men think it's kind of corny. Nevertheless they take quiet pride in the idea, and the job they're doing up here.

The assignment is for 12 months. A man can take a 30-day leave back to the States for various emergency reasons. But he pays it back with 15 days added to his tour.

Tillson Pupils Are

Original School 100 Years Old

Records, which were not kept too accurately in years gone by, show that the original one-room school house was built in the neighborhood of one hundred years ago. In the early 1900's it was found necessary to add one room on to the original building. According to a spokesman, 22 years ago inside toilet facilities were made available for the first time, and up until last year, the building and its facilities had proven sufficient and satisfactory for the number of pupils enrolled at the school.

Due to overcrowded conditions which came about as many families moved into Tillson during the past five or six years, it became necessary to obtain approval from the people for the current additions and changes. Members of the present school board of education worked hard for months to effect the required changes. The members of this board are: Kenneth Clark, chairman, William Dippel and Roy Van Keuren.

Modern Facilities

In addition to the two new classrooms, which are about 50 by 30 feet, also have been added a principal's office, new bathroom facilities, a large gym and auditorium combination, a kitchen, committee meeting room, and combination library and health room.

Students who have been studying under rather cramped conditions for the past few months were overjoyed at entering the new quarters. The firehall, which has been used for a school for several months, has been relinquished to the board of fire commissioners.

Meeting Scheduled

Kenneth Clark announced that within a few weeks, probably around the first of February, a public meeting will be called at the school, and members of the board of education will present the entire story of the new building, including the cost of construction, the work that was accomplished to make this building a possibility, and they will at the same time, answer questions raised by those present. This meeting will be merely to give information to all of those who are interested in the new school, its use, and how it will aid the community. Plans have not yet been made for the dedication of the building, but it is probable they will be made before too long.

ficials and party officers in areas where conflict may arise between their vocational interests and their public duties.

The resolution also directed the committee to establish a code of fair procedure governing the conduct of legislative and executive investigations, the avowed aim being to see that witnesses are not "smeared." The committee will comprise four senators, four assemblymen and four persons to be chosen by Dewey. It will report Feb. 20.

14 Bills Introduced

Fourteen bills to implement the major portions of Dewey's legislative program also were introduced. These included measures for a 200-million-dollar public-housing bond issue and a 350-million-dollar bond issue for expansion of mental hospital facilities.

Rep. Dean P. Taylor, Republican state chairman, hailed Dewey's message as "a masterful report—forsighted, humane, practical and considerate of the ever-increasing needs of all the people." GOP legislative leaders spoke in a similar vein.

Dewey took an hour and 20 minutes to read his 11,000-word message to the Senate and Assembly at a joint session in the Assembly chamber.

The Legislature recessed late in the afternoon until Monday night.

Wicks Is Named

will receive $15,000 a year. He succeeds Sen. Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, who resigned the leadership last November under Dewey pressure for visiting labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay in Sing Sing Prison.

Wicks took his seat yesterday as senator from the 34th District. Mahoney appointed him to membership on the Finance Committee, which Wicks headed before he became the Senate leader in 1949.

Mahoney has held the finance chairmanship since 1949. At the close of the special session in November, Republican senators unanimously designated him as majority leader. This was formalized yesterday when he was unanimously elected temporary president of the Senate, a post which makes him acting lieutenant governor until a new one, to be elected next fall, takes over Jan. 1, 1955.

Action Is Asked

Detroit, Jan. 7 (AP)—Dodge Local 3 of the CIO United Auto Workers asked President Eisenhower today for "positive action" to prevent more industry layoffs. The telegram cited Detroit's current estimated unemployment of 100,000, a result of layoffs which have been going on since last fall.

Save Work on Pan Washing

When you are baking drop biscuits, spread only the space where the biscuit will be placed with butter or margarine, instead of greasing the whole pan. Saves work when you're washing the pan.

Prevent the inside of your salt shaker's metal top from rusting by painting with nail polish. Open holes from inside out with darning needle after polish has dried.

Coolie Kids Risk Lives to Earn a Few Pennies—

The sight of teen-age boys leaping into the filthy waters of Hong Kong harbor and swimming madly toward an incoming ship puzzles newcomers. The boys are risking their lives to earn a few pennies. The ship is from Red China, loaded with fish for Hong Kong. Upon sighting a fish ship, the boys dive in and swim as fast as they can. They are competing for the privilege of "coolieing" the fish to Hong Kong. Each carries a net for this purpose. Early arrivals on board get the jobs. Latecomers are out of luck. So the boys race to the ship and clamber aboard. The vessel does not slacken speed and the boys take desperate chances. Some are hit, knocked out and drowned. Others have been caught in the ship's propellers and cut to pieces. These photos show how the coolie boys get aboard the fish ships.

Coolie boys by the dozen, each with fish net, dive into the filthy waters off Hong Kong and swim out to meet fish-laden ship coming in from Red China.

With unslackened speed, ship moves along as boys risk their lives to shinny aboard to win a chance at unloading the fish.

New Contract Announced

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—A new five-year labor contract, covering 60,000 garment workers in New York city and continuing wages at present levels unless the cost of living goes up, was announced last night. The agreement, effective June 1 when the current three-year contract expires, was announced by the New York Cloak Joint Board of the AFL International Ladies' Garment Workers Union.

Strike Is Anticipated

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Long Island Rail Road reports the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen (Ind) has given "every indication" that it intends to strike against the railroad over demands for higher wages and other benefits. A spokesman for William Wyer, Federal Court trustee of the bankrupt commuter line, said the Long Island had called for the services of the National Mediation Board.

Tillson Pupils Are

Original School 100 Years Old

Records, which were not kept too accurately in years gone by, show that the original one-room school house was built in the neighborhood of one hundred years ago. In the early 1900's it was found necessary to add one room on to the original building. According to a spokesman, 22 years ago inside toilet facilities were made available for the first time, and up until last year, the building and its facilities had proven sufficient and satisfactory for the number of pupils enrolled at the school.

Due to overcrowded conditions which came about as many families moved into Tillson during the past five or six years, it became necessary to obtain approval from the people for the current additions and changes. Members of the present school board of education worked hard for months to effect the required changes. The members of this board are: Kenneth Clark, chairman, William Dippel and Roy Van Keuren.

Modern Facilities

In addition to the two new classrooms, which are about 50 by 30 feet, also have been added a principal's office, new bathroom facilities, a large gym and auditorium combination, a kitchen, committee meeting room, and combination library and health room.

Students who have been studying under rather cramped conditions for the past few months were overjoyed at entering the new quarters. The firehall, which has been used for a school for several months, has been relinquished to the board of fire commissioners.

Meeting Scheduled

Kenneth Clark announced that within a few weeks, probably around the first of February, a public meeting will be called at the school, and members of the board of education will present the entire story of the new building, including the cost of construction, the work that was accomplished to make this building a possibility, and they will at the same time, answer questions raised by those present. This meeting will be merely to give information to all of those who are interested in the new school, its use, and how it will aid the community. Plans have not yet been made for the dedication of the building, but it is probable they will be made before too long.

ficials and party officers in areas where conflict may arise between their vocational interests and their public duties.

The resolution also directed the committee to establish a code of fair procedure governing the conduct of legislative and executive investigations, the avowed aim being to see that witnesses are not "smeared." The committee will comprise four senators, four assemblymen and four persons to be chosen by Dewey. It will report Feb. 20.

14 Bills Introduced

Fourteen bills to implement the major portions of Dewey's legislative program also were introduced. These included measures for a 200-million-dollar public-housing bond issue and a 350-million-dollar bond issue for expansion of mental hospital facilities.

Rep. Dean P. Taylor, Republican state chairman, hailed Dewey's message as "a masterful report—forsighted, humane, practical and considerate of the ever-increasing needs of all the people." GOP legislative leaders spoke in a similar vein.

Dewey took an hour and 20 minutes to read his 11,000-word message to the Senate and Assembly at a joint session in the Assembly chamber.

The Legislature recessed late in the afternoon until Monday night.

Wicks Is Named

will receive $15,000 a year. He succeeds Sen. Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, who resigned the leadership last November under Dewey pressure for visiting labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay in Sing Sing Prison.

Wicks took his seat yesterday as senator from the 34th District. Mahoney appointed him to membership on the Finance Committee, which Wicks headed before he became the Senate leader in 1949.

Mahoney has held the finance chairmanship since 1949. At the close of the special session in November, Republican senators unanimously designated him as majority leader. This was formalized yesterday when he was unanimously elected temporary president of the Senate, a post which makes him acting lieutenant governor until a new one, to be elected next fall, takes over Jan. 1, 1955.

Action Is Asked

Detroit, Jan. 7 (AP)—Dodge Local 3 of the CIO United Auto Workers asked President Eisenhower today for "positive action" to prevent more industry layoffs. The telegram cited Detroit's current estimated unemployment of 100,000, a result of layoffs which have been going on since last fall.

Save Work on Pan Washing

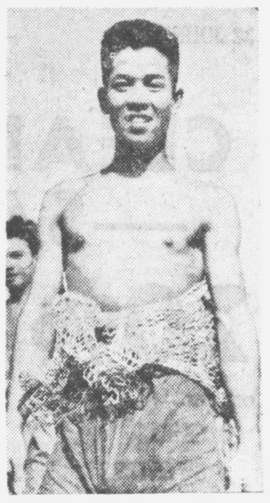

When you are baking drop biscuits, spread only the space where the biscuit will be placed with butter or margarine, instead of greasing the whole pan. Saves work when you're washing the pan.

Paint With Nail Polish

Coolie Kids Risk Lives to Earn a Few Pennies—

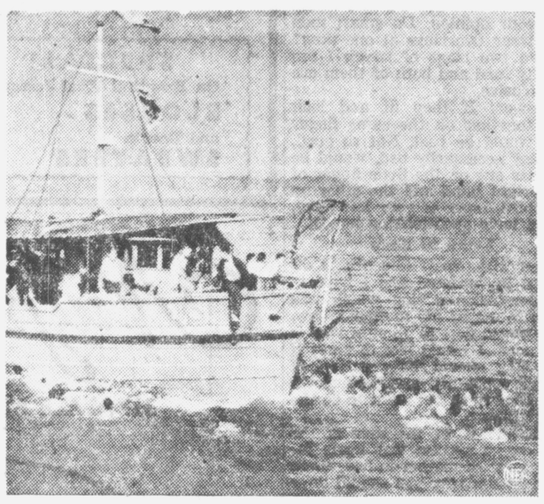

The sight of teen-age boys leaping into the filthy waters of Hong Kong harbor and swimming madly toward an incoming ship puzzles newcomers. The boys are risking their lives to earn a few pennies. The ship is from Red China, loaded with fish for Hong Kong. Upon sighting a fish ship, the boys dive in and swim as fast as they can. They are competing for the privilege of "coolieing" the fish to Hong Kong. Each carries a net for this purpose. Early arrivals on board get the jobs. Latecomers are out of luck. So the boys race to the ship and clamber aboard. The vessel does not slacken speed and the boys take desperate chances. Some are hit, knocked out and drown. Others have been caught in the ship's propellers and cut to pieces. These photos show how the coolie boys get aboard the fish ships.

Typical coolie boy, with fish wrapped about his middle.

Coolie boys by the dozen, each with fish net, dive into the filthy waters off Hong Kong and swim out to meet fish-laden ship coming in from Red China.

With unslackened speed, ship moves along as boys risk their lives to shinny aboard to win a chance at unloading the fish.

In fierce competition, boys swarm aboard moving ship like old-time pirates. Many have been knocked out and drowned.

New Contract Announced

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—A new five-year labor contract, covering 60,000 garment workers in New York city and continuing wages at present levels unless the cost of living goes up, was announced last night. The agreement, effective June 1 when the current three-year contract expires, was announced by the New York Cloak Joint Board of the AFL International Ladies' Garment Workers Union.

Strike Is Anticipated

New York, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Long Island Rail Road reports the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen (Ind) has given "every indication" that it intends to strike against the railroad over demands for higher wages and other benefits. A spokesman for William Wyer, Federal Court trustee of the bankrupt commuter line, said the Long Island had called for the services of the National Mediation Board.

Holiday Spirit At Benedictine

The Sisters and staff of the Benedictine Hospital express sincere thanks to their many friends for their kind remembrance in contributing so generously toward the happiness of the patients at Christmas.

Members of the auxiliary were in charge of the decorations and converted the hospital into a scene of beauty. Wreaths and yule logs with candles were in evidence everywhere. Many windows throughout the building were also decorated with the various Christmas scenes. The decorations in the children's department were particularly effective, and the little ones were well remembered. Beautiful gifts for the children were received from the girls in the record department of the Metropolitan; also from the girls in the YWCA.

Early in the holiday season the patients were delighted with Christmas carols played by members of the Musicians Union, Local 215. The carols were again sung during Christmas week by the grade pupils from the Immaculate Conception school. The Salvation Army, too, were solicitous and generous in their distribution of gift packages throughout the hospital.

The merchants as usual were most generous, and many friends contributed an abundance of poinsettias and attractive plants which made the newly renovated chapel more beautiful than ever.

Escape From Hurried Pace Keynotes Isles Of Mediterranean

Sorosis met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boyd Williams on Pine street, with the paper of the afternoon given by Mrs. Ward Brigham. The topic was, The Western Isles of the Mediterranean.

Beginning with Majorca, the largest of the Spanish Balearic group, Mrs. Brigham said that everything about Majorca tends to be romantic. It is in many respects a paradise. Dreamlike and remote in its way of life, it has remained almost unchanged down through the centuries. The most astonishing fact about present-day Majorca is the cost of living on the island, possibly the lowest anywhere in the civilized world. It is possible to have a complete house, overlooking the Mediterranean, a private beach, and a 16 foot motor boat included for $100 a year. The same price range extends throughout the entire economy of Majorca. Meat, for example, is 20 cents a pound, and butter only 25 cents a pound.

Sardinia Primitive

In Sardinia, there are traces of many civilizations to be found, in the speech, customs and costumes of the picturesque island. The United States and Italian scientists with United States money and leadership have succeeded in wiping out malaria which infested the country and prevented the Sardinians from developing their natural resources. Life in Sardinian villages is hard and primitive. The simple houses, usually one windowless room, have bamboo roofs, white washed walls with touches of aquamarine blue. Sardinia, with its Riviera-like climate, is easily accessible from the mainland of Europe.

Continuing, Mrs. Brigham said that there's magic in Capri, this island of Italy where "troubles vanish amid Mediterranean beauty and soft sea breezes." For as many years as mankind had a civilized memory, it has been the playground of an international set. The clock tower strikes at random as if to scorn chronometer accuracy in a place where "it is always Saturday night or Sunday afternoon," so carefree is the club atmosphere.

Corsica Unhurried

Corsica, under French domination, is very beautiful and very poor. It is the home of a race full of passion but free from low crime. The scented isle south of the Cote d'Azur offers a distinctive reward to those who leave the rush and display of the continent to visit vendetta land. The Corsicans are of mixed origin, independent in spirit, passionate and revengeful. The Corsicans do not care for subordination to man, time clock, or season.

Coming next to Sicily, Mrs. Brigham noted that the island is not only blessed with dazzling sunshine, exotic scenery, interesting native foods, wines and customs, but also has handsome Mt. Etna. The twilight is the beginning of the shopping hours, since all shops are shuttered against the heat during the day. Taormina is a winter resort in Sicily where many distinguished rulers of Europe have spent winters. So far, it has not been over-exploited and is still a haven for those who enjoy the simplicity of life which might not be found at Cannes or the Lido.

EVIDENCE OF FRIENDSHIP

This question comes from a hostess: "When asking someone to a party to take the place of one who has begged off at the last minute, should the hostess explain the situation frankly, or make the guest think that she (or he) was included in the guest list from the very beginning? My husband thinks it would be wrong to make a guest think he (or she) is second fiddle. What do you have to say about this, Mrs. Post?"

Correctly, this situation is taken frankly. Hostess explains: "Mrs. Jones has begged off. Will you do me a great favor and come in her place?" To be asked to fill in is rather a compliment because it means that you are an intimate friend of the family. A hostess asks only those she knows best and likes most to do this.

May He Wear Two Rings?

Dear Mrs. Post: I am not an effeminate man and would be very shocked to have anyone think it of me; that's why I would like your opinion. Do smart men ever wear two rings at one time? I have two rings of which I am equally fond and both of them are unobtrusive.

Answer: If they fit and look well together on the same finger that would be best. Not so good, but not necessarily bad, would be to wear one on the little finger of your right hand and the other on the third finger of your left hand, if you have good-looking hands.

Yours to Keep

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently, I divorced by husband and I have in my possession a ring which was given to me by my mother-in-law. It belonged first to an aunt who is now dead. I would like to know if this ring should be returned. I wear it constantly and have grown very fond of it, but want to do the right thing.

Answer: If, at the time of the divorce, no request was made for it by your ex-mother-in-law, there is no reason why you should offer to return it.

An afternoon tea is one of the simplest expressions of hospitality. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail, but her leaflet E-27 includes details on preparing and serving at tea. Escape From Hurried Pace Keynotes Isles Of Mediterranean

Sorosis met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boyd Williams on Pine street, with the paper of the afternoon given by Mrs. Ward Brigham. The topic was, The Western Isles of the Mediterranean.

Beginning with Majorca, the largest of the Spanish Balearic group, Mrs. Brigham said that everything about Majorca tends to be romantic. It is in many respects a paradise. Dreamlike and remote in its way of life, it has remained almost unchanged down through the centuries. The most astonishing fact about present-day Majorca is the cost of living on the island, possibly the lowest anywhere in the civilized world. It is possible to have a complete house, overlooking the Mediterranean, a private beach, and a 16 foot motor boat included for $100 a year. The same price range extends throughout the entire economy of Majorca. Meat, for example, is 20 cents a pound, and butter only 25 cents a pound.

Sardinia Primitive

In Sardinia, there are traces of many civilizations to be found, in the speech, customs and costumes of the picturesque island. The United States and Italian scientists with United States money and leadership have succeeded in wiping out malaria which infested the country and prevented the Sardinians from developing their natural resources. Life in Sardinian villages is hard and primitive. The simple houses, usually one windowless room, have bamboo roofs, white washed walls with touches of aquamarine blue. Sardinia, with its Riviera-like climate, is easily accessible from the mainland of Europe.

Continuing, Mrs. Brigham said that there's magic in Capri, this island of Italy where "troubles vanish amid Mediterranean beauty and soft sea breezes." For as many years as mankind had a civilized memory, it has been the playground of an international set. The clock tower strikes at random as if to scorn chronometer accuracy in a place where "it is always Saturday night or Sunday afternoon," so carefree is the club atmosphere.

Corsica Unhurried

Corsica, under French domination, is very beautiful and very poor. It is the home of a race full of passion but free from low crime. The scented isle south of the Cote d'Azur offers a distinctive reward to those who leave the rush and display of the continent to visit vendetta land. The Corsicans are of mixed origin, independent in spirit, passionate and revengeful. The Corsicans do not care for subordination to man, time clock, or season.

Coming next to Sicily, Mrs. Brigham noted that the island is not only blessed with dazzling sunshine, exotic scenery, interesting native foods, wines and customs, but also has handsome Mt. Etna. The twilight is the beginning of the shopping hours, since all shops are shuttered against the heat during the day. Taormina is a winter resort in Sicily where many distinguished rulers of Europe have spent winters. So far, it has not been over-exploited and is still a haven for those who enjoy the simplicity of life which might not be found at Cannes or the Lido.

Good Taste Today

EVIDENCE OF FRIENDSHIP

This question comes from a hostess: "When asking someone to a party to take the place of one who has begged off at the last minute, should the hostess explain the situation frankly, or make the guest think that she (or he) was included in the guest list from the very beginning? My husband thinks it would be wrong to make a guest think he (or she) is second fiddle. What do you have to say about this, Mrs. Post?"

Correctly, this situation is taken frankly. Hostess explains: "Mrs. Jones has begged off. Will you do me a great favor and come in her place?" To be asked to fill in is rather a compliment because it means that you are an intimate friend of the family. A hostess asks only those she knows best and likes most to do this.

May He Wear Two Rings?

Dear Mrs. Post: I am not an effeminate man and would be very shocked to have anyone think it of me; that's why I would like your opinion. Do smart men ever wear two rings at one time? I have two rings of which I am equally fond and both of them are unobtrusive.

Answer: If they fit and look well together on the same finger that would be best. Not so good, but not necessarily bad, would be to wear one on the little finger of your right hand and the other on the third finger of your left hand, if you have good-looking hands.

Yours to Keep

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently, I divorced by husband and I have in my possession a ring which was given to me by my mother-in-law. It belonged first to an aunt who is now dead. I would like to know if this ring should be returned. I wear it constantly and have grown very fond of it, but want to do the right thing.

Answer: If, at the time of the divorce, no request was made for it by your ex-mother-in-law, there is no reason why you should offer to return it.

An afternoon tea is one of the simplest expressions of hospitality. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail, but her leaflet E-27 includes details on preparing and serving at tea. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York, 19, N. Y.

Major in Wac Wed To Army Officer At Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Major Ruth S. Westbrook, WAC, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George B. Snyder of Saugerties, became the bride of Lt. Col. Harold W. Miner, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William A. Miner of Bloomingdale, Ill., in a ceremony December 19 in the Post Chapel No. 1 at the Engineering Center, Fort Belvoir, Va. Chaplain Major Gomer S. Rees officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Harold G. Davis of Hurley. The maid of honor was WAC Lt. Virginia M. Deloney.

The bride was attired in gown of pale blue and white satin brocade with a wide Bertha collar of rare Flemish lace. This gown is a family heirloom, first worn by the bride's great great grandmother in 1784.

Major Wade H. Padgett, student supervisor at The Engineer School, Ft. Belvoir, was best man. Ushers were Richard and Robert Davis of Hurley.

A reception was held at MacKenzie Hall, Fort Belvoir, following the ceremony. More than 100 guests witnessed the cutting of the cake with a Samuria sword. The guests included Maj. Gen. Stanley L. Scott, commanding general, the Engineer Center; Col. Gerald E. Galloway, assistant school commandant, the Engineer School, and Gen. Geoffrey O'Flynn (ret.) of Washington, D. C. Also attending the ceremony and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Relyea of Hurley.

The bride who is a major in the Women's Army Corps, is the head of the Student Record Section of the Engineer School and WCA Staff Advisor for the Chief of Engineers. She attended the University of Rochester and the Spencer Business College.

Col. Miner, a graduate of the University of Illinois, is an instructor in the Construction Branch, Department of Engineering at The Engineer School. He is a registered professional civil engineer.

Extra Care in Dressing Is Needed

Lady Esther, Ltd.

The well-groomed girl is smart looking at all times. To her, storms are no excuse for ill-matched clothing, stringy hair, spattered stockings or smeared makeup. This girl is using (left) a cream makeup said to withstand both rain and dirt. Combining foundation and powder, it can be applied with the fingertips in seconds. Then (center) she selects dress to go with her velveteen raincoat. Now our rainy-day beauty goes happily on her way (right), confident she is both well-protected and well-groomed. Her curls are tucked safely into her hat and a plastic cover protects her handbag. Indoors later, her appearance will hold no hint of the weather. By removing plastic boots, adjusting hat and collar, she can be ready to greet fair sky.

Volunteers Give Services Five Days A Week to Hospital

The Kingston Hospital Auxiliary is inaugurating a new program of volunteer service on Monday at the hospital. There will be approximately 30 women giving their time to this program from 9-11 a. m. and from 1-3 p. m. five days a week.

The new program will include: Aiding in the admission of new patients and routine X-rays; sorting and delivering mail and packages; arranging and delivering flowers to the rooms; maintaining a book with the religion of each patient for the use of the clergy.

The Auxiliary is enlarging the program to this extent in an attempt to lighten the load of routine jobs now handled by hospital personnel.

It is hoped that in the near future enough people will volunteer time so that the visitor-control program, needed at the hospital, may be added to their work. The Auxiliary would like this to replace the X-ray program which they are now supervising.

If anyone is interested in volunteering and joining in this service, the Auxiliary announces that Mrs. Robert S. Russell, Saugerties, will have all the necessary information.

Extra Care in Dressing Is Needed

Lady Esther, Ltd.

The well-groomed girl is smart looking at all times. To her, storms are no excuse for ill-matched clothing, stringy hair, spattered stockings or smeared makeup. This girl is using (left) a cream makeup said to withstand both rain and dirt. Combining foundation and powder, it can be applied with the fingertips in seconds. Then (center) she selects dress to go with her velveteen raincoat. Now our rainy-day beauty goes happily on her way (right), confident she is both well-protected and well-groomed. Her curls are tucked safely into her hat and a plastic cover protects her handbag. Indoors later, her appearance will hold no hint of the weather. By removing plastic boots, adjusting hat and collar, she can be ready to greet fair sky.

Volunteers Give Services Five Days A Week to Hospital

The Kingston Hospital Auxiliary is inaugurating a new program of volunteer service on Monday at the hospital. There will be approximately 30 women giving their time to this program from 9-11 a. m. and from 1-3 p. m. five days a week.

The new program will include: Aiding in the admission of new patients and routine X-rays; sorting and delivering mail and packages; arranging and delivering flowers to the rooms; maintaining a book with the religion of each patient for the use of the clergy.

The Auxiliary is enlarging the program to this extent in an attempt to lighten the load of routine jobs now handled by hospital personnel.

It is hoped that in the near future enough people will volunteer time so that the visitor-control program, needed at the hospital, may be added to their work. The Auxiliary would like this to replace the X-ray program which they are now supervising.

If anyone is interested in volunteering and joining in this service, the Auxiliary announces that Mrs. Robert S. Russell, Saugerties, will have all the necessary information.

Only 12 Teams Are Registered for 17th City Bowling Tourney

Entry Deadline Is Set Saturday, January 16

Although nine days remain before the close of entries on Saturday midnight, Jan. 16, Kingston Bowling Association officials are alarmed at the slow arrival of competing teams.

Despite a lucrative prize guarantee for first place in the five-man team event, doubles and singles, only 12 teams have been registered to date, according to announcement by Irwin J. Thomas, the KBA secretary.

Starts in February

The 17th annual city championships will be rolled at Ferraro's Bowlodrome starting Monday, Feb. 8. Five-man events will be rolled Feb. 8 through Feb. 12 while the doubles and singles will be rolled during the weekend of Saturday, Feb. 13 and Sunday, Feb. 14.

Of the 12 teams signed to date, a half dozen of those came from one league, the Hercules circuit which was entered last week on a full scale by Secretary John Suski.

The other six remaining teams were divided with two from the City Minor League — Johnny's Drive In and Mannie's Barbers; three from the Ferraro Major League — Hymes Shoes, Smith Avenue Storage and Mannie's Barber Shop and one from the Good Neighbor wheel—Blinder's Ladies' Apparel.

Sign Up Week Underway

KBA officials, including Mannie Colao, the tournament manager this year, expected a flock of entries this week during Sign Up Week which was designated in a letter sent out to the league secretaries by President William R. Murray on Dec. 28.

"Despite this big lucrative guarantee prize offering entries have been coming in at an alarmingly slow rate," Colao said today.

Colao, however, expressed confidence that local bowlers will enter the tournament in good numbers before the closing date Saturday, Jan. 16.

Three Prizes Guaranteed

"Our guaranteed prizes alone should be enough incentive to warrant a hefty entry list," said Colao, "particularly when you realize that the prizes are even better than last year when $125 was offered for first place prize.

"This year, the KBA is offering $150 guaranteed first place prize in the five-man events for total pins, including handicap. That alone is a $25 hike over last year."

The tournament manager also pointed out that the KBA has set up two guaranteed first place prizes for the doubles and singles. A $50 guaranteed first place prize for total pins, including handicap, will be given in the doubles and $25 in the singles.

Everything on Handicap

Realizing that the average bowler prefers a handicap tournament, the KBA this year has gone all-out in making the 17th annual tournament a handicap tournament. All cash prizes, trophies and emblems will be awarded for total pins, including handicaps.

Although every league secretary has been forwarded ample supplies of entry sheets, it was announced today that forms may be obtained at Mannie's Barber Shop, lower Broadway; Ferraro's Bowlodrome, 25 Cornell street and the Central Recreation alleys, 19 Railroad avenue.

Cincinnati Redleg third baseman Bobby Adams led the National League at that position in assists (324), total chances (508) and double plays (39) during 1953.

Church Services Set at Pine Hill For Area Skiers

Protestant worship services for skiers of Belleayre Mountain will be held every Sunday morning at 8:45 in the Community Church of Pine Hill, the Rev. James H. Cox, pastor, said.

The Official Board of the Community Church unanimously voted to support a worship service for skiers who travel to Pine Hill and other surrounding communities for weekend skiing. The 8:45 a. m. service has been arranged in the church in addition to the regular 7:30 p. m. services on Sunday.

The skiers worship service will be 45 minutes in length. The services will be conducted each Sunday skiing conditions are reported good. The most welcome dress will be ski togs in order that the skiers can begin their journey up the mountain as soon as the worship service is completed.

The church and its pastor are planning the worship service in order that the service and sermon as well as the time of service will be well adapted to the skiers and their needs. All skiers of all Protestant groups are welcome.

Dykes Scores Miami Win

Miami, Beach, Fla., Jan 7 (AP)—Bobby Dykes, the lanky Texas fighter who was considered "washed up" a few months ago, jumped back into the headlines today as a contender for Bobo Olson's middleweight title.

Dykes, a 2-1 underdog, last night chopped out a unanimous decision over promising Joey Giambra in a nationally televised 10-round bout.

Two years ago this month, in Miami Stadium, Dykes came close to the welterweight throne when he held Kid Gavilan to a split decision. A month later, he followed up with a victory over Gil Turner.

In Serious Comeback

Then the stringbean Texan who now calls Miami home lost four fights in a row and his friends figured he was through. But after a long layoff, Dykes began a serious comeback as a middleweight.

Last night, before a crowd of 3,556 in the Miami Beach Auditorium, where he has never been beaten, Dykes was a superb boxer and counterpuncher as he slashed his way to a one-sided decision over Giambra, the fifth-ranking middleweight contender. Dykes weighed 155½, Giambra 155.

Judge Carl Gardner gave Dykes seven rounds to two for Giambra and called one even. Judge Morris Freingold scored it 4-3-3 for Dykes and referee Eddie Coachman gave it to Dykes 7-2-2.

Patricia Keller McCormick, Olympic springboard and platform diving champion, won 15 American diving championships during the years 1949-1953.

Ben Hogan Voted Top Male Star

Palm Springs, Calif., Jan. 7 (AP)—Golf wizard Ben Hogan seemed to get a genuine glow of pleasure out of his selection as America's outstanding male athlete of 1953, and in discussing the events of last year, unloaded a surprise.

Advised that he had been named the Athlete of the Year in the 23rd annual Associated Press poll, the third golfer in history to win the award, Hogan exclaimed:

"That's wonderful—that's the biggest."

The 41-year-old Texan scored a golden triple in '53 in capturing the Masters, the United States Open, for the fourth time, and the British Open.

Which gave him the biggest boot?

"The U. S. Open," Ben replied, without hesitation.

Not the British crown, in his first attempt, and in view of his previous United States victories?

"No," Hogan continued. "If I were to win the U. S. Open 50 times, I'd still get the biggest kick out of it.

Marciano Runner-up

Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano was runner-up to Ben in the AP poll. Hogan received 67 first place votes and 229 points to Rocky's 12 first and 80 points.

Gene Sazaren became golf's first national winner in 1932, and Byron Nelson won the title in 1944-45.

Trabert Registers Win Over Rosewall

Adelaide, Jan. 7 (AP)—Tony Trabert, U. S. Davis Cup star from Cincinnati, crushed Australia's Ken Rosewall in straight sets today 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 to enter the final of the south Australian tennis championships.

Trabert's victory set the stage for another struggle between him and Lewis Hoad, 19-year-old Aussie star. Hoad outlasted Trabert in a bristling five-set key match in the recent Davis Cup challenge round.

Hoad put on a great rally to defeat titleholder Rex Hartwig 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2 in the other semi-final today. He and Trabert play for the championship on Saturday.

Rapps Turn Back Cedaraps 70-68 on Kozlowski Deuce

Jack Nichols Carded Monday With Rositano

Jack Nichols of Boston, one-time heavyweight boxer, and Len Rositano of Toronto, will meet in the semi-final of Monday night's mat show at the municipal auditorium.

The bout, two out of three falls, is a supporter to the Billy Darnell-Tarzan Kowalski main event.

Nichols, while a boxer, fought many main events around Boston, but gave it up for bone bending, "because I could make more money in wrestling."

Rositano, a clean cut young fellow, has a wide variety of holds, but must combat Nichols' rough tactics if he hopes to win.

Kowalski, 6 foot 5 brawler from Detroit, will have a weight and height advantage on Darnell, who stands 5 foot 10 and weighs 220. The latter, however, is speedy and tricky and hopes his spectacular drop kicks will offset Tarzan's roughness.

One-Hander Decides In Final Seconds

Rapp's Express and Back Cedaraps supplied the fans with plenty of action Wednesday night at the YMCA in "B" League competition.

Bob Kozlowski of the Rapps looped in a 35-foot one-hander as the final buzzer sounded to give Rapps a 70 to 68 win over Back Cedaraps. The game was close all the way with never more than six points separating either team throughout the contest.

With 70 seconds remaining, Frank Tiano drove in for a layup to put Rapps ahead 65 to 63. Huyler Van Wagenen came back to tie the score 10 seconds later. McCloskey followed for another two-pointer for Rapps to put them out in front with 25 seconds remaining. Huyler Van Wagenen again drove in for his second basket inside of a minute's time to tie the game again. Kozlowski then got the ball, dribbled across the midline and let go his spectacular game-winning shot just as the final buzzer sounded.

Village Rest Wins

In the second game Village Rest came from behind to defeat Greco Brothers 71 to 60. Grecos led throughout the game but had trouble with their shooting in the last period getting only nine points while Village Rest was pouring in 21 points during the same period of time. Don Ferraro with 24, Dick Lefever with 17, and Vince Van Bramer with 16 led the winning Rest team in scoring. Mike Tiano with 19 and Chris Rienzo with 18 were high for Grecos.

Randy Kelder Cracks 681 Triple; George Shufeldt's 256 High Single

Kelder cracked the pot-bellied maples for resounding scores of 245-223-213 to take down top honors.

His teammate on the Wonderly Company squad, which established a new team series mark of 3028, was runnerup with a gaudy 657 three-timer. George Shufeldt, who authored the 657 blast, turned in the top single score of the night with his 256 shot in the middle game and added counts of 200 and 201 also to give him the hat trick for the night.

Wonderlys rattled scores of 1045-1029-954 for the new high of 3028 while taking three games from Jones Dairy.

Only 12 Teams Are Registered for 17th City Bowling Tourney

Entry Deadline Is Set Saturday, January 16

Although nine days remain before the close of entries on Saturday midnight, Jan. 16, Kingston Bowling Association officials are alarmed at the slow arrival of competing teams.

Despite a lucrative prize guarantee for first place in the five-man team event, doubles and singles, only 12 teams have been registered to date, according to announcement by Irwin J. Thomas, the KBA secretary.

Starts in February

The 17th annual city championships will be rolled at Ferraro's Bowlodrome starting Monday, Feb. 8. Five-man events will be rolled Feb. 8 through Feb. 12 while the doubles and singles will be rolled during the weekend of Saturday, Feb. 13 and Sunday, Feb. 14.

Of the 12 teams signed to date, a half dozen of those came from one league, the Hercules circuit which was entered last week on a full scale by Secretary John Suski.

The other six remaining teams were divided with two from the City Minor League — Johnny's Drive In and Mannie's Barbers; three from the Ferraro Major League — Hymes Shoes, Smith Avenue Storage and Mannie's Barber Shop and one from the Good Neighbor wheel—Blinder's Ladies' Apparel.

Sign Up Week Underway

KBA officials, including Mannie Colao, the tournament manager this year, expected a flock of entries this week during Sign Up Week which was designated in a letter sent out to the league secretaries by President William R. Murray on Dec. 28.

"Despite this big lucrative guarantee prize offering entries have been coming in at an alarmingly slow rate," Colao said today.

Colao, however, expressed confidence that local bowlers will enter the tournament in good numbers before the closing date Saturday, Jan. 16.

Three Prizes Guaranteed

"Our guaranteed prizes alone should be enough incentive to warrant a hefty entry list," said Colao, "particularly when you realize that the prizes are even better than last year when $125 was offered for first place prize.

"This year, the KBA is offering $150 guaranteed first place prize in the five-man events for total pins, including handicap. That alone is a $25 hike over last year."

The tournament manager also pointed out that the KBA has set up two guaranteed first place prizes for the doubles and singles. A $50 guaranteed first place prize for total pins, including handicap, will be given in the doubles and $25 in the singles.

Everything on Handicap

Realizing that the average bowler prefers a handicap tournament, the KBA this year has gone all-out in making the 17th annual tournament a handicap tournament. All cash prizes, trophies and emblems will be awarded for total pins, including handicaps.

Although every league secretary has been forwarded ample supplies of entry sheets, it was announced today that forms may be obtained at Mannie's Barber Shop, lower Broadway; Ferraro's Bowlodrome, 25 Cornell street and the Central Recreation alleys, 19 Railroad avenue.

Cincinnati Redleg third baseman Bobby Adams led the National League at that position in assists (324), total chances (508) and double plays (39) during 1953.

Church Services Set at Pine Hill For Area Skiers

Protestant worship services for skiers of Belleayre Mountain will be held every Sunday morning at 8:45 in the Community Church of Pine Hill, the Rev. James H. Cox, pastor, said.

The Official Board of the Community Church unanimously voted to support a worship service for skiers who travel to Pine Hill and other surrounding communities for weekend skiing. The 8:45 a. m. service has been arranged in the church in addition to the regular 7:30 p. m. services on Sunday.

The skiers worship service will be 45 minutes in length. The services will be conducted each Sunday skiing conditions are reported good. The most welcome dress will be ski togs in order that the skiers can begin their journey up the mountain as soon as the worship service is completed.

The church and its pastor are planning the worship service in order that the service and sermon as well as the time of service will be well adapted to the skiers and their needs. All skiers of all Protestant groups are welcome.

Dykes Scores Miami Win

Miami, Beach, Fla., Jan 7 (AP)—Bobby Dykes, the lanky Texas fighter who was considered "washed up" a few months ago, jumped back into the headlines today as a contender for Bobo Olson's middleweight title.

Dykes, a 2-1 underdog, last night chopped out a unanimous decision over promising Joey Giambra in a nationally televised 10-round bout.

Two years ago this month, in Miami Stadium, Dykes came close to the welterweight throne when he held Kid Gavilan to a split decision. A month later, he followed up with a victory over Gil Turner.

In Serious Comeback

Then the stringbean Texan who now calls Miami home lost four fights in a row and his friends figured he was through. But after a long layoff, Dykes began a serious comeback as a middleweight.

Last night, before a crowd of 3,556 in the Miami Beach Auditorium, where he has never been beaten, Dykes was a superb boxer and counterpuncher as he slashed his way to a one-sided decision over Giambra, the fifth-ranking middleweight contender. Dykes weighed 155½, Giambra 155.

Judge Carl Gardner gave Dykes seven rounds to two for Giambra and called one even. Judge Morris Freingold scored it 4-3-3 for Dykes and referee Eddie Coachman gave it to Dykes 7-2-2.

Patricia Keller McCormick, Olympic springboard and platform diving champion, won 15 American diving championships during the years 1949-1953.

Ben Hogan Voted Top Male Star

Palm Springs, Calif., Jan. 7 (AP)—Golf wizard Ben Hogan seemed to get a genuine glow of pleasure out of his selection as America's outstanding male athlete of 1953, and in discussing the events of last year, unloaded a surprise.

Advised that he had been named the Athlete of the Year in the 23rd annual Associated Press poll, the third golfer in history to win the award, Hogan exclaimed:

"That's wonderful—that's the biggest."

The 41-year-old Texan scored a golden triple in '53 in capturing the Masters, the United States Open, for the fourth time, and the British Open.

Which gave him the biggest boot?

"The U. S. Open," Ben replied, without hesitation.

Not the British crown, in his first attempt, and in view of his previous United States victories?

"No," Hogan continued. "If I were to win the U. S. Open 50 times, I'd still get the biggest kick out of it.

Marciano Runner-up

Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano was runner-up to Ben in the AP poll. Hogan received 67 first place votes and 229 points to Rocky's 12 first and 80 points.

Gene Sazaren became golf's first national winner in 1932, and Byron Nelson won the title in 1944-45.

Trabert Registers Win Over Rosewall

Adelaide, Jan. 7 (AP)—Tony Trabert, U. S. Davis Cup star from Cincinnati, crushed Australia's Ken Rosewall in straight sets today 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 to enter the final of the south Australian tennis championships.

Trabert's victory set the stage for another struggle between him and Lewis Hoad, 19-year-old Aussie star. Hoad outlasted Trabert in a bristling five-set key match in the recent Davis Cup challenge round.

Hoad put on a great rally to defeat titleholder Rex Hartwig 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2 in the other semi-final today. He and Trabert play for the championship on Saturday.

Rapps Turn Back Cedaraps 70-68 on Kozlowski Deuce

Jack Nichols Carded Monday With Rositano

Jack Nichols of Boston, one-time heavyweight boxer, and Len Rositano of Toronto, will meet in the semi-final of Monday night's mat show at the municipal auditorium.

The bout, two out of three falls, is a supporter to the Billy Darnell-Tarzan Kowalski main event.

Nichols, while a boxer, fought many main events around Boston, but gave it up for bone bending, "because I could make more money in wrestling."

Rositano, a clean cut young fellow, has a wide variety of holds, but must combat Nichols' rough tactics if he hopes to win.

Kowalski, 6 foot 5 brawler from Detroit, will have a weight and height advantage on Darnell, who stands 5 foot 10 and weighs 220. The latter, however, is speedy and tricky and hopes his spectacular drop kicks will offset Tarzan's roughness.

One-Hander Decides In Final Seconds

Rapp's Express and Back Cedaraps supplied the fans with plenty of action Wednesday night at the YMCA in "B" League competition.

Bob Kozlowski of the Rapps looped in a 35-foot one-hander as the final buzzer sounded to give Rapps a 70 to 68 win over Back Cedaraps. The game was close all the way with never more than six points separating either team throughout the contest.

With 70 seconds remaining, Frank Tiano drove in for a layup to put Rapps ahead 65 to 63. Huyler Van Wagenen came back to tie the score 10 seconds later. McCloskey followed for another two-pointer for Rapps to put them out in front with 25 seconds remaining. Huyler Van Wagenen again drove in for his second basket inside of a minute's time to tie the game again. Kozlowski then got the ball, dribbled across the midline and let go his spectacular game-winning shot just as the final buzzer sounded.

Village Rest Wins

In the second game Village Rest came from behind to defeat Greco Brothers 71 to 60. Grecos led throughout the game but had trouble with their shooting in the last period getting only nine points while Village Rest was pouring in 21 points during the same period of time. Don Ferraro with 24, Dick Lefever with 17, and Vince Van Bramer with 16 led the winning Rest team in scoring. Mike Tiano with 19 and Chris Rienzo with 18 were high for Grecos.

Devore Is Picked For Dayton Post; Others Seek Jobs

Cincinnati, Jan. 7 (AP) — The coaches, not the players, were football's men in motion today as the National Collegiate Athletic Association neared the end of its hitherto listless 48th convention.

Hoping to line up one of nine or more head coaching jobs, aspirants were scurrying around to see various athletic directors before all head back to their home bases Saturday.

Dayton University filled its coaching berth last night by hiring Hugh Devore, former St. Bonaventure, Notre Dame, NYU and Green Bay Packer mentor, but still looking for grid chiefs were Toledo, Minnesota, North Carolina State, Idaho, Tex. A&M, Pennsylvania, Iowa State, Kansas and several smaller schools. Nebraska is seeking an athletic director.

Sums Up Attitude

Ike Armstrong, Minnesota athletic director, summed up the attitude of all the principals in the job-hunting sector when he said:

"I'm talking to a lot of people here. Some of them about the coaching vacancy, some about other things. I'm not naming anyone I confer with, for it just wouldn't be fair. When we decide on a coach, we'll announce it. Until then I have nothing to say about the matter."

Game-a-Week Back

Meanwhile it looks as if fans will get another game-a-week controlled television program next fall, with no regional broadcasts or small college games on the list; that the NCAA's move for a nationwide eligibility setup will be overwhelmingly defeated, and that the NCAA is worried a bit about the growing popularity of the professional game.

The 1953 Television Committee was to submit its report today, along with a resolution relative to plans which a new group, which takes over Feb. 1, will supervise.

Report Withheld

Although Robert J. Kane of Cornell, chairman of the Video Committee, and Asa Bushnell, TV program director, declined to hint what would be in the report which goes into round table discussion today, some of it leaked out.

The resolution will be minus the 1953 mandate which restricted a college to a single scheduled appearance on the nation-wide hookup, and will urge the new committee to look into the possibilities of offering games via delayed television on film, live broadcasts to theaters, and through the various subscriber setups.

The smaller college group got together last night to talk over the television plan, but decided to pass up any recommendations.

During his seven years as football coach at Oklahoma, Bud Wilkinson's teams have won 60, lost 7 and tied 3.

Veteran Arbiter Raps NBA Pilots

(By The Associated Press)

If the ears of the National Basketball Association coaches are not red today they should be following a severe tongue lashing by a man who should know.

Johnny Nucatola, a college and professional referee for 20 years, told New York basketball writers yesterday that the future welfare of the league depends upon the ability and willingness of NBA authorities to control the coaches' conduct.

"Some NBA coaches are more interested in trying to make monkeys out of the officials than building a winning team. There's no question in my mind that these fellows are hurting the game. They spend their time griping to the officials, encourage their players to do likewise and incite the crowd by their actions," he said.

Warriors, Pistons Cop

In the two NBA games played last night, the Philadelphia Warriors defeated the Milwaukee Hawks 77-72 for the second straight night. The Fort Wayne Pistons snapped a three-game losing streak by trouncing the Baltimore Bullets 90-78.

Rangers Nearing Playoff Position

(By The Associated Press)

Boasting a three-game winning streak for the first time in two years, the New York Rangers today were within striking distance of a berth in the Stanley Cup playoffs of the National Hockey League.

The Rangers, who'll have a new coach in Murray Patrick starting Saturday, beat the last place Chicago Blackhawks 4-3 last night to move within four points of the fourth place Boston Bruins.

Score in 2 Periods

Two goal splurges in each of the first and third periods gave the Rangers victory in the only game played in the league.

Camille Henry and Don Raleigh gave the Rangers a 2-0 lead before George Gee counted for the Hawks. Pete Conacher knotted the score with the first of his two goals. But in the third period Harry Howell and Nick Mickoski gave the Rangers a two-goal margin with counters within 65 seconds of each other. Conacher got his second goal for Chicago four seconds before the game ended.

Moose Shufflers Beat VFW, 5 to 1

With Bert Spray showing the way with 22 points, the Moose shuffleboard team scored a 5 to 1 victory over the VFW Wednesday night in the Inter-Fraternal Shuffleboard League at the Moose Club.

Trailing Spray for the winners were Gus Scharpf with 17 and Joe Myers with 15 points.

Bob Scanlon paced the losers with 17 markers. As a result of last nights triumph, the Moose shufflers are now tied for first place with the Elks Club.

Named Head Coach

Green Bay, Wis., Jan. 7 (AP)—Lisle Blackbourn, Marquette University football coach for the past four years, was named today as head of the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. The Packer front office announced that Blackbourn signed a three-year contract for an undisclosed salary with General Manager Verne Lewellen at Cincinnati this morning. Blackbourn, 54, succeeds Gene Ronzani who was permitted to resign as head coach with two games remaining in the 1953 season.

In other contests last night, the Waterboys turned back Feeney's, the Celtics edged the Spartans and the Boys Club was upended by the Salvation Army quintet.

Formal Talks Open

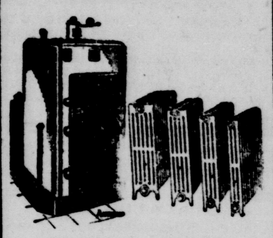

Rome, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Luigi Einaudi today opened a series of formal talks with political leaders prior to calling a new premier to succeed Giuseppe Pella at the controls of Italy's sputtering government. The 79-year-old President's conferences were expected to continue through the weekend. He probably will make no choice until next week. While the succession machinery was starting to turn in Rome, Pella left for a visit to his boyhood home in northern Italy. He resigned Tuesday after a split with some members of his own Christian Democrat party over a cabinet appointment. Former Premier Alcide De Gasperi, now secretary of the wrangling Christian Democrats, called party heads into conference today, presumably to try to iron out their differences.

Devore Is Picked For Dayton Post; Others Seek Jobs

Cincinnati, Jan. 7 (AP) — The coaches, not the players, were football's men in motion today as the National Collegiate Athletic Association neared the end of its hitherto listless 48th convention.

Hoping to line up one of nine or more head coaching jobs, aspirants were scurrying around to see various athletic directors before all head back to their home bases Saturday.

Dayton University filled its coaching berth last night by hiring Hugh Devore, former St. Bonaventure, Notre Dame, NYU and Green Bay Packer mentor, but still looking for grid chiefs were Toledo, Minnesota, North Carolina State, Idaho, Tex. A&M, Pennsylvania, Iowa State, Kansas and several smaller schools. Nebraska is seeking an athletic director.

Sums Up Attitude

Ike Armstrong, Minnesota athletic director, summed up the attitude of all the principals in the job-hunting sector when he said:

"I'm talking to a lot of people here. Some of them about the coaching vacancy, some about other things. I'm not naming anyone I confer with, for it just wouldn't be fair. When we decide on a coach, we'll announce it. Until then I have nothing to say about the matter."

Game-a-Week Back

Meanwhile it looks as if fans will get another game-a-week controlled television program next fall, with no regional broadcasts or small college games on the list; that the NCAA's move for a nationwide eligibility setup will be overwhelmingly defeated, and that the NCAA is worried a bit about the growing popularity of the professional game.

The 1953 Television Committee was to submit its report today, along with a resolution relative to plans which a new group, which takes over Feb. 1, will supervise.

Report Withheld

Although Robert J. Kane of Cornell, chairman of the Video Committee, and Asa Bushnell, TV program director, declined to hint what would be in the report which goes into round table discussion today, some of it leaked out.

The resolution will be minus the 1953 mandate which restricted a college to a single scheduled appearance on the nation-wide hookup, and will urge the new committee to look into the possibilities of offering games via delayed television on film, live broadcasts to theaters, and through the various subscriber setups.

The smaller college group got together last night to talk over the television plan, but decided to pass up any recommendations.

Upper Esopus Fish Club Plans Dinner

Members of the Upper Esopus Creek Fish and Game Association, Inc., will hold their testimonial dinner and dance at the Club House Friday night, Jan. 29, it was announced today by George Miller, banquet chairman.

The dinner is being planned to honor the following retiring officers:

Working with Miller on the committee are H. Allen, R. Hoffman, P. Herdman, L. Ford, H. Dutcher and G. Ribstein.

Reservations for the dinner must be made with any of the committee members by Monday, Jan. 18.

The Shandaken nimrods will hold their regular monthly meeting next Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 8 p. m.

Veteran Arbiter Raps NBA Pilots

(By The Associated Press)

If the ears of the National Basketball Association coaches are not red today they should be following a severe tongue lashing by a man who should know.

Johnny Nucatola, a college and professional referee for 20 years, told New York basketball writers yesterday that the future welfare of the league depends upon the ability and willingness of NBA authorities to control the coaches' conduct.

"Some NBA coaches are more interested in trying to make monkeys out of the officials than building a winning team. There's no question in my mind that these fellows are hurting the game. They spend their time griping to the officials, encourage their players to do likewise and incite the crowd by their actions," he said.

Warriors, Pistons Cop

In the two NBA games played last night, the Philadelphia Warriors defeated the Milwaukee Hawks 77-72 for the second straight night. The Fort Wayne Pistons snapped a three-game losing streak by trouncing the Baltimore Bullets 90-78.

Rangers Nearing Playoff Position

(By The Associated Press)

Boasting a three-game winning streak for the first time in two years, the New York Rangers today were within striking distance of a berth in the Stanley Cup playoffs of the National Hockey League.

The Rangers, who'll have a new coach in Murray Patrick starting Saturday, beat the last place Chicago Blackhawks 4-3 last night to move within four points of the fourth place Boston Bruins.

Score in 2 Periods

Two goal splurges in each of the first and third periods gave the Rangers victory in the only game played in the league.

Camille Henry and Don Raleigh gave the Rangers a 2-0 lead before George Gee counted for the Hawks. Pete Conacher knotted the score with the first of his two goals. But in the third period Harry Howell and Nick Mickoski gave the Rangers a two-goal margin with counters within 65 seconds of each other. Conacher got his second goal for Chicago four seconds before the game ended.

Moose Shufflers Beat VFW, 5 to 1

With Bert Spray showing the way with 22 points, the Moose shuffleboard team scored a 5 to 1 victory over the VFW Wednesday night in the Inter-Fraternal Shuffleboard League at the Moose Club.

Trailing Spray for the winners were Gus Scharpf with 17 and Joe Myers with 15 points.

Bob Scanlon paced the losers with 17 markers. As a result of last nights triumph, the Moose shufflers are now tied for first place with the Elks Club.

Named Head Coach

Green Bay, Wis., Jan. 7 (AP)— Lisle Blackbourn, Marquette University football coach for the past four years, was named today as head of the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. The Packer front office announced that Blackbourn signed a three-year contract for an undisclosed salary with General Manager Verne Lewellen at Cincinnati this morning. Blackbourn, 34, succeeds Gene Ronzani who was permitted to resign as head coach with two games remaining in the 1953 season.

In other contests last night, the Waterboys turned back Feeney's, the Celtics edged the Spartans and the Boys Club was upended by the Salvation Army quintet.

Precocious Swimmer

Julie Sheldon, two-month-old moves like this under water for distances up to ten feet, says her grandmother and swimming coach, Mrs. Jen Loven, standing at right. Baby flails her arms when left unsupported in the water, says Mrs. Loven, instinctively holding her breath as she strikes out and showing no fear of the water. Picture was made from an underwater window of the pool at Hollywood, Cal.

Formal Talks Open

Rome, Jan. 7 (AP)—President Luigi Einaudi today opened a series of formal talks with political leaders prior to calling a new premier to succeed Giuseppe Pella at the controls of Italy's sputtering government. The 79-year-old President's conferences were expected to continue through the weekend. He probably will make no choice until next week. While the succession machinery was starting to turn in Rome, Pella left for a visit to his boyhood home in northern Italy. He resigned Tuesday after a split with some members of his own Christian Democrat party over a cabinet appointment. Former Premier Alcide De Gasperi, now secretary of the wrangling Christian Democrats, called party heads into conference today, presumably to try to iron out their differences.

Beria Asked for Bible

Vatican City, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Vatican radio said today Lavrenty P. Beria, Soviet police head, asked for a copy of the Bible before his execution Dec. 23. The broadcast attributed the report to Vienna dispatches.

Cascading Coal Buries Miner

Ravensdale, Wash., Jan. 7 (AP)—Cascading coal freed by a mine cave-in swept one miner from sight 400 feet below the surface here yesterday and trapped another for nearly four hours until he was rescued.

Rescue workers still are digging for Harry English, 39, of nearby Black Diamond. Little hope is held he will be found alive when the coal chute down which he disappeared is cleared of 35 feet of coal and broken timbers.

A happier fate was experienced by Roy Coutts, 25, working companion of English when the slide occurred. Fellow workers found him two hours later, pinned down by a rock which rested on his left leg and right arm. His head was covered with coal but he could breathe.

Coutts was reported in good condition at a hotel in Enumclaw, a few miles from here and approximately 30 miles southeast of Seattle.

Ousted Unionist

delphia for permission to take a deposition from Fay was denied on technical grounds.

Fay was general vice president of the IUOE until he was jailed in 1947 on a charge of extorting $368,000 from contractors.

Suit Is Filed

Underwood, as head of an independent faction of the Philadelphia local, has filed suit against the international seeking reinstatement as leader of the local and restoration of the local's autonomy.

He contended in a petition, that Fay "was instrumental in influencing the defendant, Maloney, to take over the management and control the funds and other assets of the said local unions (Local 542 and 342 (A)."

The Underwood faction instituted the suit after Maloney suspended membership meetings of the locals in August, 1952, to break a three-month strike of heavy construction machine operators throughout the eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware area.

Charles A. Wolfe, IUOE attorney, has described as "reckless statements" Underwood's contention that Fay exerted influence on the union from his cell. Wolfe asserted that Maloney "told that he has had no connection, direct or indirect, with Fay" since Fay was jailed.

New Necklines Are Stressed

Neckline treatments in the new resort fashions are generally high, wide and handsome and provide more cover-up than in seasons past. These daytime designs for dressy occasions all place interest above bodice. Gold silk surah, dotted with white, is used by Hannah Troy for dress (left) with wide V neckline. Tabs at each shoulder point up the V. Skirt is full and can be worn with a petticoat. Shaped beige linen costume by Grabois (center) has sleeveless, slim dress with wide neckline topped by little bolero heavily beaded in pearls, pale blue iridescent sequins and rhinestones. Linen and satin come together in pale pink dress (right) by this same designer. Wide, high neckline is piped in satin with piping repeated on brief sleeves.

Patino Yields To Young Romance

Edinburgh, Scotland, Jan. 7 (AP)—Millionaire tin magnate Antenor Patino yielded today and gave up his legal attempt to block the marriage of his beautiful 18-year-old daughter Maria Isabela to a handsome young Englishman.

The way was clear for Maria Isabela and Jimmy Goldsmith, 20-year-old son of an English hotel man, the runaway lovers whose plight had attracted worldwide attention, to get married at any one of 200 or more registry offices in Scotland. They already have a license.

Shortly after the court hearing attorneys for the young couple went to Edinburgh's Registry office and picked up the marriage certificates Isabela and Jimmy must have to wed. The lawyers wouldn't say what the plans were for the wedding.

There were reports papa had met the young people in secret last night and given them his blessing.

Came From Paris

Patino dashed here last week from Paris when he learned that his dark-eyed daughter with the hour glass figure and the debonair, Eton-educated Englishman had eloped.

He sought to bar the marriage, saying his daughter was too young for matrimony. Goldsmith's brother said he had another reason—he wanted a titled husband for his daughter. His own wife is a French princess, a descendant of King Louis XIV of France. Patino's father, fought his way to the top in Bolivia's turbulent tin mines and made himself one of the richest men in the world.

Only 48 hours ago Patino had obtained a temporary injunction blocking the wedding for a week. The lovers through an attorney filed an objection to the injunction yesterday.

Nine Billions in Red

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—The treasury announced yesterday it was just over nine billion dollars in the red on Dec. 31, but is expected to knock the deficit down to less than four billion dollars by June 30, the end of the fiscal year. The big New Year's Eve splash of red ink was seasonal—the result of six months relatively low tax collections while spending, chiefly for defense, went on at the usual pace.

Taylor to Seek His Reelection to Congressional Seat

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Rep. Taylor (R.-N. Y.) said today it is his "present intention" to seek reelection to Congress.

When he was named New York State Republican chairman last September, Taylor said he hadn't made up his mind whether he would run for reelection to the House.

Taylor said he is planning an early meeting of the GOP state executive committee to choose a successor to J. Russel Sprague as national committeeman from New York.

Sprague resigned several weeks ago.

As possible successors to Sprague Taylor named:

Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Boxing Commission; J. Raymond McGovern, New York state comptroller; former Lt. Gov. Frank Moore; Edward Jaeckel, Buffalo, former state Republican chairman; New York Secretary of State Thomas Curran; and State Conservation Commissioner Perry Duryea.

Presently serving on the national committee from New York are National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, Oyster Bay; Mrs. Judy Weiss, Rochester, and Taylor.

Taylor said he regarded Sen. Irving M. Ives of Norwich, and Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, Jr., as "possibilities" for the GOP nomination for governor in the event Gov. Thomas E. Dewey decides against running again.

stands through which the air can circulate freely. They contain a greased slide which is changed daily. The work is done on a voluntary basis during the hayfever season.

The slides are examined by Nussbaum, who counts the pollen grains found on them, and calculates the seasonal pollen index.

Reports on Stations

At the station operated by D. Funk at Funcrest, near Pine Hill, the total pollen count was 216. There was one hayfever day, compared with none in 1952 and 1951, and one in 1950. Maximum daily count last year was 36, and the station's seasonal pollen index was two.

Also reporting one hayfever day during last year was the Pine Hill station operated by A. Ribstein. Total count was 282, with the maximum daily count being 28. Seasonal index was three. This station has reported one hayfever day a season consistently from 1949 to the present.

The Big Indian-Oliverea Station operated by George Bedell reported three hayfever days, compared to two in 1952, three in 1951, two each in 1950 and 1949. Total count was 322, maximum daily count was 58, and seasonal index was five.

Phoenicia station operated by A. J. Simpson reported 11 hayfever days last year, compared to three in 1952, four each in 1951 and 1950, and five in 1949. Total count last year was 1,047, maximum count for a day was 132, and seasonal index was 17.

The Zena station maintained by Wiliam Colsten reported six hayfever days, the same as the total for 1952. The number of days was seven in 1951, five in 1950 and seven in 1949. Total count in 1953 was 524, maximum daily count 114, and seasonal index, 10.

To Compile Results

Results of these Ulster county counts are forwarded to the State Department of Health, which in the spring will release a compilation of results from stations operated at various points in the state.

Resort operators through the Pine Hill, Big Indian and Phoenicia area cooperate in ragweed control. The county health department furnishes the pollen count information which gives an indication of the effectiveness of their work in maintaining the area relatively free of ragweed.

In general, the Pine Hill, Phoenicia and Big Indian stations rank in the state as areas considered "practically free" of ragweed, with the Zena area ranking as "moderately free."

Cascading Coal Buries Miner

Ravensdale, Wash., Jan. 7 (AP)—Cascading coal freed by a mine cave-in swept one miner from sight 400 feet below the surface here yesterday and trapped another for nearly four hours until he was rescued.

Rescue workers still are digging for Harry English, 39, of nearby Black Diamond. Little hope is held he will be found alive when the coal chute down which he disappeared is cleared of 35 feet of coal and broken timbers.

A happier fate was experienced by Roy Coutts, 25, working companion of English when the slide occurred. Fellow workers found him two hours later, pinned down by a rock which rested on his left leg and right arm. His head was covered with coal but he could breathe.

Coutts was reported in good condition at a hotel in Enumclaw, a few miles from here and approximately 30 miles southeast of Seattle.

delphia for permission to take a deposition from Fay was denied on technical grounds.

Fay was general vice president of the IUOE until he was jailed in 1947 on a charge of extorting $368,000 from contractors.

Suit Is Filed

Underwood, as head of an independent faction of the Philadelphia local, has filed suit against the international seeking reinstatement as leader of the local and restoration of the local's autonomy.

He contended in a petition, that Fay "was instrumental in influencing the defendant, Maloney, to take over the management and control the funds and other assets of the said local unions (Local 542 and 342 (A)."

The Underwood faction instituted the suit after Maloney suspended membership meetings of the locals in August, 1952, to break a three-month strike of heavy construction machine operators throughout the eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware area.

Charles A. Wolfe, IUOE attorney, has described as "reckless statements" Underwood's contention that Fay exerted influence on the union from his cell. Wolfe asserted that Maloney "told that he has had no connection, direct or indirect, with Fay" since Fay was jailed.

Patino Yields To Young Romance

Edinburgh, Scotland, Jan. 7 (AP)—Millionaire tin magnate Antenor Patino yielded today and gave up his legal attempt to block the marriage of his beautiful 18-year-old daughter Maria Isabela to a handsome young Englishman.

The way was clear for Maria Isabela and Jimmy Goldsmith, 20-year-old son of an English hotel man, the runaway lovers whose plight had attracted worldwide attention, to get married at any one of 200 or more registry offices in Scotland. They already have a license.

Shortly after the court hearing attorneys for the young couple went to Edinburgh's Registry office and picked up the marriage certificates Isabela and Jimmy must have to wed. The lawyers wouldn't say what the plans were for the wedding.

There were reports papa had met the young people in secret last night and given them his blessing.

Came From Paris

Patino dashed here last week from Paris when he learned that his dark-eyed daughter with the hour glass figure and the debonair, Eton-educated Englishman had eloped.

He sought to bar the marriage, saying his daughter was too young for matrimony. Goldsmith's brother said he had another reason—he wanted a titled husband for his daughter. His own wife is a French princess, a descendant of King Louis XIV of France. Patino's father, fought his way to the top in Bolivia's turbulent tin mines and made himself one of the richest men in the world.

Only 48 hours ago Patino had obtained a temporary injunction blocking the wedding for a week. The lovers through an attorney filed an objection to the injunction yesterday.

Nine Billions in Red

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—The treasury announced yesterday it was just over nine billion dollars in the red on Dec. 31, but is expected to knock the deficit down to less than four billion dollars by June 30, the end of the fiscal year. The big New Year's Eve splash of red ink was seasonal—the result of six months relatively low tax collections while spending, chiefly for defense, went on at the usual pace.

Taylor to Seek His Reelection to Congressional Seat

Washington, Jan. 7 (AP)—Rep. Taylor (R.-N. Y.) said today it is his "present intention" to seek reelection to Congress.

When he was named New York State Republican chairman last September, Taylor said he hadn't made up his mind whether he would run for reelection to the House.

Taylor said he is planning an early meeting of the GOP state executive committee to choose a successor to J. Russel Sprague as national committeeman from New York.

Sprague resigned several weeks ago.

As possible successors to Sprague Taylor named:

Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Boxing Commission; J. Raymond McGovern, New York state comptroller; former Lt. Gov. Frank Moore; Edward Jaeckel, Buffalo, former state Republican chairman; New York Secretary of State Thomas Curran; and State Conservation Commissioner Perry Duryea.

Presently serving on the national committee from New York are National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, Oyster Bay; Mrs. Judy Weiss, Rochester, and Taylor.

Taylor said he regarded Sen. Irving M. Ives of Norwich, and Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, Jr., as "possibilities" for the GOP nomination for governor in the event Gov. Thomas E. Dewey decides against running again.

Phoenicia station operated by A. J. Simpson reported 11 hayfever days last year, compared to three in 1952, four each in 1951 and 1950, and five in 1949. Total count last year was 1,047, maximum count for a day was 132, and seasonal index was 17.

The Zena station maintained by Wiliam Colsten reported six hayfever days, the same as the total for 1952. The number of days was seven in 1951, five in 1950 and seven in 1949. Total count in 1953 was 524, maximum daily count 114, and seasonal index, 10.

To Compile Results

Results of these Ulster county counts are forwarded to the State Department of Health, which in the spring will release a compilation of results from stations operated at various points in the state.

Resort operators through the Pine Hill, Big Indian and Phoenicia area cooperate in ragweed control. The county health department furnishes the pollen count information which gives an indication of the effectiveness of their work in maintaining the area relatively free of ragweed.

In general, the Pine Hill, Phoenicia and Big Indian stations rank in the state as areas considered "practically free" of ragweed, with the Zena area ranking as "moderately free."

First Polio Show Is Scheduled by Olive In Onteora School

The first polio benefit show in Ulster county is scheduled for January 29 at the Onteora School auditorium, according to an announcement today from Harry Wilkins, chairman of the fund drive in the Town of Olive.

Chairman Wilkins, who has some talent signed, requested additional entertainment from Frank Oulton, who is scouring the county for volunteers to entertain in Kingston and in communities throughout the area.

According to Oulton, the Onteora school program will be arranged for an hour and a half, presenting 10 acts of variety entertainment. "We are considering all volunteers," he said, "for the worthy cause of fighting polio, and hope the stages of auditoriums will earn a large portion of the county quota, $50,000."

Kingston's show this year, Oulton said, will be a two-night affair held at the high school auditorium on February 1 and 2.

Oulton called attention to the talent hunt blank published in The Freeman, which entertainers may fill out and mail to him at his home, 149 West O'Reilly street.

Glasco Italian Club to Revive

At the annual meeting of the Italian-American Club of Glasco, Philip A. Gatti, was elected president for the ensuing year, and as he took office he pledged a progressive program, with anticipation for a new clubhouse.

Other officers elected were:

Trustees chosen include: John Spada, Thomas Martino, Paul Barca, Vincent DeStasio and Santo Francello.

Sergeants-at-arms are James Bitonti and Peter Misasi.

In accepting the presidency, Gatti promised a full-scale drive to reorganize the club with an increased membership, and a resolution was passed to the effect that any former member who desires to rejoin may do so by paying only the 1953 dues. The resolution expires February 1, however, it was stressed.

"My main ambition," President Gatti said, "is for the construction of a new clubhouse," and he pointed out the reasons why one is needed.

President Gatti appealed for cooperation from members and expressed the desire that the whole commnunity of Glasco would look with favor on the aims and purposes of the organization's program.
